BIG LITTLE LIES

"Somebody's Dead"

100 OVER BLACK WE HEAR THE SOUND OF SOMEONE BREATHING OVER 100 DISTANT, SPORADIC POLICE RADIO CLIPS; IT CONTINUES AS WE FADE IN ON BLURRY FLURRIES OF FLASHING LIGHTS AND AS WE INTRODUCE GLIMPSES OF DIFFERENT MALE AND FEMALE FACES
DAZZLED BY THE LIGHTS. WE DO NOT SETTLE ON THESE PEOPLE, THEIR IMAGES ARE FAST, FLEETING, BUT WE DO HAVE TIME TO NOTICE SOMETHING: THE MEN ALL LOOK LIKE ELVIS PRESLEY; THE WOMEN LIKE AUDREY HEPBURN.

AS WE HEAR A CAR DOOR BEING SHUT...

101 EXT. SOMEWHERE - NIGHT 101
WE WHIP PAN ON A POLICE CAR WHERE DETECTIVE ADRIENNE QUINLAN, forties, IS MET BY PARTNER/COLLEAGUE DETECTIVE
WALT GIBSON, also forties. THEY WALK PAST A FIRE TRUCK, AN AMBULANCE, THROUGH A CRIME SCENE.

GIBSON

In the back.

QUINLAN

(re: all the people)

What is all this?

GIBSON

Some Costume night, or something.
School fundraiser.

AS QUINLAN SURVEYS THE SURROUNDINGS, WE GET OUR FIRST GOOD LOOK: DIFFERENT WHIP PANS REVEAL THE YARD LITTERED WITH ELVIS PRESLEYS RANGING FROM LATE TWENTIES TO MID-FORTIES; A BUNCH OF AUDREY HEPBURNS AS WELL, SAME AGE-RANGE, ALL SHAPES AND SIZES. A FORTUITOUS COSTUME FOR SOME OF THE WOMEN; LESS SO FOR OTHERS.

GIBSON (O.S.) (CONT'D)

Victim's on the back terrace.

AND WE WHIP PAN BACK TO THE DETECTIVES. We get it now. This is the POV of someone watching them. And we can still hear his or her breathing.

QUINLAN

Witnesses?

DET. GIBSON

Plenty. Though not a lot of clarity.

101

QUINLAN
(no nonsense)
How contaminated is this scene?

GIBSON
They did a pretty good job of it.

They arrive on top of a staircase and stop, stare down at what we can only surmise is a dead body. EMT'S AT WORK BUT THERE'S NO PENDING EMERGENCY. WHAT'S DONE IS DONE.

GIBSON (CONT'D)
Already dead when we arrived.

Quinlan stares at the ground, shakes her head.

QUINLAN
My god.

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

late thirties, in what appears to be a police interrogation room. NOTE: ALL FREE-STANDING CLOSE-ONS ARE IN THIS SETTING.

GABRIELLE
It wasn't just the mothers. It was the dads, too.

CLOSE ON STU, fortyish

STU
The thing about fundraisers. They're vicious.

CLOSE ON samantha, forty

SAMANTHA
Everybody wants to prove who's the richest.

CLOSE ON STU

STU
Add alcohol to the mix... and the fact that... women don't let things go. They're like the Olympic athletes of grudges.

CLOSE ON THEA, forties

THEA
It's sexist how the women always get blamed.

101

CLOSE ON HARPER, fortyish

HARPER

I'm telling you. It all goes back to the incident on Orientation Day.

AN ELECTRIC GUITAR STARTS TO PLAY THE FIRST NOTES OF "BRIGHT LIGHTS" FROM GARY CLARK JUNIOR AS WE CUT TO:

102 EXT. MONTEREY - BIXBY BRIDGE - MORNING

102

AN SUV CROSSES A BRIDGE BY THE OCEAN WITH A SPECTACULAR VIEW.

HARPER (V.O.)

And at the root of it was Madeline...

103 INT. MADELINE'S SUV - MORNING

103

A TIGHT SHOT OF MADELINE MARTHA MACKENZIE, DRIVING.

HARPER (V.O.)

... the Herculean talker.

forty, a whirlwind of a human being, quakes with good intentions, bright, bossy. The contrast between Clark's sexy, rock n roll track and Madeline's face is interesting, not an obvious match, but quite an intro. There is nothing apparently rock n roll about her, but sexy...

MADELINE

There's really nothing to be afraid of. Your sister had a great time and so shall you. No need to be nervous.

She speaks rapid-fire, perfect enunciation. NOW, SEEN FROM BEHIND, FROM HER SIX-YEAR-OLD DAUGHTER'S PERSPECTIVE:

MADELINE (CONT'D)

You should be excited, you know why?

MEET CHLOE, seated in the back of the SUV, moving her head to the MUSIC AS THE BEAT EXPLODES. Glittery, bossy, just like her mother; precocious beyond her years, with a rock star quality. WE'RE ON A WELL-TRAVELED ROAD IN MONTEREY, CALIFORNIA, NEXT TO THE OCEAN, BLUE SKY, BRIGHT SUN. CHLOE MOUTHS THE FOLLOWING:

MADELINE (CONT'D)

This is the very first day of the rest of your life.

103

CONTINUED:

103

CHLOE
(some eye-roll)
Okay, woman.

MADELINE
Not a hundred percent sure about that tone.
(then)
Would you, please?

Chloe immediately LOWERS THE VOLUME OF THE MUSIC from her iPOD that is connected to the car radio when suddenly Madeline jams on the brake, LEANS ON THE HORN.

REVEAL IN FRONT OF HER, A BLUE MITSUBISHI, TEEMING WITH YOUNG PEOPLE, TEENAGERS, slowly moving behind other cars towards a stop sign at an intersection.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
Mother--

CHLOE Fucker!

MADELINE
Chloe Adeline Mackenzie!

CHLOE
You were thinking it.

MADELINE
Only 'cause that scared me. You want to see how teenagers die, this is how, that girl in front of me is driving her car and texting at the same time.

MADELINE LEANS ON THE HORN, YELLING OUT THE WINDOW:

MADELINE (CONT'D)
You are going to die!!

THE DRIVER SPIES MADELINE IN HER REAR-VIEW MIRROR, AS MADELINE JAMS HER FINGER INTO HER PALM, SIMULATING TEXTING.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
It's illegal! It's against the law!!

THE DRIVER, A TEENAGE GIRL, COOLLY EXTENDS THE FINGER: "UP
YOURS," with the poise of a veteran bird-flipper.

103

MADELINE THROWS THE CAR INTO PARK, JAMS ON THE EMERGENCY BRAKE, AND IS OUT OF THE VEHICLE IN A FLASH. CHLOE SIMPLY TURNS UP THE MUSIC. She's seen this before.

104 EXT. ROAD BY THE OCEAN - CONTINUOUS

104

MADELINE STORMS UP TO THE OFFENDING CAR, BANGS ON THE WINDOW. THE DRIVER, LORI, SEVENTEEN-ISH, WHITE SKIN, SPARKLY NOSE-RING, CLUMPY MASCARA, SLIDES DOWN THE WINDOW.

LORI

What is your problem?

MADELINE

You put down that phone. You could kill yourself and your-- Abigail?

A stunned beat.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

What have I told you about riding with texters, young lady?!

On the back seat, a SIXTEEN YEAR OLD GIRL drops her head into her hands.

ABIGAIL

Mom!

MADELINE

It's worse than drinking!

MADELINE SNATCHES THE PHONE, THEN WINGS IT ONTO THE FLOOR IN FRONT OF THE GAPE-JAWED PASSENGER.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

You must stop it.

Lori looks back at this alien. As Madeline turns and heads back, she HEARS THE EXPLOSION OF LAUGHTER FROM WITHIN THE MITSUBISHI. Upon which, MADELINE NOTICES ANOTHER CAR, STOPPED BEHIND HERS; SHE THROWS OUT AN APOLOGETIC WAVE, BEGINS TO TROT BACK TO HER CAR, PROMPTLY FALLS. SPLAT.

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

GABRIELLE

It's possible that had she not fallen, nobody would've gotten killed.

105 INT. JANE'S PRIUS - MORNING

105

JANE CHAPMAN, twenty-four, behind the wheel, her tired old Prius idling behind the parked SUV. There's a palpable fragility to Jane. No makeup, no effort made to draw attention to herself. A hint of anxiety on her face; through it all she oozes a fundamental kindness.

JANE

Ouch.

STRAPPED INTO THE BACK SEAT, HER SIX-YEAR-OLD SON, ZIGGY. Big eyes, the image of innocence and gentility. He could pass for a puppet.

ZIGGY

Did you hurt yourself?

JANE

No. The lady tripped, she fell down.

THE MITSUBISHI ZOOMS OFF after doing its stop at the intersection. JANE PUTS ON HER SIGNAL, BEGINS TO NAVIGATE PAST THE PARKED SUV.

ZIGGY

Where are we going?

JANE

We don't want to be late for Orientation.

ZIGGY

But shouldn't we make sure the lady's okay?

JANE

Well...

(then)

You're right, we should.

JANE PULLS THE PRIUS OVER, DEBOARDS, under--

106 EXT. ROAD BY THE OCEAN - CONTINUOUS

106

JANE

(calling to Madeline)

Are you okay?

As Jane helps her up--

106

MADELINE

I'm fine. I just rolled my ankle a little.

JANE

You should probably get ice on it.

MADELINE

I've got to get to school. My daughter's first day, they have a thing about tardiness.

JANE

At Otter Bay? That's where I'm going, my son, Ziggy, is starting there.

MADELINE

Ziggy? Like Ziggy Stardust? What a great name.

(indicating)

That's my little Chloe, shrinking from embarrassment right there. Are you new to Monterey?

JANE

Just moved here. Two weeks ago.

MADELINE

I'm Madeline, by the way, Madeline Martha Mackenzie. I only go by Madeline, but for some reason I always mention the Martha.

JANE

Jane. Jane-no-middle-name Chapman.

MADELINE

I already like you, Jane-no-middle-Chapman. You're an intrinsically nice person, I have a nose for this sort of thing.

CLOSE ON BERNARD, forties.

BERNARD

What Madeline had was a nose for everybody else's business.

CLOSE ON OREN, also forties.

106

OREN

(times ten)

Oh my god.

107 INT. JANE'S PRIUS - MORNING

107

Jane drives, Madeline rides, her injured foot elevated above the dashboard. Chloe sits in the back, next to Ziggy.

MADELINE

I'm a stay-at-home myself so I'm glad to welcome another full time mother into the ranks. It can be us against them sometimes, the career moms in this town, they put more into their various board meetings than they do parenting, trust me.

CHLOE

My Mom's an active talker.

JANE

I actually have a part-time job.

MADELINE

So do I, but it doesn't really count, the over-under in this town is a hundred and fifty thousand. I work in the community theater twenty hours a week, so I'm an "under," what do you do?

JANE

Bookkeeping. So I guess I'm an "under" too.

CHLOE

(to Ziggy)

When I grow up, I'm going to run a massive Label. Do you have plans?

ZIGGY BLINKS HARD, TWICE: A NERVOUS TIC HE HAS WHEN THINGS JUST DO NOT COMPUTE.

CHLOE (CONT'D)

I'm effervescent, which makes for a good leader. Do you have an adjective you like to go by?

ZIGGY

No.

107

CONTINUED:

107

CHLOE

What kind of music do you listen to?
I'm into soul. And rock n roll.

Ziggy blinks again.

JANE

He's a bit nervous.

CHLOE

There's nothing to be scared about.
There aren't even that many rules to follow. We have to wash our hands before going into the classroom. And we're allowed only one paper towel.

AS ZIGGY BLINKS TWICE--

CHLOE (CONT'D)

No peanut butter allowed, 'cos some kids are allergic. You can't even have it in your lunch box. I got Janis on mine. Joplin, of course.
My sister made it. Who's on yours?
Don't tell me Bowie?

Jane takes a deep breath of anxiety.

JANE

Will he be teased if he brings his lunch in a bag?

MADELINE

Okay, darling, you need to relax.
Ziggy will be walking in with Chloe, that's like arriving with the golden ticket.

The golden ticket smiles as she shows her iPod to Ziggy, and presses play.

107A

AN EXTREME CLOSE UP OF A FEMALE FINGER

107A

GENTLY HITTING THE HEAD OF A MICROPHONE THREE TIMES. THE INSTRUMENTAL BEGINNING OF A CHARLES BRADLEY SONG STARTS TO

QUINLAN
... and a fracture at the base of the skull.

SMASH CUT TO:

GLIMPSES OF HARPER, GABRIELLE, SAMANTHA AND THEA, all looking like Audrey Hepburn, only now, they are not dazzled by FLASHING POLICE LIGHTS but by camera flashes, and they all have huge smiles on their faces. Then another Audrey Hepburn appears, one that we haven't seen yet, as we're startled by the voice of Charles Bradley who screams his heart out: I'M A VICTIM OF LOVIN YOU! Meet CELESTE WRIGHT.

108 EXT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, PATIO - DAY

108

A tall, statuesque beauty, mid-forties; she's stunning, even without her Audrey Hepburn look. We enjoy watching her as BRADLEY KEEPS SINGING OUT LOUD his broken heart. Her eyes closed, it looks like she's listening to the music and appreciating it. Perhaps retreating into it. This time, the match between sound and face seems perfect until something bounces off her forehead. She opens her eyes and clearly doesn't have the look of someone who is appreciating the moment.

CELESTE'S POV: her SIX-YEAR-OLD TWINS, JOSH AND MAX, scamper about the patio, firing Nerf missiles at each other.

108

CONTINUED:

108

CELESTE

C'mon, guys, put down the weapons, we're going to be late.

(kneeling before Josh)

Let's get your jacket zipped, c'mon.

THUMP: A NERF MISSILE BOUNCES OFF HER FOREHEAD. SHE CLOSES HER EYES AGAIN AND SHAKES HER HEAD.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

(calling out)

Perry!!

JOSH

He's my POW.

CELESTE

Put down the gun, and grab your jacket. We need to go.

Josh fires again, as PERRY, forties, suit and tie, Hollywood good looks, enters with a suitcase. THE MISSILE HITS CELESTE IN THE EAR.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Dammit.

PERRY

(to the Twins)

Hey, hey, hey! What did we say about shooting Mom before noon?

As Max beams--

CELESTE

(slightly amused)

Can you help me out a little?

PERRY

(pointing an imaginary pistol at his boys)

Bang bang!

The TWINS DROP LIKE FLIES, PLAYING DEAD.

CELESTE

Thank you.

PERRY

(to the Twins)

First one to the car gets a dollar.

And THE BOYS POP UP; IN A FLASH THEY'RE OUT THE DOOR.

PERRY (CONT'D)

(charming)
Just takes money.

CELESTE

(with a smile)
You're bad.

PERRY

I thought you liked me bad.
(tenderly; covertly)
We make a "bad" team.

A smile. A kiss. A loving look. These two are clearly very much in love.

PERRY (CONT'D)

I wish I didn't have to go.

CELESTE

Do you really have to?

A look. Another kiss. This one a little hungrier... his hand slides to her buttocks, this could lead to the table, seems like it has before.

CLOSE ON THEA

THEA

There should be like a five-year limit on how long couples get to be gooey.
(adding) My opinion.

109

EXT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL - MORNING

109

MORNING RECEPTION IN PROGRESS. THE TERRACE AND YARD ARE BUBBLING WITH ENERGETIC FIRST GRADERS AND THEIR PROUD PARENTS. A bright building, manicured landscaping, the DISTANT SOUND OF THE PACIFIC OCEAN: public school meets a bit of paradise.

JANE

Gosh. It's all just so beautiful.

MADELINE

Right?

JANE

I mean, it's so spectacular.

GABRIELLE
Madeline, hello, hi.

MADELINE
Hi, Gabby. Good summer?

GABRIELLE
Fantastic, you look wonderful.
(covertly, re: Madeline's face)
Did you..?

MADELINE
I didn't, but you're sweet to think so.

GABRIELLE
Well, you just look fabulous.

MADELINE
You are so nice.

As Gabrielle heads off--

MADELINE (CONT'D)
(to Jane; re: Gabrielle)
A gossip, we don't like her.

As Bernard and Oren play through, both distracted.

BERNARD
Hey Maddie, have you seen Justin?

MADELINE
(pointing)
Just ran by me, whoosh.

BERNARD
(to Oren)
That way.

As Bernard and Oren depart --

JANE
Where's Ziggy? I've lost him.

MADELINE
He's fine, Chloe's got him.

As RENATA, forty-eight, appears. Beautiful, sophisticated, affluent, with a finely-tuned self-awareness of all of it.

Madeline!

So friendly, they can only hate each other.

MADELINE

(claiming dominion)
Please meet my friend, Jane Chapman, she's new here.

JANE

(to Renata)
Hello.

RENATA

Renata Klein. A pleasure, and welcome.

(to Madeline)
How was your summer?

MADELINE

Flew by, how 'bout yours?

RENATA

The same. Joined the Board at PayPal, don't ask me why.

AS HER CELL PHONE GOES OFF--

RENATA (CONT'D)

Hold on. My "Hamilton" tickets.

MADELINE

Celestee!

MADELINE (CONT'D)

CELESTE

Madeline!

MADELINE

When did you get back?

CELESTE

Last night.

They embrace, then--

MADELINE

You total bitch, you got even more beautiful.

CELESTE

So did you. Is that the dress I bought you?

MADELINE

Damn straight, got my new dress, new shoes, new friend. Meet Jane Chapman, we already love her.

CELESTE

Hi, Jane.

MADELINE

She came to my rescue after I fell, trying to save young lives. Her son is Ziggy, he's the one with Chloe, so cute.

CELESTE

Can you believe they're in first grade?

Upon which, NATHAN CARLSON, forties, and his wife, BONNIE, twenty-seven, arrive. Nathan wears his customary light blue shirt: "Carlson Premium Landscaping" embroidered over the left pocket. Bonnie is cheerful, pretty, physically fit, a beautiful, sensitive soul... makes Madeline ill.

NATHAN

Hey, Maddie.

BONNIE (CONT'D)

They're not just classmates, but basically half-sisters, y'know.

MADELINE

Are they, now, am I missing the math?

NATHAN recognizes Madeline's undercurrent of hostility.

BONNIE

Well, Skye is Abigail's half-sister, and Abby is Chloe's half-sister, so... y'know.

CLOSE ON HARPER

HARPER

We were all concerned about Bonnie and Madeline both having their girls in first grade together.

CLOSE ON JACKIE

JACKIE

What it would do to the classroom dynamic.

RESUME

Nathan pulls Madeline aside.

NATHAN

Listen, are you okay to swap weekends? Let Abby come with us Friday?

MADELINE

Why?

NATHAN

We're going to see Bonnie's mother in Camarillo and Abby hates missing out. She and Bonnie's mom have kind of a special connection.

Madeline feels a twinge of vomit burn on her esophagus.

MADELINE

No problem.

Do I not look and sound sure?

CLOSE ON DETECTIVE QUINLAN

QUINLAN

We're looking at all angles. Nobody has been ruled out.

CLOSE ON SAMANTHA

SAMANTHA

So we're like seriously using the word... "murder"?

110 EXT. FISHERMAN'S WHARF - PARKING LOT - DAY

110

We're inside a car watching the ocean, the hue, the waves, the mood... unpredictable, powerful, frightening, beautiful... the ultimate intoxicant: fear and beauty.
That is Celeste's POV as she sits still being the wheel, just watching. We hear a CAR DOOR being shut. Celeste turns to look at...

Jane and Madeline in the distance, getting out of Jane's Prius as they walk away, but we can't hear them, they're too far. Of course, Madeline is speaking non-stop.

That puts a smile on Celeste's face. She stares back at the ocean for a moment. The sadness comes back. She washes it away and gets out.

111 EXT. FISHERMAN'S WHARF - BOARDWALK - DAY

111

Madeline and Jane walk on the boardwalk. Hobbled a bit by the turned ankle, Madeline walks, arm locked with Jane.
Already intimate friends, it seems.

MADELINE

(to Jane)

I actually like Nathan.

(then)

Okay, "like" might be a strong word, but I admit he's a decent person. I just wasn't prepared to see him there, he certainly wasn't for Abigail's first day.

111

JANE
Punch her in the face.

That startles Madeline; she stops, and spots Celeste in the distance, approaching.

MADELINE

We love her!

112 INT. BLUE BLUES CAFE - DAY

112

Funky, charming, a bit distressed... a great little gem of a salty beach cafe. TOM, thirties, proprietor-barista extraordinaire, is there as the three girls arrive.

TOM
Madeline! What's happened to you?

MADELINE
I am gravely injured, Tom. Turned my ankle.

TOM
(with a wink to Jane)
Oh, calamity.

MADELINE
This is my friend, Jane. She's my knight in shining armor, rescued me like a wounded dog, and you know what else, she's funny.

TOM
Nice to meet you, funny Jane.

MADELINE
She's just moved here, I'm guessing for your special coffee, could you bring us some, and throw in something chocolate that won't make my ass fat.

TOM
You got it.

education at a public school price.
Anyway, you're going to love it here.
Do you surf? What about your husband -- or partner, I should say, or boyfriend, girlfriend -- I'm open to all possibilities.

JANE

No husband or partner. Just me.

MADELINE

So... Ziggy's dad..?

CELESTE

(to Madeline)

Easy, girl.

JANE

It's okay.

(then)

He's not in the picture.

(then)

He was actually never in the picture, we weren't... together.

MADELINE

(fascinated)

Really?

CELESTE

(sensing Jane's discomfort)

Where'd you move here from?

JANE

Santa Cruz. Lived with my parents there.

MADELINE

She's a part time bookkeeper, isn't that great?

(to Jane)

We actually hire freelance accountants at the theater when we go into production, I'll see if we have anything for you.

112

JANE

Wow.

(a beat, a bit overwhelmed)
You're so... nice.

MADELINE

This is Monterey, we pound people with "nice."

CELESTE

Not to death.

Madeline and Celeste seem to have some sort of complicity.

JANE

You guys are long-time friends?

Madeline and Celeste look at each other.

MADELINE

We met what... four years ago?

CELESTE

(to Jane)
She saved one of the twins from drowning.

MADELINE

Oh, please, he was in a swimming class.

CELESTE

Madeline. You jumped into a pool to save my child.

MADELINE

And I'd do it all over again.
(to Jane)
She bought me a new outfit after.

CELESTE

(to Jane)
You could say we're lifetime friends.

Jane is just staring back at Celeste. She then diverts her stare. An awkward beat.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

JANE (CONT'D)

Sometimes when I go to new places... beautiful and lovely places... I get this sensation, if only I were here.

A beat. How odd.

MADELINE

But you are here.

JANE

I know, it's so weird. I feel like I'm on the outside looking in. At this other life, I guess. One that doesn't really belong to me.

ANGLE CELESTE

She knows exactly what Jane is saying. In fact, the words almost pierce her. This stranger with her raw, naked face -
- suddenly, Celeste feels like she's known her forever.

RESUME

JANE (CONT'D)

(to Celeste)

And when I look at you... I'm sorry, I don't mean to embarrass you, but you are so beautiful it makes me feel almost ashamed.

MADELINE

Ashamed?

JANE

You both seem so exactly... right.
Which makes me feel, I don't know... wrong, I guess.

The honest vulnerability of that is stunning to both Madeline and Celeste; they can only stare back.

Bonnie is getting ready to leave, gathering her purse and jacket as Nathan waits in the doorway. He's bristling.

BONNIE
Honey. It's fine. Go back to work,
I'll pick up Skye.

NATHAN
It's not fine. She can be hostile to me. But not you. I'm coming.

BONNIE (Zen)
And should she bottle up her emotions inside, what would that serve?

NATHAN
Can't she see? You didn't do

NATHAN

You're not gonna do that?

No answer. She's gone. He exits.

NATHAN (O.S.) (CONT'D)

Suicide. This is suicide.

That's so wonderful.

MADELINE

He's beyond adorable, you do know that.

MADELINE

Jane's not a nanny, Renata, she's a mother, only young. Like you used to be.

RENATA

Oh. I didn't mean...

TWO SIX-YEAR-OLD BLOND BOMBERS CHARGE BY, HEADING FOR CELESTE WHO BENDS DOWN TO HUG THEM BOTH, as Bonnie arrives--

BONNIE

Madeline. Hi.

I just found out you're working at the community theater, which is great.

(then; delicately)

There's a petition going round...

Bonnie spots Nathan who is watching from a distance, shaking his head endlessly.

MADELINE

What do you mean, a petition?

BONNIE

About the play. There's some concern about whether it's appropriate, I know, it's ridiculous.

BONNIE

Not because it's inappropriate, I just didn't think it was any --

I had no idea that you were involved.

MS. BARNES (O.S.)

Excuse me.

AND THEN, A RISING WAVE OF COMMOTION: MADELINE SEES A SOBBING, CURLY-HAIRED LITTLE GIRL, SHOULDERS HUNCHED, CLUTCHING HER NECK. EMILY BARNES, twenty-four, known to all as Ms. Barnes, stands alongside her.

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)

Could I have everybody's attention

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)

Someone just hurt Annabella. Excuse me, Amabella. And I'd like whoever it was to please come over and apologize because we don't hurt our friends at school, do we? And if we do, we always say sorry, because that's what first grade children do.

SILENCE. SOME KIDS STARE BACK. SOME STARE AT THE GROUND. SOME BURY THEIR FACES INTO THEIR MOTHERS' SKIRTS. There are no apologists forthcoming. Finally--

RENATA

Who was it, Amabella? Who hurt you, baby?

The child mutters something inaudible.

MS. BARNES

(steering the witness)

Was it an accident, maybe?

RENATA

It wasn't an accident, for God's sake, look at her neck, it has marks.

ANGLE ON BERNARD AND OREN, watching the others.

BERNARD

I bet it's Timmy Collins.

OREN

Way too much screen time.

ED

You're drawn to damaged people.

MADELINE

I am not.

ED

Even Celeste, there's something

MADELINE

I didn't say that, but it seems you read some recent study which you'd like to share.

ED

Alright.

MADELINE

Alright, what?

ED

Nothing.

MADELINE

Clearly it was something, Ed, you said, 'alright,' there was either meaning attached, or it was just a nervous tic. Which was it?

CHLOE

Guys, Mom had a day.

MADELINE

A forced smile comes across Madeline's face, perhaps she's trying not to twitch. Then--

MADELINE

I see. While on the subject of Bonnie, you know what she did today? She actually signed a petition trying to stop our production of "Avenue Q".

ABIGAIL

This is the play where puppets drop F-Bombs?

CHLOE

Cool!

MADELINE

It is not only not about that but it would actually be a good thing for you to see, since it captures the struggle of young adults being disillusioned with life, feeling demoralized and defrauded by the false promises of tomorrow.

ABIGAIL

I can get all that here.

And Madeline whacks the table. Rises. Exits.

REVEAL PERRY

On the deck... watching his family. As much as he wants to rush over and hold them, kiss them... he has to just stop and absorb how incredibly blessed he is. That's his wife over there. His two beautiful boys, in this incredible home. He's hit the lottery in life.

She's on her computer. She seems okay.

No response. She's been quiet all evening. Dangerous territory for Gordon. He's doomed either for inquiring, or failing to. Finally-- Fine.

"Fine" means "beyond fucked" in Renata-speak. But he's on record for asking at least, maybe he can tip-toe out of the minefield. More silence. Until--

I'm sure there are those, especially women, who might resent you. You're beautiful, hugely successful, financially independent, on the School Committee, the Board at the aquarium...

Ed knows to wait it out; her default mode is "vent." He goes to the picnic table. Sits. She paces about, and then, finally--

MADELINE (CONT'D)

I'm losing her. Abigail.

ED

Of course you're not losing her.

MADELINE

It's Bonnie this, Bonnie that. Last week, she came home all excited about peeling potatoes at a homeless shelter, said it was such a beautiful experience to be able to contribute. She'll whine if I ask her to set the table, but peel one fucking potato with Bonnie...

ED

Bonnie's a positive influence. You'd rather Abby be out with friends smoking pot?

(off Madeline)

That wasn't helpful, was it?

MADELINE

(off Ed; softening)

I can feel her pulling away.

Both of them are suddenly distracted by a NEW SONG THAT IS PLAYING FROM INSIDE THE HOUSE...

MADELINE

(fighting against her emotion)

I um... I always thought that Nathan would get his due. That Abby wouldn't love him as much as me. But he hasn't paid the slightest price. He's got Bonnie, who's nicer and younger and prettier and probably gives him mint-flavored organic blow-jobs. And he gets to be buddies with Abigail. He got away with it all. He won.

Ed absorbs that.

ED

(voice of calm)

Okay. Speaking as the consolation prize, we're going to have a pretty big fight about what you just said. But not tonight.

MADELINE

I didn't mean... you are the best thing that ever happened to me, don't you think for one second that you're not.

(a beat)

It's just possible for me to love you with all my heart, and nevertheless...

ED

Hurt over your ex.

He gets her. God, is she grateful for that. He pulls her into a deep embrace. Love is love. And Janis Joplin seems to agree: "When times are bad, just call on me darling." They look at the house, moved by the attention of the DJ who has vanished.

EXT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE - NIGHT

122

A small, unloved building, some decay on the shingles. But nothing looks too shabby when bathed in a full Monterey moon. Jane's on her cell, seated on the stairs of the porch, smoking, speaking with DI, her mother.

JANE

He was a little shaken up at first, said he never wanted to go back to school. But he's okay now.

DI (O.S.)

Why would she accuse Ziggy?

JANE

I don't know. She could have been confused, there were a lot of new faces... the thing is, she seemed truthful, it wasn't like she was a brat. The mother was a little awful, but the girl seemed okay.

DI (O.S.)

Well, you can't possibly think Ziggy tried to choke her.

JANE

Of course not.

DI (O.S.)

So what's going to happen?

JANE

Well, the principal decided it's best to let it go, move forward, so that's what we're going to do.

DI (O.S.)

I still don't understand why you chose to move there... all alone.

JANE

I'm not. I've already made friends, Mom. Most of the people are really friendly.

DI (O.S.)

Hello?

A long beat.

JANE

I'm sorry. I love you, Mom.

DI (O.S.)

I love you too, hon...

She doesn't let her mom finish, hangs up again. Seems to feel better now. We do love this girl. She walks to the couch, pulls out a hide-a-bed. Sits on it a while, then rises, and disappears into the only bedroom of the house.

124 INT. ZIGGY'S BEDROOM - NIGHT

124

ZIGGY LIES THERE ASLEEP as Jane stares at him.

Even though it's dark, we can't help being touched by what we see: the colors, the posters on the walls, the toys, the brand new furniture, a six year old boy's dream room. Now we really love this girl.

There's a certain magic to Ziggy while he sleeps. All his innocence comes to the fore. It hurts to think that this tender, sensitive boy will one day grow into a whiskered, broad-chested man thing. Jane gently climbs onto the bed, lies next to him. Studies that little face, counting the freckles. And she can't help but wonder a bit. Could he have done it? Does anybody truly know their child? After all... she then shakes the idea out of her head: "don't think about that." Almost on cue, Ziggy's eyes open and he's staring at her. Into her.

JANE

Hey. Did I wake you?

He says nothing. Jane stares.

JANE (CONT'D)

Zig.

ZIGGY

Am I in trouble?

JANE

No, baby.

But she has to ask. She has to.

JANE (CONT'D)

Ziggy. Did you touch that little girl? You can tell me.

He just stares.

JANE (CONT'D)

Did you, honey?

ZIGGY

No.

She studies his face. He just stares back. Then--

ZIGGY (CONT'D)

Why did she say I did it?

JANE

I don't know, baby. Maybe she just got it wrong.

A beat.

ZIGGY

Am I going to have any friends?

JANE

Of course you are, baby. It's all going to be great, I promise you.

A beat. His little eyes close again. She then pulls him tight to her. Holds him close, as if trying to corral his youth. If only he could stay small, insulated from the pains and hardship that tomorrow promises. As she cradles him tightly, a myriad of emotions trickles: joy, fear, love, worry... whatever the cocktail, it results in tears.

124A INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, HALLWAY / ABIGAIL'S ROOM - NIGHT 124A

Through a cracked door, we see ABIGAIL laying in bed, over her laptop, probably on FACEBOOK. A KNOCK. Madeline pokes in. Abigail immediately shuts her screen off.

MADELINE

Can we talk about the SAT tutor?

ABIGAIL

Mom.

MADELINE

Honey, if you don't get your boards up...

ABIGAIL

Y'know, Mom, the whole college thing, it's kind of a racket. Especially liberal arts, people go off to study Homer for four years, they graduate with a ton of debt and no job prospects.

MADELINE

You are going to college, young lady.

ABIGAIL

Ed didn't go, he's doing alright--

MADELINE

He took computer engineering--

ABIGAIL

And Dad, he never went, and he seems perfectly happy in life.

(off Madeline)

Career-wise.

MADELINE

Go ahead, finish the analogy, let's not leave Bonnie out. Her little cup of happiness just runneth over, doesn't it, with no college degree.

ABIGAIL

I'm sorry that you hate Bonnie. And that I'm unable to.

MADELINE

This is not about Bonnie. Not about your dad, or Ed, or even me. It's about you. And your future.

ABIGAIL

And what I'm saying is... The metric of success is not always monetary or career related. It can be much more of a holistic equation.

Okay. That actually makes Madeline's eye twitch.

MADELINE

I will not pretend to know as much as others about the holistic wonder of life. What I do know... in the end, if you're not independent, if you're not self-sufficient... all that it-takes-a-village crap, it's only true to a point. Even the best-laid plans can go poof, in which case you need to be educated, strong, independent, strong.

ABIGAIL

You said 'strong' twice.

(then)

You kind of remind me of a space-alien right now, you do know that.

Madeline smiles, tries to brush a piece of hair off Abigail's face but the daughter moves back, annoyed.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

(pointing to her laptop)

Can I?

They hold a look. The mother gets it, as it should be, and exits in silence.

125 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, HALLWAY / LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

125

We see Perry laying on the couch, the boys draped over him as he reads from "The Gashleycrumb Tinies" by Edward Gorey. This is Celeste's POV as she watches from the hallway. Her man. Her boys. A contrast to the previous scene.

PERRY

E is for Ernest who choked on a peach.

Perry pretends to be choked, and holds back a small BURP.

PERRY (CONT'D)

F is for Fanny sucked dry by a leech.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Strictly forbidden. Too many leeches.

MAX

There wasn't any last time we went.

PERRY

Of course not, I was there. They're scared of me.

JOSH

Pfff!

PERRY

Didn't you notice? Every time we go down there, I scare them away.

JOSH

How?

PERRY

With my...
(and he BURPS)
...burping superpower!

ANGLE CELESTE

Fighting a giggle.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Once you master it, ciao, bye leeches.

And he BURPS again. A big one. The kids laugh.

PERRY (CONT'D)

You guys want to know a secret? I mean... top secret.

They nod. Of course, they want to know.

PERRY (CONT'D)

My superpower?
(looks around)
I get it from Mom.

MAX/JOSH

No?

JOSH

Mom's spinach salad?

PERRY

UP, FRAMES A SHOT, AND... CLICK.

126 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, DEN - CONTINUOUS

126

CLOSE ON A COMPUTER, ON CELESTE'S Facebook page with different photos of Perry and the twins. It's a collage of bliss; Celeste organizes and re-organizes the page; there's a certain art to story-telling. She works away. Then, as a hand touches her on the shoulder, she flinches.

REVEAL Perry.

CELESTE

You startled me.

PERRY

Sorry. The boys mentioned a little girl getting hurt today.

CELESTE

(distracted)

Oh. Renata Klein's daughter. I don't think she was really injured...

(re: a photo)

Do they look cute there, or what?

PERRY

I love this one, too. Look at Maxie's little face.

These two look like real suckers for their children.

PERRY (CONT'D)

So what exactly happened? With the daughter.

CELESTE

A boy tried to choke her.

126

126

PERRY

Seriously?

CELESTE

Seems nobody witnessed it, but she was pretty distraught. And there was a mark on her neck.

PERRY

Which boy, do you know?

CELESTE

His name's Ziggy, he's new, and truth be told, he seems very sweet. I met his mother, who couldn't be nicer.

PERRY

Well, to be safe, let's tell Josh and Max to keep their distance from him.

CELESTE

I don't think that's necessary.

PERRY

Honey. If the kid is violent--

CELESTE

He's not violent.

PERRY

You know this, how, because he seemed sweet?

CELESTE

First off, he may be completely innocent--

PERRY

Or guilty, and the last thing we need is for the boys to be getting mixed up with the wrong crowd.

CELESTE

They're six.

PERRY

They're not to associate with him.

As she goes to pass him--

CELESTE

You're being ridiculous.

PERRY

The boys are to stay away from that kid.

CELESTE

Take your hand off me.

PERRY
If I can't be here to look out for them all the time, I'll at least make sure that you do.

CELESTE
I asked you. To remove. Your fucking hand.

This is scary now. Could it actually get violent? Finally, he releases. She holds a dagger-glare, then exits the room. OVER PERRY, WE HEAR THE TINKLING OF SOME PIANO MUSIC.

127

INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, FAMILY ROOM - NIGHT

127

MADELINE SITS AT THE PIANO, PLAYING IMPERFECTLY, SINGING SOFTLY to herself and only herself.

MADELINE
What is my life gonna be? Four years of college/ And plenty of knowledge...

AS SHE HITS A WRONG NOTE, SHE STOPS PLAYING. SHE GETS IT BACK INTO GEAR AND STOPS AGAIN WHEN SHE SEES ABIGAIL IN THE DOORWAY, STARING AT HER.

ABIGAIL
That's a song from your puppet show, right?

MADELINE
It's really more than a puppet show.

A beat. Abigail goes in, sits next to her mother. They hold a look, Madeline suddenly gets ambushed.

ABIGAIL
This play is important to you, isn't it?

That gets Madeline to smile. She spots the same piece of hair that she wanted to brush off Abigail's face earlier. She wonders if she should try again. She does. This time, it works; it's a gentle and loving gesture.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

Mom, are you okay? You're not like dying or anything, are you?

MADELINE

Dying, of course not. Why would you say such a thing?

ABIGAIL

Well, you seem a little wobbly. Are you having one of your massive periods?

MADELINE

No, I just... What people don't tell you is that you lose your children as they grow. As beautiful and wonderful as you've become, that little girl whose curly hair I'd have to de-tangle... the one who -- every time she had a bad dream -- would crawl into my bed, she's gone. I think that's what's going on now with me a little, maybe compounded by Chloe going into first grade... I'm losing my babies.

(deflecting)

Which, by the way, has been clinically compared to a massive period.

ABIGAIL

I'll always be your baby.

And that almost undoes Madeline. She fights mightily, perhaps futilely to hold in her emotion. She dare not say anything, fearing tears could actually gush out of her mouth. She nods instead.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

Bonnie's like a friend. Maybe even a best friend sometimes. But you're my mother. I'm your daughter.

The tears flow now. Madeline goes to hug Abigail.

And Madeline pulls back. No tears on silk.

MADELINE
I can still call you 'baby-cakes,' right?

ABIGAIL
Forever.
(then)
Not in public.

Madeline smiles but soon stops when she spots Chloe behind the door, peeping on them.

MADELINE
Jesus! Go back to bed, young lady!
Now!

Instead of running away, Chloe runs to them with a million dollar smile on her face. Impossible to resist. She sits between her mom and her sister and BEGINS TO PLAY ON THE PIANO; A PLEASANT SONG; A SIMPLE MELODY; LIKE A CHILD SONG. SOON, MADELINE JOINS IN FROM HER SIDE, ON ANOTHER OCTAVE. THEY HAVE DONE THIS DUET BEFORE. IT SHOWS. ABIGAIL WATCHES IN SILENCE, ENJOYING EVERY SINGLE NOTE. THE MUSIC CONTINUES AS WE CUT TO:

A WALKING POINT OF VIEW, at dawn, as we follow footsteps on the beach from a single person, apparently a man, since the imprints in the sand are from male shoes. They haven't been washed away yet by the waves that are coming in and out of frame, almost touching the footsteps. The person was walking very close to the water. Not too long ago. We stop when suddenly we notice that there are no more footsteps ahead, nor to the right towards the ocean; nor to the left, as if the person had vanished.

CLOSE ON MADELINE

Staring.

200

INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, LIVING ROOM - MORNING

200

Madeline stares at the ocean, lost in thought. Maybe some wonder. Until--

CHLOE (O.S.)
What's out there?

Madeline jumps with a start, turns to SEE CHLOE.

MADELINE
So help me, god. I will tie a bell around your neck if you keep sneaking up on me.

CHLOE
What do you look at? In the ocean.

MADELINE
Nothing.

CHLOE
You spend a lot of time staring at nothing.

MADELINE
Well, I take it back. There is something; it's the big "out there." The ocean is beautiful, it's powerful, mostly it's vast.
Full of life. Full of mystery.
Who knows what lies out there beneath the surface.

CHLOE Monsters?

MADELINE Monsters, perhaps. Dreams. A shipwreck -- full of treasure.
It's the great unknown, that's what the ocean is.

200 CONTINUED:

200

They both stare out.

CHLOE

What kind of dreams you think are out there?

MADELINE

I'm not sure. But I know they're out there.

ZIGGY (O.S.)

I don't want to go.

201 INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE, ZIGGY'S BEDROOM - MORNING

201

JANE sits on the edge of his bed. Ziggy is sitting upright, tense.

JANE

Honey. It's going to be fine.

ZIGGY

It won't. They think I choked that girl.

JANE

Look at me. You know in your heart that you did not choke that girl. That's good enough for me. It should be good enough for you. And it will be good enough for everybody else.

Ziggy stares back: "Do you actually expect me to fall for that?"

JANE (CONT'D)

Hey, what's our mantra, you and me?

Ziggy rolls his eyes, doesn't answer.

JANE (CONT'D)

We're gonna be...

ZIGGY

... brave.

JANE

Yes. We're going to be very brave. Every day.

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

GABRIELLE

You have to ask yourself "what's she's running from?"

202 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - MORNING

202

MADELINE and ED in the kitchen; Madeline is pacing, on the phone. CHLOE and ABIGAIL at the table having breakfast to the sound of Naomi Shelton & The Gospel Queens: "What Have You Done My Brother".

MADELINE

You cannot be serious.

(then)

This makes us cowards, Joseph, you cannot just roll over on this, what kind of precedent--

AS WE HEAR YELLING THROUGH THE PHONE

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Please don't you yell at me.

Madeline signals Chloe to lower the music.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

It was you who said we need to fight for our creative freedom. If not now, when?

AND WE HEAR MORE YELLING THROUGH THE PHONE

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Do not yell at me!!!

Madeline's yelling freezes Ed and the girls. She notices and walks out of the kitchen as we stay with the others who can still hear Madeline, whispering now. They share a smile.

MADELINE (O.S.) (CONT'D)

You know what? I am a lady and I've never said this to anybody before in my entire life, but I'm going to say it now: You can just go fuck yourself right on the head, that's what you can do.

202 CONTINUED:

202

Madeline comes back in. Sucks air in deeply through her nostrils.

ABIGAIL

Right on the head?

She shoots her a "not funny" glare. Everyone else thinks it is but says nothing. Then--

MADELINE

(to Ed)

He's thinking of dumping 'Avenue Q.' Not worth the controversy.

ED

What's he want to replace it with?

CHLOE

(deadpan)

Not "Cats"?

Madeline drops her head into her hands... as we hear Abigail chuckling. Madeline jerks her head back up, but the smile on Abigail's face is gone.

203 EXT. MONTEREY - BIXBY BRIDGE - MORNING

203

AN AUDI Q7 ENTERS FRAME AND CROSSES A BRIDGE THAT LEADS TO A ROAD BY THE OCEAN WITH A SPECTACULAR VIEW. WE HEAR THE THEME SONG FROM "THE FAIRLY ODDPARENTS" fading out as the car drives away; KIDS sporadically humming and singing over it:

"Timmy is an average kid/ That no-one understands/ Doom and gloom up in his room/ Is broken instantly/ By his magic little fish/ Who grant his every wish/..."

204 INT. PERRY'S AUDI Q7 - ROAD BY THE OCEAN - MORNING

204

ON PERRY. Driving. He looks in the rearview mirror:

THE TWINS ARE WATCHING THE PROGRAM ON AN IPAD. THE VOLUME IS LOUD.

Perry looks back on the road, then to:

CELESTE, IN THE PASSENGER SEAT. She doesn't turn. Stays silent. Then--

She turns, finally, and offers him a smile. He smiles back. Has she forgiven him, or is she simply intent on making this a nice day for the boys? Celeste guards her secrets well. Another look at the twins in the mirror from Perry, and back on the road.

PERRY

I'm sorry for last night. The idea of a bully being at large in the class, I just...

CELESTE

I don't think he's a bully. But you're probably right, we should err on the side of safety.

She reaches over and takes Perry's hand.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

I'm glad that you came back.

PERRY

Wish I didn't have to fly right out tonight.

A beat. Celeste seems to wish the same.

CELESTE

I was thinking... after you get back from Vienna, maybe we could try a new counselor.

PERRY

Okay.

Really? She seems surprised.

205 INT. PERRY'S AUDI Q7 - SCHOOL STREET - LATER

LEADING UP TO THE SCHOOL.

PERRY

Wow. Bit of a line.

CELESTE

It'll move quickly, we just drop

PERRY

We don't go in?

CELESTE

No, just drop. They can't be bothered with the parents now.

PERRY

We don't even meet the teachers or anything?

CELESTE

That all happened yesterday at Orientation. They start right in with class today.

PERRY

That's not something that you might have mentioned to me?

CELESTE

not, you can plop right next to me.

As SKYE approaches--

CHLOE (CONT'D)

Skye waves hi to Ziggy.

CHLOE (CONT'D)

AMABELLA ARRIVES.

AMABELLA

Hello. What's your name?

We now see Amabella from a distant POV. We can't hear her nor the kids anymore. We're inside a car parked further away from the drop-off: Jane's.

Jane nods and shoots a look back to the school.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

He'll be fine, don't worry.

Madeline is being honked at again. A LONGER HONK; Madeline drives off.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

(to the rearview mirror)
Get laid, bitch.

She waves to Jane who watches her go and then turns to look back at the kids among which Amabella is flipping through a stack of pink envelopes. Hands one to Skye, to Chloe, turns to Ziggy. Freezes.

Upon which, STACEY, thirty, yoga instructor, arrives, pushes down really gently on Madeline's back to help with the stretches.

STACEY

Yoga is a time for quiet reflection.

MADELINE

I don't like to be touched.

STACEY

STACEY

And Stacey heads off; Madeline can't help but check out Stacey's perfectly sculpted buttocks; looks to the mirror to regard her own. As Celeste steps in, holding

209 INT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY, LIBRARY - MORNING

209

THE CHILDREN ARE ALL SEATED IN A GIANT CIRCLE, TWENTY-ONE IN ALL.

MS. BARNES
Our very first project will be for each of you to do a "family tree," where you get to talk about your wonderful family. Isn't that great. But, before that, I'm going to introduce you to a very special friend to our class.

She holds up a stuffed animal.

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)
This is Harry The Hippo.

Some KIDS CHEER, SOME LAUGH, OTHERS DON'T SEEM TO CARE.
Harry looks a little odd.

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)
Harry has been a beloved member of the first grade for almost ten years. I know, you're not in kindergarten anymore, and you're about to find out that the transition to first grade is not always easy, but with Harry, you won't even notice it. And the best part: You will all have your turn to take Harry home for sleep-overs.

Some kids cheer again. Chloe and Ziggy share a look:
is this a joke?

209 CONTINUED:

209

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)
I'm going to start the day by passing Harry around, so you can all greet him with a hug.

Amabella's hand shoots up.

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)
Yes, Amabella.

AMABELLA
(making sure)
Does Harry want to be hugged?

MS. BARNES
Why yes. He loves hugs.

Ziggy then catches Amabella staring at him. She looks a little wary.

CLOSE ON SAMANTHA

SAMANTHA
Look, let's face it. Amabella picked that Ziggy out of a line-up.
And she was unwavering.

CLOSE ON STU

STU
The kid was off, I'll leave it at that.

210 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BEDROOM - DAY

210

Perry is packing his Louis Vuitton suitcase, he does so meticulously -- a man of precision and order. We can also feel him powder-kegging, his movements are militaristically crisp. Celeste enters, observes, sees he's making haste.

CELESTE
I thought your flight was at five.

PERRY
(no eye contact)
Best to get there early.

CELESTE
It's eleven-thirty.

210 CONTINUED:

210

PERRY

(clipped)

Thank you. Good to know.

Okay. Enough is enough.

CELESTE

Are you serious?

PERRY

I flew back to be here. I don't even get to go in the building--

CELESTE

I understand, but that doesn't--

PERRY

And for you to just dismiss my being upset about--

CELESTE

I dismissed nothing, I just refused to be blamed for--

PERRY

You know what I think? You didn't want me at Orientation.

What?

PERRY (CONT'D)

You decided to have that moment all to yourself, just Mommy and her boys--

CELESTE

You are such a child.

A SLAP. It happens so fast -- like a reflex. Celeste wastes no time slapping him back; he reflexively gives her a violent two-handed shove; her body smashes back against the wall. She winces in pain. A beat.

PERRY

(what have I done?)

Oh my god --

He goes to hug her.

CELESTE

Don't.

210

PERRY

I'm so sorry.

He pulls her in to him.

PERRY (CONT'D)

(gently)

Hey...

As she struggles against it, he takes hold of her arm. Suddenly, it's a struggle, SHE'S PUSHING THE HEEL OF HER HAND INTO HIS CHIN, HE PULLS HER HAND OFF, PUSHES HER AGAINST THE WALL, GETS CONTROL OF HER. IT'S PHYSICAL, BORDER-LINE VIOLENT. THEN, LIKE A WRESTLER, HE PUSHES HIS FOREHEAD AGAINST HERS, CONTROLS HER HEAD, PUSHES IT UP. NOW THEY'RE EYE TO EYE. ANGER. HEAT. Then, out of nowhere... a kiss between them. Then, a more passionate one. As hands start to grab and grope--

211 INT./EXT. JANE'S PRIUS - DAY

211

A DRIVING POV, THROUGH A WINDSHIELD: KIDS ARE SPILLING OUT, their day is done; CARS ARE WAITING IN THE DROP-OFF LINE.

JANE DRIVES; Madeline is the passenger.

MADELINE

Truth be told, part-time jobs can be harder. 'Cause in addition to having to do the work, you have to constantly be scouring for new jobs.

JANE

Are you looking for other work?

MADELINE

No, no, twenty hours a week is my max. Between you and me, I like to preserve my full-time mother status, gives me something to lord over Renata and all those other career Cruellas.

(then; sing-songy)

Here they come. Our little future world leaders.

JANE

Do you see Ziggy?

211 CONTINUED:

211

MADELINE

(pointing)

There he is. Right with Chloe, did I not tell you, she's like a guard dog.

(climbing out)

Chloe!!!

BRENT, thirties, the uniformed parking monitor, BLOWS A WHISTLE.

BRENT

(to Madeline)

Ma'am, please.

Brent runs a chaos-free operation.

MADELINE

What, I can't call for my child?

BRENT

Please re-board your vehicle, ma'am.

As Chloe arrives--

CHLOE

(to Madeline)

Are you causing trouble, woman?

MADELINE

Get in.

(to Brent)

Do not ever blow that whistle at me again.

(off his stare)

You're new here, I'm not.

Madeline re-boards as Ziggy and Chloe climb in the back.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

So how was the first day, guys?

CHLOE

Fine. We got to meet Harry the Hippo.

Chloe rolls her eyes: How stupid.

JANE

Zig?

211

ZIGGY

Good.

JANE

(hopeful) Yeah?

ZIGGY

Mm hmm. The teacher's nice.

JANE

That's so great.

Madeline spots a pink card in Chloe's bag and takes it.

MADELINE

What's that?

Chloe shakes her head: nothing. She tries to take it back but it's too late.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Amabella's birthday party. How nice!

Chloe shoots her mom a look.

ZIGGY

I didn't get invited.

A punch to Jane's stomach. The mothers share a look.

JANE

(covering, to Ziggy)
Well. You don't really know her that well, sweetheart.

MADELINE

(helpful, to Jane)
Plus, she thinks he tried to kill her.

CHLOE

(diverting)
Ok, what are we listening to?

Chloe takes her phone and goes through her music library.

MADELINE

(to Chloe, mouthing)
Was he the only one?

211

Of course, Jane noticed. Her chest is tightening all over again as Chloe shoots her mom another look.

212 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - SUNSET

212

CLOSE ON MADELINE

Shaking her head as she walks to the table to join Ed, Chloe, and ABIGAIL, eating supper, and as Bradley starts to sing and scream "Heartaches and Pain".

MADELINE

Outrageous... is what it is. For the whole class to get invited with the exception of Ziggy. I mean, come on.

ED

This is the kid that...

He puts his hands to his throat, eyes bulging.

MADELINE

Will you please.

She sits. Looks at Chloe's IPOD, and shoots her daughter a look. She doesn't need to say anything.
Chloe lowers the volume of the music. Then--

MADELINE (CONT'D)

That is so Renata. First day of school...

ED

Well, if she's convinced that this Ziggy poses a threat to her daughter's safety, of course he's not going to get invited.

They eat in silence. Then--

MADELINE (CONT'D)
I've set up a play-date for you and Ziggy, Chloe. On Thursdays.

CHLOE
Cool.

A beat.

ED
Are we sure that's a good idea?

MADELINE
Why wouldn't it be?

ED
We don't know for a fact that he's innocent.

Madeline tries to stare Ed down, but he holds his position.

ED (CONT'D)
Maybe the benefit of the doubt should run to Chloe's favor instead of Ziggy's.

MADELINE
Are you suggesting I might put my daughter in harm's way?

ED
Our daughter.

CHLOE (settle) Team.

MADELINE
(to Chloe)
You should've called or texted me as soon as Ziggy was snubbed.
Maybe I could've intervened.

ED
How would she call you?

MADELINE
She's got a phone in her doll, don't start with me.

212

A beat.

ABIGAIL

You really shouldn't encourage her to play with dolls.

MADELINE

Oh, really, and why is that?

ABIGAIL

Well. It's a little 1960's. Not to mention sexist, is it a Barbie doll?

CHLOE

Barbies aren't allowed. Sylvie Adelstein's gave Joey Proccacini a boner.

MADELINE

Y'know, Abigail, I am super impressed with your emerging social conscience, I really am.

Madeline checks herself, but Abigail reads her.

ABIGAIL

Shall we leave it at that or is now the time to pile on Bonnie?

Madeline bites her tongue. Rises, exits. A beat. Ed rises, exits. Chloe looks at her sister, shakes her head.

213 EXT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, BACKYARD/BEACH - MOMENTS LATER

213

Ed walks towards the picnic table where Madeline sits, looking at the ocean. He joins her. Silence. Finally--

MADELINE

I have a low tolerance when it comes to injustice, which is exactly what's happening to this Ziggy and his mother.

ED

You fled the table when Abby brought up Bonnie. I'd ask you what's the deal with Bonnie, except we both know it's really about Nathan.

213

213

MADELINE

That is not true.

ED

It is true.

A beat. Some admission by silence.

MADELINE

I shouldn't have to constantly run into him, that's all. Monterey has thirty thousand people, for god's sake, I can't even go to a goddamn yoga class without...

(then)

And yoga, give me a break. When he was married to me, he couldn't so much as go for a walk, and when he finally did, he never came back.

Ed's turn to bite his lip.

ED

Remember that big fight I promised? Now would be a good time.

(then)

Is Nathan the one?

MADELINE

What?

ED

For every person, there's "the one," case in point, you are my one. But for you...

(a beat; it's hard to even say it aloud)

... he's the one you fell irreparably in love with, who irreparably broke your heart, who you apparently can't get over, fifteen years later.

MADELINE

Are you out of your mind?

ED

No. I'm never out of my mind. I don't get to be crazy. I'm stable, I'm grounded. Good ol' steady Eddie, that's me.

213

MADELINE

Where is this coming from?

ED

(coming uncorked)

It's coming from the fact that you don't really seem to adore me, that you are rarely interested in having sex, but specifically today it's coming from your constant carrying on about Nathan's seemingly perfect life, which tells me you're far from satisfied with your own. And I'm fucking sick of it.

(a beat; fighting his anger)

I may not be the good-looking adventure ride, but there's something to be said for being there, for being truthful, for being somebody you can steadfastly count on.

She's a bit poleaxed. A beat.

ED (CONT'D)

(quaking with quiet rage)

I won't be anybody's runner-up.
You need to hear that.

OFF Madeline, stunned.

"PETER PAN", THE ANIMATED MOVIE IS ON;

CELESTE SITS WITH THE TWINS, A LITTLE TREPIDATION ON THEIR FACES, APPROPRIATELY OCCASIONED BY CROCODILES. Harry the Hippo sits between them. Josh burrows into his mother for a little extra safety.

CELESTE

You okay?

MAX

He's scared of the crocodile.

JOSH

I'm not.

Josh takes Harry and covers his eyes.

JOSH (CONT'D)

He is. We need to protect him.

Max rolls his eyes and takes Harry from his brother.

CELESTE

That's right, the innocent need protecting, don't they?

(then)

How's Amabella doing?

JOSH

Good.

MAX

For a girl.

She gives Max a look: silly. Then-- flyer.

CELESTE

TOM

I'm happy to let you post it, but nobody really reads flyers. You want to get work these days, you need a website.

JANE

That costs money.

Jane and Tom are surprised to find out that Ziggy was listening. The kid quickly glances at them with a smirk and dives back into his game.

JANE

(to Ziggy)

I came here with dreams of a certain life, yes.

MADELINE

Ed's not even a neurotic guy, maybe it is me, maybe I do a lousy job of conveying how much... I don't know.

CELESTE

You once said you two don't have sex very often.

MADELINE

That's only because I'm tired most of the time -- between school stuff, and the play, and...

Celeste sips her drink.

CELESTE

How was Nathan in bed?

MADELINE

I don't want to talk about Nathan.

CELESTE

But we are talking about him.

MADELINE

No, we're talking about Ed.

She makes a primal grunt sound.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Isn't it?

CELESTE

It's pretty good.

MADELINE

Does Perry ever feel... not loved enough by you?

Before Celeste can answer--

RENATA (O.S.)

(brightly)

Celeste. Madeline.

REVEAL Renata has arrived.

RENATA (CONT'D)

Hi. I'm over there with friends, and I saw you two.

(to Celeste)

I don't mean to intrude, but do you have a second?

CELESTE

Sure.

RENATA

I won't bother you with the whole saga, but basically the local V.A. hospital is being shuttered, which means patients will have to drive all the way to Sacramento for services. I'm very involved with the Vets, specifically PTSD, I'm hosting a small fundraising dinner to help defray costs and keep the facility open. We would love to have you and Perry.

RENATA

(modestly)

Oh, well...

MADELINE

(sweetly)

Might have been more sweet if you hadn't singled out and excluded little Ziggy.

RENATA

(sweetly)

Well, you can understand.

MADELINE

(sweetly)

I actually can't.

RENATA

Okay. It might just spoil things for Amabella if she were strangled.
I could be wrong.

MADELINE

If Ziggy doesn't go, Chloe doesn't go.

CELESTE

(peacemaker)

Maybe that isn't the best--

MADELINE

Excuse me?

ED

Last year Amabella had a jumping castle, and a magician. And this year only figures to be better!

ED

What is it about this Jane? Is she like your lost little sister or something, is this just a cause in lieu of...

MADELINE

Of what? A life?

Ed holds a hand up, he didn't say that. Then--

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Jane is a single mom. Do you need an app to put two and two together? When Abigail was a baby, Nathan was never around. I was a single mother. And yes, I'm still angry about it. It's not my love for Nathan that lingers fifteen years later, but my resentment. Big difference.

JANE

I could never talk to my mother about birth control.

CELESTE

I wouldn't be too hard on either Abby or Bonnie here.

Madeline takes a deep breath.

MADELINE

You know how I like my grudges.
(to Jane)
I tend to them -- like little pets.

JANE

Me too. I'm not much into forgiveness either.

MADELINE

Really, and who do you have not to forgive?

JANE

(covering)

Nobody. Just y'know, in general.

She's hiding something. Celeste and Madeline see it.

CELESTE

(taking her off the hook)

Never forgive. Never forget.

As Tom arrives with coffee--

TOM

That sure sounds like a motto to live by.

CLOSE ON HARPER

HARPER

More like a motto to die by.

RESUME

TOM

(to Jane)

Marv Herman runs the muffler shop on Kentner, I'm told he's in need of some bookkeeping assistance.

(to Celeste)

And maybe some legal assistance, too, if the zoning board...

CELESTE

I'm retired.

MADELINE

Except when it comes to defending the First Amendment.

TOM

Oh, yeah, I heard Shakespeare got it wrong. "The play's the thing," unless it has puppets.

Tom shoots a wink, heads off.

228 EXT. MONTEREY - PARK - MORNING 228

ED IS ON HIS BICYCLE with all the brightly-colored gear: the helmet with rear-view mirrors, the shoes, the shorts, the jersey; he looks ridiculous. That is Nathan's POV as he sits on a bench. Ed pedals up to him.

NATHAN

Ed.
(re: the gear)
Love the look. Especially the mirrors, got to respect a man who has his own back.

ED

Oh, well. Standard stuff.

NATHAN

Yeah. How's the computer business going?

ED

Great. Kinda like landscaping, I guess. "Growth" industry.

NATHAN

Clever.
(then)
Listen, thanks for meeting me.

Ed gets off his bike.

229 EXT. MONTEREY - PARK - MINUTES LATER 229

Ed and Nathan are now standing next to each other, facing the ocean.

229

CONTINUED:

229

NATHAN

As far as I know, there was no undue influence or interference. Abby had some questions about Planned Parenthood, Bonnie answered them, Abby then asked if Bonnie would take her there. There was no parental usurping of any kind, I promise you. I will discuss all of this with Maddie. But what I'd like to take up with you -- I'm sure you can appreciate... it's a bit of a delicate dance for me with my ex-wife.

He pauses: "How do I say this?"

NATHAN (CONT'D)

I expect her to be a little rough on me. But to punish Bonnie --

ED

I believe she's being nice to Bonnie, or at least trying, under the circumstances.

A half-beat.

NATHAN

What circumstances would those be?

ED

Nathan, c'mon. It was pretty tough when you left.

NATHAN

That was almost fifteen years ago.

ED

It's difficult for Madeline to see you at every school function, so involved, when you weren't there for Abigail. Difficult to run into you at Yoga when you never...

(backtracking)

... maybe I'm talking out of turn.

A beat.

NATHAN

I was young. And maybe a bit of a shit. I made a lot of mistakes both with Maddie and Abby.

229

NATHAN (CONT'D)

Should I be required to repeat those mistakes with Bonnie and Skye?

ED

No. But it wouldn't hurt to be mindful of other people's feelings sometimes.

NATHAN

Ah. Mr. Sensitive.

ED

I'm sorry?

NATHAN

That was actually a compliment. You're the standard bearer for today's evolved man. You work at home. Pitch in almost fifty-fifty with child care, you even cook.

Ed stares. Feels a dig in that.

ED

You're the guy who likes to fish and hunt. I'm Mr. Girly-man. That it?

NATHAN

That's not what I said. Look. It would be a little indelicate for me to take all this up with Maddie.

(pointed)

So I'm taking it up with you.

ED

That sounded like a threat, Nathan. Are you threatening me?

A beat. This is getting tense.

ED (CONT'D)

You know this thing with that Ziggy kid... and all the talk of bullying.

(then)

I was bullied. Sixth grade. And I always turned the other cheek, thinking that was the more mature thing to do.

that somebody will come along one day and say or do something to me... that'll offer me the chance to redeem myself for...

(a beat)

You've always treated me quite well, Nathan. Too bad.

OFF Nathan, a look of 'holy shit,' on his face,

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

GABRIELLE

The first thing I said, the very first thing: it wasn't just the mothers.

230 EXT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - DAY

230

LOW ANGLE on the tall staircase of the theater as Madeline starts running up the stairs, stopped in the middle by some work being done. She looks around, pulls up her dress, walks over a work banner and continues her way up the stairs.

231 EXT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - DAY

231

Madeline crosses the plaza to the theater entrance: a small moving figure among dozens of still, mature, north pacific trees.

232 INT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - DAY

232

JOSEPH BACHMAN, thirty-three, good-looking, smart, a little J-Crew is staring almost straight into camera at something that soon brings a subtle smile to his lips.

JOSEPH

It's not really a legal matter Madeline. If the Mayor refuses to authorize funding--

MADELINE

But we can make it a legal matter, it should be a legal matter.

232 CONTINUED:

232

JOSEPH

The funding is discretionary, he could deny it on whatever grounds he wants, and--

MADELINE

Is he denying it?

JOSEPH

He's strongly suggesting we pick something more community-centric.

MADELINE

Joseph, we've worked hard on this. We're being victimized here by small-mindedness, led by the likes of Renata Klein.

JOSEPH

Understood, but we need to pick our battles. And--

MADELINE

Sometimes the battles pick us.

(off Joseph)

We can't quit. We just can't.

JOSEPH

Is this about the play, or winning?

MADELINE

Maybe both.

(off Joseph)

Sometimes I get tired of the snitches with stars stepping on the rest of us.

He smiles softly. Clearly these two are friends.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

You wanted to be brave with your artistic direction, that's all I'm asking for here. That you be brave.

JOSEPH

You told me to go fuck myself on the head.

MADELINE

You know how I get.

(then)

Please.

232 CONTINUED: (2)

232

He stares back, consent by silence. He's putty in her hands.

JOSEPH
I'll talk to the Mayor.

MADELINE
Thank you. You won't regret this.

As she turns to go, she spots something on Joseph's table and stops on her tracks--

MADELINE (CONT'D)
What's that?

JOSEPH
Tickets to "Disney On Ice".
"Frozen."

MADELINE'S POV: CLOSE ON THE TICKETS on which we can clearly read the date: September 17th, 2:00P.M.

OFF Madeline, wheels spinning:

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

GABRIELLE
Amabella passed out her invitations on Wednesday morning. Madeline was calling parents, offering free tickets to "Disney On Ice" by Thursday noon.

232A INT. RENATA'S HOUSE - HALL - DAY

232A

The door opens on Harper as she walks in, breathless.

HARPER (V.O.)
The two events were scheduled for the same day, same time.

CLOSE ON HARPER (in the interrogation room).

HARPER
A vicious shot over the bow.

RESUME

We see Renata from behind as she stares through the window at the distant ocean, Harper waiting for her reaction... that never comes.

CLOSE ON ZIGGY

CLOSE ON AMABELLA

CLOSE ON JANE as she answers the RINGING phone, stunned by what the caller says. The MUSIC abruptly STOPS.

234 INT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY - PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE - DAY

234

Nippal, at his desk.

JANE (O.S.)

Sexual assault?

REVEAL Jane, on the other side of the desk.

NIPPAL

Technically speaking, look, it's not a big deal. But school policy demands that we take--

JANE

What exactly happened?

NIPPAL

It appears that Ziggy kissed Amabella, and that the advance was unwelcome. And a little aggressive.

JANE

What?

NIPPAL

Amabella was not hurt, but given our strict zero-tolerance policy when it comes to these sorts of transgressions...

He picks up the phone. Jane is dumbstruck.

CLOSE ON DETECTIVE QUINLAN

DET. QUINLAN

In addition to the murder investigation, we're investigating others on assault and conspiracy to incite violence.

235 INT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY - PRINCIPAL'S OFFICE - DAY

235

Now joining Jane and Nippal are Nathan, Bonnie, Renata and Madeline, at opposite ends. Renata stares at Madeline. If looks could kill.

NIPPAL

The intent, by all accounts, was to simply make peace with Amabella.

RENATA

Which is an admission then that he did try to choke her.

NIPPAL

Hold on. Zigfield still maintains his innocence on the choking front. The idea of brandishing affection upon Amabella was first proffered by Chloe in an attempt to ameliorate the birthday party brouhaha.

MADELINE

It was Chloe's idea?

NIPPAL

She played a song, invited Zigfield and Amabella to dance, and... it seems your daughter has inherited the "let's-solve-everyone-else's-problems" gene.

Madeline's eyes narrow as she digs into Nippal with a glare. Renata enjoys the moment. Madeline notices.

NIPPAL (CONT'D)

The motion was then seconded by Skye.

235 CONTINUED:

235

BONNIE

I don't believe my daughter would ever sanction a non-consensual touching.

Madeline throws her glare from Renata to Bonnie.

NATHAN

I'm sorry, but isn't this a big pile of hooey over a whole lot of nothing?

NIPPAL

We have a policy, sir.

236 EXT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY - HALLWAY - DAY

236

Nippal's door opens; Renata bee-lines out first, followed by Bonnie and Nathan, who also head off rather briskly. Jane, still looking shell-shocked, moves more slowly; Madeline sees as much and stays close to her.

MADELINE

Jane?

Jane just keeps walking.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Look at me, honey.

Jane stops, does so, she looks almost dazed.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

It's nothing. They're kids. My god, if I had a nickel for every time I tried to kiss a boy when I was six years old... this is nothing, you do know that.

Jane nods. A beat. And then it's just all too much. Her face contorts with grief, she slowly sinks to the floor, as she gives in to her tears.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Hey, hey, hey. By this time tomorrow we'll be laughing about this. Come on.

As Madeline tends to Jane...

WE NOW SEE THEM FROM A DISTANT POV, FROM THE FAR END OF THE CORRIDOR... Ziggy's.

237 INT. MADELINE'S SUV - DAY

237

We hear the soft, beautiful MELODY again, played by an ACOUSTIC GUITAR. Chloe is in the back, moving her head to the music that comes from the car speakers, as Madeline drives.

CHLOE

How can you not wanna make up on this song? Come on!

MADELINE

Make up, yes, not make out, dummy.

CHLOE

It's what you guys do, when you get mad at each other, big hug, kiss, bang! Everything's better again.

MADELINE

It's different with married people.

CHLOE

Why?

MADELINE

Because it just is, that's why. Don't start with me.

They both shake their heads and look away. These two are so much the same. A long beat. Madeline looks from the rearview mirror to the road, to the car navigation screen which displays Chloe's music playing: LEON BRIDGES, RIVER.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

This is a beautiful song, honey.

PERRY (V.O.)

Hey, baby.

238 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BEDROOM - NIGHT

238

Celeste has just had a bath; she's wearing a bathrobe as she sips some tea in front of her COMPUTER SCREEN; SKYPING WITH PERRY. INTERCUT BETWEEN THEM.

CELESTE

Isn't it like the middle of the night there?

238

CONTINUED:

238

PERRY

It is. I'm having the usual insomnia adjusting to the time-zone. Is that the bathrobe I bought you?

CELESTE

It is. And thank you for the flowers, they're beautiful.

He smiles; it's an admiring smile.

PERRY

I miss you.

CELESTE

Miss you, too. And the boys miss you.

PERRY

How was their second day?

CELESTE

Fine, but a little more drama; that Ziggy boy tried to kiss Amabella Klein.

PERRY

What is wrong with that kid?

CELESTE

I think he was just trying to make friends with her. You know how school is, it's all about being popular.

(off his silence)

Can you hear me?

PERRY

I can hear you. I'm just looking at you, beautiful.

CELESTE

You're sweet.

PERRY

Do me a favor. Take that robe off for a second.

CELESTE

Perry.

(CONTINUED)

238

PERRY

Come on, I need to help myself go to sleep, and you need to help me help myself.

She just stares back. Naughty boy. But he does make her feel beautiful -- constantly, in fact.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Just let me look at my gorgeous wife for a second. Ten seconds.

CELESTE

I'll give you five. The boys are waiting for me downstairs.

PERRY

Make it a nice five.

And she lowers her robe. He smiles... but we see a flicker of... something. His smile looks tempered. She looks up, SEES HERSELF IN THE MIRROR, SEES WHAT HE SEES: that bruise on her ribs. Neither make mention of it; finally, as she re-covers herself--

CELESTE

Okay. That's all you get, naughty boy, you'll have to come home sooner if you want more.

PERRY

Sit for a second, come closer.

She sits in front of the COMPUTER.

PERRY (CONT'D)

I love you. Call me when you wake up?

CELESTE

I will.

He kisses his index finger, touches the camera with it. Celeste kisses her index finger, does the same.

238A EXT. RENATA'S HOUSE, DECK - NIGHT

238A

Renata sits with GORDON. She is still livid. A beat.

GORDON

We could take her out of the school if you're that concerned.

238A CONTINUED:

238A

RENATA

Why should she have to leave? She did nothing wrong.

GORDON

I just don't think legal action is the answer. Let's see how things go. I'm guessing it'll all sort itself out.

RENATA

I'm not feeling supported.

Shit. The 'I don't feel supported' card.

GORDON

Well. I suppose I can't argue your feelings.

Her head slowly turns. She punishes him with a look.

239

INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE - NIGHT

239

A door is being cracked open to reveal Ziggy in bed, appearing to be asleep. That is Jane's POV.

She quietly enters, approaches... Ziggy's eyes are wide open, staring back at her; it nearly gives her a start.

JANE

Hey. Thought you were asleep.

He just stares.

ZIGGY

I saw you crying.

(then)

At school.

JANE

Oh. I... I think stress just got the better of me, baby. I'm fine now. Don't worry.

A long beat. Then--

ZIGGY

At pick-up, I heard one of the mothers say I was a little monster.

239 CONTINUED:

239

JANE

Hey. You are not a monster! You hear me? You are not a monster.

A little scary, the way she barked that. He just stares back. She strokes his hair.

JANE (CONT'D)

(softening)

There is nothing wrong with you.

But she wonders. She cannot help but wonder. She pulls him tight.

240 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - NIGHT

240

Abigail is getting a late-night snack, a pickle out of the fridge as Madeline enters. She's in her pajamas.
They haven't much yet talked. It's a tiny bit awkward.

MADELINE

A pickle?

ABIGAIL

I'm not pregnant.

That gets a bit of a soft smile from Maddie.

MADELINE

If the day does come, the day you alluded to earlier...

ABIGAIL

You mean when I decide to have sex?
That day?

MADELINE

Yeah, that one.

(then)

Can we talk about it first?

ABIGAIL

Sure.

MADELINE

I might actually be of help,
y'know.

ABIGAIL

Got it.

A beat.

(CONTINUED)

240 CONTINUED:

240

MADELINE

I actually have a lot of women friends, as you know. Never once have I ever heard any of them say, "gee, if only I'd had sex sooner in life.

ABIGAIL

This is awkward now.

MADELINE

Sorry. Got it.

And Madeline exits.

241 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, FAMILY ROOM - NIGHT

241

ED, on the sofa, is WATCHING TELEVISION on mute, his computer on his lap, half working, half watching when suddenly Leon Bridges' River melody starts to play again. Madeline just put it on as she enters, sits on the sofa.

MADELINE

Nathan told me you threatened to beat him up.

ED

Of course not. He wanted me to get you to back off Bonnie a little, it led to a discussion, and... I never threatened to beat him up. I did let him know I wouldn't be intimidated by him, which I think was his intent.

She considers that.

MADELINE

So how'd you two leave it?

ED

We left it... he's got Bonnie's back. And I've got yours.

She holds a look, smiles a bit.

MADELINE

Such a he-man.

He just shoots her a look.

241 CONTINUED:

241

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Can I just say one thing?

ED

You never leave it at one thing.

MADELINE

You're the one, okay? My one and only.

242 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BEDROOM - NIGHT

242

CLOSE ON CELESTE'S COMPUTER WHICH FEATURES THE PHOTO OF THE FLOWERS. SHE CLICKS ON THE IMAGE, DRAGS IT ONTO HER INSTAGRAM PAGE, A NICE COMPLEMENT TO THE OTHER BLISSFUL IMAGES. PERRY, THE BOYS, JANE AND MADELINE FROM BLUE BLUES. A FINE NARRATIVE... AS LEON BRIDGES' MUSIC CONTINUES TO PLAY.

243 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, STAIRCASE - NIGHT

243

Abigail walks up the stairs and stops when she sees something. She walks one step down to peek into the...

FAMILY ROOM

... where Ed and Madeline are dancing to LEON BRIDGES' SONG. Like teenagers dancing on a slow. That music does seem to help people to make up.

CLOSE ON Abigail, seeming to agree.

RESUME

CELESTE'S COMPUTER SCREEN

AS THE MUSIC CONTINUES, PERRY'S IMAGE POPS UP on Skype. He wonders why for a second and gets it. That puts a smile on his face. He brings one hand down, out of frame. Now we get it. As he starts touching himself, we see glimpses of Celeste's reflection on the screen. She dances for him as she, too, pleasures herself.

Another way... of making up.

OFF this, we SMASH TO BLACK

AS LEON BRIDGES' MUSIC KEEPS ON PLAYING OVER THE END CREDITS.

A BIG SURF, WAVES CRASHING, EXPLODING AGAINST THE ROCKY SHORELINE. THE OCEAN ROARS. A BIT LIKE A DEATH ROAR.

ANGLE JANE

... standing above, high on a cliff side, staring at the waves. Beautiful, treacherous... the ocean can take your breath away. Jane continues to stare until...

ZIGGY (O.S.)

Mom?

REVEAL ZIGGY. Standing behind her.

ZIGGY (CONT'D)

We should go. Isn't it dinner time?

She holds a look at him. Beauty can beget treachery... which can in turn beget more beauty. Innocence, even.

JANE

(soft smile)

Yeah, baby. Dinner time.

301 INT. RENATA'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - EARLY EVENING

301

RENATA sits at the table with Amabella. THROUGH THE WINDOW, WE SEE LAST-MINUTE PREPARATION SET-UPS FOR THE BIRTHDAY PARTY.

A beat.

AMABELLA
 How many?

RENATA
 I'm not exactly sure.

AMABELLA
 How many, about?

RENATA
 (weakly)
 I think... six.

WE CAN SEE THE WOUND ON AMABELLA'S FACE.

RENATA (CONT'D)
 Hey. Most of the class is coming, and you know what? It's going to be an incredible party, we've got games, a magician, Spiderman, a disco. You're going to have the best birthday party ever.

AMABELLA
 Okay.

And Amabella, clearly crestfallen, exits the room.
 Renata drops her head into her hands. As GORDON enters through the side-door, just back from the tennis club.

GORDON
 Hey.
 (sees her face)
 What's wrong?

RENATA
 I've made a terrible mistake.
 There are six kids not coming tomorrow. Six.

SAMANTHA

I kind of felt bad about accepting those tickets. But they cost a fortune, plus Lily didn't really know Amabella from a bar of soap.

RESUME

RENATA

It was a mistake to not invite Ziggy Chapman.

GORDON

Honey, he choked her. She's afraid of him, how could we possibly invite him?

RENATA

It's just now with Chloe Mackenzie not coming, and...

(then)

That fucking Madeline.

GORDON

(assuring)

It's going to be a spectacular party. Amabella's going to have the time of her life.

RENATA

I want to kill her.

CLOSE ON QUINLAN

DET. QUINLAN

CHLOE (O.S.)

Indians?

303 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - NIGHT

303

MADELINE, ED, CHLOE AND ABIGAIL, all huddled around a computer. On the wall... A POSTER: family bonding over "CHLOE'S FAMILY TREE."

MADELINE

Native Americans, honey, many people have Native American ancestors.

CHLOE

(pointing at a picture)
That looks like an Indian.
(then)
This isn't fair. Joey Bennett's ancestor is Christopher Columbus.

ABIGAIL

He killed all the Indians.

MADELINE

(to Abigail)
You're not helping.

ED

(backing Abigail)
That's actually--

MADELINE

Ed.

CHLOE

I don't want to do a family tree.

MADELINE

Well, we have to, it's an assignment.

ABIGAIL

You want to do well in school, right, Chloe?

MADELINE

(to Chloe)
Listen to your sister.

ABIGAIL

If you don't excel in first grade, you won't get into a private school, which means forget about Stanford, and then, what's the point?

MADELINE

Nobody, honey.

ED

(to Madeline; re: the phone) Renata Klein.

MADELINE

Really?

As Madeline takes the phone, WE INTERCUT WITH RENATA AND MADELINE.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Hello.

RENATA

Hey, Madeline, Renata.

MADELINE

What's up?

RENATA

Well, I had a bit of a long night of the soul last night. And... I think you're right, it was wrong for me to exclude Ziggy Chapman from the party, and I'd like to invite him after all. And I hope Chloe can come as well, of course, Amabella is so fond of her. Would you have Jane's number, I'd like to give her a call.

MADELINE

Oh, that's so sweet of you.

She sticks a finger in her mouth, "gags" to Ed.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
But actually tomorrow, a bunch of us are heading for San Jose to see "Disney On Ice."

RENATA
Well... I thought...

MADELINE
Maybe we can swing by after?

Chloe nods to her mom. Yes!

MADELINE (CONT'D)
How long will the party be going?

RENATA
Three o'clock.

MADELINE
Oh. No, we won't make it back by then, damn. Too bad.

Chloe shakes her head. No!

RENATA
There must be something we can do.

MADELINE
If only there was. I'm sorry,
"were," subjunctive tense since it's contrary to fact.

Renata gets it. Madeline's going to be a bitch.

RENATA
How 'bout this? Chloe and the others come to the party, big smiles on their faces, I'll arrange a sleepover trip to Disneyland for everybody, VIP passes all round, backstage passes at the "Frozen" show.

MADELINE
I so wish we could, but--

RENATA
I'll even get Snow White to sit on your husband's face and maybe Dumbo could squat on yours.

303 CONTINUED: (4)

303

MADELINE

You are so sweet to offer -- but the kids have their little hearts set on the show.

CHLOE

I'd rather go to the party than to this stupid...

Madeline signals Chloe to shut up.

RENATA

You're dead in this town. As is your fucking puppet show.

Renata slams her phone down as we stay with her. A beat.

GORDON

All good?

304 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, FAMILY ROOM - NIGHT

304

CELESTE and PERRY are snuggled on the sofa, red wine in hand, both watching "THE WALKING DEAD." Both rapt; AN ESPECIALLY TENSE SCENE PLAYS OUT ON SCREEN. ONE OF THE LEADING CHARACTERS IS CREEPING THROUGH THE FOREST.

PERRY

This isn't good.
(to the character on screen)
Go back. Please, go.

CELESTE

I don't think I want to look.

SUDDENLY, A ZOMBIE JUMPS FROM BEHIND A TREE, TEETH SNAPPING; PERRY AND CELESTE BOTH SCREAM, SOME OF PERRY'S WINE SPILLS;

PERRY

Fuck.

PERRY HITS PAUSE.

304

PERRY (CONT'D)

(re: his wine)

Did I get you..?

CELESTE

No. Tiny bit on the sofa.

As Perry moves to the kitchen, Celeste blots the sofa with some water.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

I don't think this helps me sleep, watching this right before bed.

Perry comes back with a cloth to clean his mess.

PERRY

Are we going to some kid's birthday party tomorrow? I ran into Reed Whittaker today, he seemed to think we were.

CELESTE

(blotting away)

We were, for about ten seconds, but now we're not. Madeline got tickets to "Disney On Ice," so there's a group of us going to that. The boys are quite excited, actually.

PERRY

So am I not invited to see this Disney thing?

CELESTE

I didn't think you'd be interested, you never want to go to these things. An arena full of screaming children...

Perry stops scrubbing the sofa.

304 CONTINUED: (2)

304

PERRY

It didn't occur to you that after being gone all week, I might like to spend time with my family?

Perry stares; he's icing over. Then-

PERRY (CONT'D)

Why didn't we discuss it?

CELESTE

It just sort of happened. Madeline got tickets, there were only so many...

PERRY

So it's a money thing.

CELESTE

(getting annoyed now)
Take my ticket, I'll stay here.

PERRY

That's not the point.

CELESTE

What is the point?

PERRY

One second they're going to a birthday party, the next you've decided to take them to a show--

PERRY (CONT'D)

Am I not a member of this family, did you not think it might be nice for Josh and Max to spend time with their dad--

CELESTE

Oh, for God's sake, the boys barely know the girl having the party, and sometimes I have to make decisions when you're ten thousand miles away.

As she rises to exit, he grabs her hard by the shoulders.

PERRY

Hey!

(then)

You think I want to be away all the time? You think I enjoy missing my family? I do it for us.

304 CONTINUED: (3)

304

CELESTE
You're hurting me.

PERRY
I'm hurting you?

As his hands tighten.

PERRY (CONT'D)
Can we talk a bit about how much you hurt me?
(off her)
Sometimes I wonder whether you deliberately plan these things to... avoid having to be with me.

CELESTE
(icy)
Take your hand off me.

PERRY
You could have bought another
ticket.

She stares back. Here we go again. A beat. Finally, he releases. Starts to head off.

CELESTE
Perry?

He stops, turns back.

CELESTE (CONT'D)
(deliberate; even)
I will leave you.
(again; perhaps convincing herself)
I will leave you.

Perry stares her down, a hint of a dismissive smile almost. She could never leave him.

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

GABRIELLE
These two. Rich, beautiful, madly in love. And why shouldn't they be? She's every man's dream. And he's yummy.
(then)
Don't write that down.

305 INT. VAN - DAY

305

ONE OF THOSE BIG HUMMER STRETCH VANS. MADELINE, CHLOE, JANE, ZIGGY, CELESTE, JOSH, MAX, SAMANTHA, her daughter, LILY; MELISSA, and her son, SAM... The KIDS are moving their heads to the rhythm of the music, "DREAMS" from FLEETWOOD MAC, thanks to Chloe. The mothers all seem in perfect harmony with the voice of Stevie Nicks. This song is setting a mood in the van that is nice, cool, unexpected from a bunch of kids and mothers about to go to a Disney show. Ziggy is on-guard; he holds Harry The Hippo tight.

CELESTE

(to Ziggy)

Be gentle with his legs.

MADELINE

(to Chloe)

Put on something we can sing along to.

CHLOE

Just listen, woman.

CLOSE ON HARPER

HARPER

Madeline was desperate for the trip to be better than the birthday party. It was pathetic.

RESUME

Madeline turns to Celeste, who's lost a bit in the memory of last night.

MADELINE

All good?

CELESTE

(covering)

Good.

MADELINE

Thanks for arranging the transpo.

306 EXT. RENATA'S HOUSE, BACKYARD - DAY

306

WE HEAR THE MUSIC FROM WITHIN THE TENT: "DISCO INFERNO" IS EXPLODING OUT LOUD. WE'RE OUTSIDE THE TENT WITH GORDON, HAVING A SMOKE WITH SPIDERMAN ON BREAK. Gordon finishes his cigarette, and ENTERS INTO:

307 INT. TENT - CONTINUOUS

307

GORDON'S POV: ALL THE PARTY GUESTS ARE DANCING TO "DISCO INFERNO." THEY'RE ALL IN SYNCH, CLEARLY HAVING GOTTEN INSTRUCTIONS/LESSONS FROM THE 'DISCO TEAM LEADER' a local Monterey favorite who doesn't come cheaply.
PARENTS AND KIDS TOGETHER, SINGING, DANCING.

ALL

(singing)

Burn, baby, burn.

Gordon SEES RENATA, NEXT TO HARPER. THEA and GABRIELLE
ARE BOTH THERE, TOO. The level of silliness a parent will sink to in order to put a smile on their child's face. Gordon spots BONNIE WHO DANCES LIKE AN IKETTE; NEXT TO HER NATHAN IS TRYING TO DO AN IMPRESSION OF TRAVOLTA. HE SHOULD HAVE A SEAT.

CLOSE ON THEA

THEA

It was a fantastic party. With the exception of Bonnie's dancing. A lot of husbands were staring.

CLOSE ON STU, mimicking "Touching Fire."

STU

She was hot!

(admitting)

Some of us got erections.

308 EXT. RENATA'S HOUSE, BACKYARD - LATER

308

Renata is proudly dispensing the party favors -- in this case, over-the-top gift-bags.

RENATA
(doling out bags of stuff)
Thank you so much for coming. I hope you had fun.

BONNIE
Of course we did, thank you so much.

Bonnie and Nathan take their bag and walk off with Skye who immediately opens it, revealing "Frozen" swag, including elaborate DOLLS and SNOWMEN.

CLOSE ON THEA

309 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, ED'S OFFICE - DAY

309

Ed is at work on his computer, as Abigail enters.

ABIGAIL
Whatcha doing?

ED
Designing this website for a new drone company. Incredible, the technology.

ABIGAIL
Aren't those things illegal now?

ED
Not yet. Probably matter of time, though. They need to make them with guns so we can get Constitutional protection.

309 CONTINUED:

309

ABIGAIL

What happened between you and my father? He said you threatened him.

ED

I didn't threaten him.

(off Abigail)

I didn't. If anything, he was aggressive; he demanded that I make your mother be nice to Bonnie. Which I found to be ridiculous, truth be told.

ABIGAIL

Which part was ridiculous? The idea of Mom being nice to Bonnie, or that my father should care?

ED

Okay. I guess we know where you stand.

ABIGAIL

What's going on with Mom?

ED

Nothing. Why?

ABIGAIL

She doesn't seem a bit agitated to you lately?

ED

Honey, agitation is her preferred state.

ABIGAIL

Well, it's not mine, if that matters.

And she exits the room as WE HEAR THE DOOR OPEN

MADELINE (O.S.)

Oh my god! It was beyond great.

Jane stops in her tracks.

CLOSE ON HARPER

HARPER

Harry The Hippo had been with the school for over ten years.

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

GABRIELLE

And the cheap thing she replaced it with? Made in China. The hippo's face wasn't even friendly.

312 INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE - LATER

312

Madeline and Jane. Jane's head is in her hands.

JANE

They're all going to think I'm the most irresponsible mother. And Ziggy will get blamed, as if things weren't already bad.

MADELINE

It's not a big deal--

JANE

(suddenly)

Why does this fucking shit keep happening to me?

There's a look of rage in Jane's eyes... scary. Madeline is taken aback, a bit spooked.

313 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BATHROOM - SHOWER - NIGHT

313

CELESTE IS SHOWERING; she's almost meditative, letting the HOT WATER POUR OVER HER HEAD. It's a bit of a safe haven in here, a respite... a place she feels warm, protected. THE GLASS IS THOROUGHLY STEAMED UP, her choice; it affords another layer of protection, however illusory. She regards the bruise on her arm. She glances up, SEES A SHADOW OF SORTS, WHICH STARTLES HER. SHE THEN WIPES SOME OF THE STEAM OFF THE GLASS, TO REVEAL PERRY'S FACE; SHE SCREAMS WITH FRIGHT. HE'S RIGHT FUCKING THERE. He then opens the shower door; TURNS OFF THE WATER. Stares. Finally--

PERRY

(calmly)

Would you do me a favor?

He then HOLDS UP A DIAMOND NECKLACE; easily worth thirty thousand dollars; perhaps more.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Would you be so kind as to try this on?

CELESTE

(stunned; softly)

Perry.

He steps into the shower, still holding THE NECKLACE; FASTENS IT AROUND HER NECK. She smiles weakly. Perry then kisses her neck. Then a soft kiss on her lips. And he begins to gently, softly work his way down. THE CAMERA STAYS LOCKED ON CELESTE'S BLANK FACE AS HE BEGINS TO PLEASURE HER. AND THEN, HER EXPRESSION BEGINS TO CONTORT. With guilt. Shame. Desire. She still loves him. Craves him. Will she ever get out of this? As her neck arches, surrendering to the carnal pleasure of it all--

315 EXT. MONTEREY HIGH SCHOOL - CORRIDOR - DAY

315

As Abigail walks the corridor, heading out, she's stopped by FIONA BREWSTER, late thirties, guidance counselor.

FIONA

Abigail. Hey. How's things?

ABIGAIL

Pretty good.

FIONA

Really?

315 CONTINUED:

FIONA

Can I talk to you in private for a

ABIGAIL

(worried now)

What did I do?

FIONA

(relax)

Nothing, honey. Let's go to my office, shall we?

316 EXT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - DAY

316

From within, we hear the song: "EVERYBODY'S A LITTLE BIT RACIST" as MADELINE'S walks toward the entrance.

317 INT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - CONTINUOUS

317

CAST MEMBERS WITH PUPPETS ARE REHEARSING THE SONG.
Madeline enters, heads for Joseph's office.

JOSEPH (V.O.)

We're not getting the funding.
Seems this petition thing has swelled.

318 INT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER, JOSEPH'S OFFICE - LATER

318

Madeline and Joseph.

MADELINE

And I have a good idea who's behind the swell, look, how much more funding do we really need at this point?

JOSEPH

A lot. And even if we didn't--

MADELINE

What if we all work for free, to prove a point, a pretty damn important point.

318 CONTINUED:

318

JOSEPH

Madeline. I'm going to tell you what the mayor pretty much told me.
"You don't want to go there."

MADELINE

But I do want to go there.

JOSEPH

If we alienate the mayor or City Council, we'll be cutting off our--

MADELINE

Fuck this!

JOSEPH

Okay.

Silence. She's pissed. He can see it.

JOSEPH (CONT'D)

I don't like it either.

MADELINE

So what, we only put on productions that the town deems appropriate?
'Cause today it's 'Avenue Q,' tomorrow it's 'The Book of Mormon.'
Or 'Rent.'

JOSEPH

I told the mayor we might consider legal recourse, he basically laughed. Plus, I'd have to solicit the City Council to even get funding to retain a lawyer, so--

MADELINE

A lawyer I can get. A damn good one. Celeste Wright. She used to practice at a huge firm.

JOSEPH

(let it go) Maddie--

MADELINE

This is largely because Renata Klein has the mayor and this town by the balls, if City Council sees Celeste and Perry Wright lining up on the other side, they will take notice.

318 CONTINUED: (2)

318

Joseph smiles softly.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Why are you smiling, you think this is funny?

JOSEPH

You are such a bulldog.

MADELINE

Can you get a meeting with the mayor?

(off Joseph)

What's not to try?

Madeline's cell VIBRATES. Abigail's name SHOWS on CALLER ID.

FIONA (V.O.)

Her GPA was three-point-nine coming into the year.

319 INT. MONTEREY HIGH SCHOOL, FIONA'S OFFICE - DAY

319

Fiona, Madeline, and Abigail. Abigail is visibly nervous. Madeline is visibly worried.

FIONA

Granted, it's only been three weeks, no reason to panic. But to see such a precipitous drop in performance, it usually tells me something else is going on.

What? Madeline looks to Abigail.

MADELINE

Are you taking drugs?

Abigail drops her head into her hands.

FIONA

It isn't drugs.

MADELINE

Then what? A boy?

ABIGAIL

Please, please, please--

MADELINE

As opposed to what, Arthur?

(quickly)

Sorry. Yes, Madeline is fine.

FIONA

It seems Abigail is under a bit of stress at home.

Madeline looks to Abigail.

MADELINE

Is this because Ed threatened to beat up your dad?

ABIGAIL

It isn't that.

MADELINE

Then what?

Abigail looks to Fiona; Fiona shoots her a look: "it's okay to say it."

ABIGAIL

It's kind of... sort of... in a way... um... you.

Madeline doesn't believe her ears. Finally--

MADELINE

I'm sorry. Did you say me?

ABIGAIL

I feel... this burden... or pressure... I dunno, to be perfect.

MADELINE

Excuse me?

319

ABIGAIL

Whether it's I "need to get into Stanford," or--

MADELINE

(dismissive)

The SAT tutor, I knew it, look--

FIONA

Maybe you should let Abigail finish.

Abigail looks to Fiona:

FIONA (CONT'D)

(to Abigail)

Go ahead. She can handle it.

MADELINE

Handle what?

ABIGAIL

Okay. There are a lot of high-powered women who live here. Some run banks, others run Google or Yahoo. Sometimes, I feel you're grooming me... to get to a place you... um

(weakly; delicately)

...couldn't.

That was a gut punch. Madeline just stares. You might as well drive a stake through her heart. And now for the bombshell.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

I think it would just be best... if I go live with Dad for awhile.

Madeline continues to just stare. A long beat. Then--

MADELINE

(weakly)

What did you just say?

ABIGAIL

(firm)

That it would be better for me to live with Dad.

319

MADELINE

Oh.

Another beat.

ABIGAIL

(struggling)

I feel like I can't be myself at home. I think I should live with Dad for a bit.

Abigail's struggle is Madeline's heartbreak. This is every bit as devastating as when Nathan left, perhaps more so. But she fights to remain stoic.

MADELINE

This is something you discussed with your father?

ABIGAIL

No. I'm not even sure I was totally aware of how much I...
(a beat)
...until Ms. Brewster and I started talking.

Madeline looks to Fiona: "thank you very much. Expect a lawsuit."

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

(fighting tears)

Mom. I just need... a change.
Okay?

MADELINE

(covering)

Okay.

ABIGAIL

It would be better for me.
Spiritually.

WE ACTUALLY SEE MADELINE'S NOSTRILS FLARE UPON HEARING "spiritually." She suddenly looks near psychotic.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

Okay. This is not about Bonnie.
This is about me and you.

Which only makes it that much more devastating.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

I just need... space.

320 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - DAY

320

Ed and Madeline sit in stunned silence. Finally--

ED

It's my fault, I never should have gotten into it with Nathan.

MADELINE

It's not your fault. It's mine, I just push too much. I always have.

ED

Look at me.

She doesn't.

ED (CONT'D)

Honey.

She looks at him.

ED (CONT'D)

You are not losing her. You and Abby are so close, maybe too close, which is why she feels...

MADELINE

She would never ever walk out if she knew I had cancer.

ED

You don't have cancer.

MADELINE

I'd be willing to get it.
(admitting; some struggle)
This is really rough, Ed.

ED

I know.

A beat.

ED (CONT'D)

I know you don't want to hear this... but if it is your fault... your crime was that you were too good of a parent.

her mom.

Madeline is genuinely moved. God, did she need to hear that. She takes his hand, squeezes it tightly.

MADELINE

(softly)
Thank you.

322

WE FIND RENATA, heading to the elevator bank.

RENATA (V.O.)

It couldn't hurt.

323 INT. GORDON'S OFFICE - DAY

323

A corner office, on the top floor, GREAT VIEWS... the office is well-decorated; oozes posh. Renata has come to see him.

GORDON

She's six.

RENATA

But she's gifted, which makes her intuitively advanced and emotionally more vulnerable.

Amabella internalizes, and a social slight can cause more psychological harm than being choked.

GORDON

I come back to, she's six.

RENATA

She wouldn't need to know she's seeing a child psychologist, some of the best ones now dress like clowns, we could sell it as another birthday surprise.

He fights a smile.

RENATA (CONT'D)

You're laughing at me. This is our daughter, Gordon.

GORDON

One of the reasons that you're so successful is because you're able to anticipate every possible hiccup. It's one of your many gifts. But one of the pitfalls... you have a tendency to way over-think things. Amabella had a great time at the party. How could she not? It blew "Disney On Ice" away.

Renata just stares. A long beat.

GORDON (CONT'D)

What?

RENATA

Have I become tragically unfun?

GORDON

Of course not.

RENATA

On our third date, we went sky-diving, remember?

GORDON

Indeed.

RENATA

I think it's the last time I allowed myself to just free-fall.

GORDON

Well, we're adults now.

RENATA

You make it sound so horrible.

(then)

When did we become past our spontaneous prime?

A beat. He gives her a good long look up and down.

GORDON

You want to be spontaneous? Let's make love right on that desk. I take it back; let's fuck right on that desk.

RENATA

Do not make fun of me.

GORDON

I'm not making fun, I'm looking at my wife, and I want to fuck her.
Right here and right now.

RENATA

(a little turned on, but Don't be ridiculous.

Alright.

GORDON
Do I need to rip them off?

RENATA
(both startled and titillated)
Gordon.

He just stares.

RENATA (CONT'D)
People will see.

GORDON
They won't see.

RENATA
They'll hear. You know how I get.

GORDON
Okay. No desk. Bathroom. Even better.

OVER Renata,

CELESTE (O.S.)
Passion isn't the problem.

324 INT. DR. REISMAN'S OFFICE - DAY

324

Celeste and Perry sit before DR. AMANDA REISMAN, forties.

CELESTE
Or if it is... the problem might be there's too much of it.

DR. REISMAN
How do you mean?

Perry looks uncomfortable. He and Celeste set ground rules as to what was on or off limits. But he's anxious, not convinced that Celeste will stick to the rules.
Celeste glances toward Perry; Dr. Reisman clocks it.

324 CONTINUED:

324

CELESTE

(choosing her words carefully)
Well. We love each other very much. But sometimes... things can get a little... volatile.

DR. REISMAN

Volatile how?

CELESTE

We fight a lot. Yell, scream, say things that... there seems to be a lot of anger that we need help... controlling.

A beat as Dr. Reisman measures them both; her radar is telling her that Celeste is withholding, seems a little scripted.

DR. REISMAN

(gently probing)
When you talk of anger. And volatility. Are we talking about a physical expression of anger?

A half-beat of hesitation

CELESTE

No. Emotional. Verbal.

A beat.

PERRY

That isn't true.

What the...? Celeste's head jerks to look at Perry.

PERRY (CONT'D)

After we fight... we make love. If you could call it making love, there seems to be so much anger mixed up in it. There's a line between passion and... rage. And sometimes I wonder whether we cross it.

Celeste is really surprised, perhaps buoyed -- that he went there.

DR. REISMAN

And where do you think this rage comes from?

324

PERRY

I wouldn't know how to begin to answer that.

DR. REISMAN

Try.

PERRY

I think... I'm afraid of losing her.

Celeste's eyes are laser-locked on Perry now. She didn't expect this candor, his willingness to be vulnerable in front of a stranger.

DR. REISMAN

Okay. And why do you think that?

PERRY

Look at her. She could have any man she wants. If she's not happy with me, there's a thousand other men who'd get in line...

(then)

...and lately, she doesn't always seem happy. And that terrifies me. And for whatever reason, the fear turns to anger. Then rage.

He is so open and communicative here, Celeste is now wondering whether to trust it. He could be "gaming" this.

PERRY (CONT'D)

From the beginning, I was always worried she'd go through me. In fact, I was sure of it.

DR. REISMAN

What do you mean, go through you?

PERRY

Outgrow me, figure me out, whatever. I've always had the sense that... I don't know, that the day would come when she'd just stop loving me. And I think I constantly look for evidence...

DR. REISMAN

Evidence that she doesn't love you any more.

324 CONTINUED: (3)

A TEAR ESCAPES, TRICKLES DOWN PERRY'S CHEEK. Celeste is near gape-jawed. Either this is the man she fell in love with and married, or he's a total sociopath.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)
Celeste. How do you feel about what Perry just said?

CELESTE
(trying to fathom it; to Perry)
I gave up my career for you. Moved here, left my family, all my friends. To think that I don't love you--

PERRY
Yesterday, you said you would leave me.

A beat.

DR. REISMAN
And what occasioned that?
(then) Anybody?

Silence. Then--

PERRY
I grabbed her. By the shoulders, very hard.

Celeste is shocked that he's revealing this.

PERRY (CONT'D)
So the idea that it's never gotten violent... This was. I grabbed her hard. And she told me if I ever did it again, she would leave me.

Dr. Reisman looks to Celeste.

CELESTE
(admitting)
He frightened me.

DR. REISMAN
Has this ever happened before?

PERRY

Yes.

(a beat)

Sometimes I lash out.

He looks at Celeste; an admission. But perhaps also a directive. "He'll do the talking here." But Dr. Reisman can read the signals.

DR. REISMAN

And you, Celeste?

CELESTE

What about me?

DR. REISMAN

Do you ever lash out?

A beat.

CELESTE

Yes. When he gets physical... I fight back.

Silence.

DR. REISMAN

And how does that make you feel?
When this happens?

CELESTE

Not good.

DR. REISMAN

Could you be more specific?

CELESTE

I feel... shame, I suppose.

DR. REISMAN

Shame.

A beat. The doctor waits for more. Seems Celeste wants to say more.

CELESTE

We get angry. It leads to fierce, angry sex. Tender apologies. All better. And the dirty secret lives on.

(then)

Shame.

325 INT. GORDON'S OFFICE, BATHROOM - DAY

325

Gordon Klein, pants down, has Renata, half-undressed, up on the sink; his butt-cheeks look to be in total spasm. As he thrusts away, RENATA YELPS, GRUNTS with orgasmic delight; pleasure. Fifty years of sensible, practical, living -- it's all given way to reckless abandon now. Two Pagans in the woods.

RENATA

Yes. Yes! Fuck me! Fuck me to the moon! Fuck me to the moon and back!!

(screams)

Oh yes! Fuck me to the fucking moon!!!

Gordon's buttocks convulse, quiver, and thrust, HE THEN SCREAMS, as he releases; then RENATA SCREAMS.

We'll turn to various administrative matters shortly, but first, let me proudly report -- we are once again off to a wonderful new year, the faculty is excited, the students are engaged. Optimism and joy abound from the entire Otter Bay school community.

ANGLE RENATA

NIPPAL (CONT'D)

Where couples will be asked to dress up as Elvis Presley or Audrey Hepburn. It should make up for a splendid evening of fun, fashion, and frivolity, one which should raise much-needed funding, going to the benefit of all our wonderful children.

A HAND GOES UP IN THE FRONT ROW: THEA.

NIPPAL (CONT'D)

Yes, Ms. Cunningham.

THEA

We all dress as either Elvis or Audrey? The same costumes for everybody?

NIPPAL

Part of the fun will be seeing the different interpretations.

327 EXT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL, PARKING LOT - LATER

327

Post-assembly; parents are heading to their cars. WE FIND MADELINE and ED on a brisk move.

MADELINE
Of all the people for me to have to pretend to be. Audrey Hepburn, oh yes, I'll look the spitting image.

NATHAN (O.S.)
Maddie.

Madeline turns to see Nathan and Bonnie approaching.

MADELINE
Oh, great.
(then; to Nathan) Nathan, hey. Bonnie.

BONNIE
Hey, Madeline.

Nathan nods to Ed.

NATHAN
Ed.

ED
Nathan.

Ed is fixing a bit of a hard look on Nathan: "go on, say something stupid, license me to hate you." Nathan reads Ed's expression, decides not to go there.

NATHAN
(to Madeline)
Can I steal you for one sec?

Madeline sighs, not in the mood for this. Nathan ushers her for some privacy.

NATHAN (CONT'D)
Listen, um. This thing with Abby.
That was not my doing. I was just as surprised as you.

NATHAN

Are you... alright with this?

MADELINE

I suppose I have no choice but to be. I mean, legally I guess I have a choice, she's a minor. But she also has a well-developed sense of self-awareness, and if she thinks this is best for her...

NATHAN

(surprised; impressed)

That's very mature of you.

Madeline just stares, doesn't like the inference that her "maturity" is a fluke.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

We'll take good care of her.

Madeline nods. She just wants to get through this. Nathan glances toward Ed, sees Ed is still glaring at him.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

Listen. This is a little off-subject -- but not really. Could you just discretely check your husband for a second.

Madeline looks to Ed, sees it; Ed quickly diverts his stare.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

You see the way he was staring at me? I think he wants to fight me.

Don't be ridiculous. Ed doesn't fight.

Madeline can nod, but she doesn't dare talk. Too raw.

BONNIE (CONT'D)

And Abigail knows it.

Please know that I will never try

Madeline is just holding on. Doesn't want to get angry, doesn't want to cry. Holding on... as suddenly, Bonnie gives her a nice, sincere, beautiful embrace.

328 EXT. LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL FIELD - DAY

328

Tee-ball practice tryout. A LONG-LINE OF FIVE AND SIX-YEAR-OLDS WAITING TO TAKE THEIR SWING. Ziggy is in the line, near the front, he looks beyond miserable. Would prefer to be anywhere else. Jane and A SLEW OF OTHER NERVOUS PARENTS stand behind the backstop. The FIELD itself is LITTERED with FIELDERS, TWENTY OR SO, all five and six year-olds. TIMMY, the batter up, SWINGS WILDLY AT THE BALL ON THE TEE, MISSES BY A FOOT, HITS ONLY THE TEE, CAUSING THE BALL TO FALL. COACH BOB, thirties, resets the tee, under--

COACH BOB

(peppy)

That's okay. That was a good cut, Timmy, just keep your eye right on the ball. Good cut, good cut.

As Ziggy leaves the line, comes over to Jane.

ZIGGY

Do I have to?

JANE

Just try it, baby, okay? You really might like it.

ZIGGY

I just want to play on the swings.

As Ziggy ambles back to the line, Timmy swings again.
BARELY NICKS THE TOP OF THE BALL, CAUSING IT TO FALL OFF. But IT DOES FALL FORWARD.

COACH BOB
(to Timmy)
Run!! Run!!

AND LITTLE TIMMY TAKES OFF FOR FIRST, AS ONE OF THE FIELDERS CHARGES IN TO RETURN THE FALLEN, BUT EVIDENTLY-PLAYABLE BALL. AS JANE'S CELL CHIMES; SHE SEES THE CALLER I.D. READS "MADELINE."

328A INT. MADELINE'S SUV - DAY

328A

MADELINE IS IN THE PASSENGER SEAT. ED IS DRIVING.

JANE (V.O.)
(through the car speakers)
Hey.

MADELINE
Missed you at the Assembly.

JANE (V.O.)
I know, I'm at Tee-Ball with Ziggy.
I'm trying to get him... y'know, involved.

MADELINE
Savor the moment, and others like them, 'cause trust me, they grow up.

JANE (V.O.)
You sound a little... are you okay?

MADELINE
I'm fine. Abigail has decided to live with her dad.
(in denial)
Less laundry to do. I don't have to cook all that vegan crap.

JANE (V.O.)
Oh, Madeline. I'm sorry. Can I

Madeline clicks off. Ed looks at her and waits for her to look back. It doesn't happen. She's lost in her thoughts, looking at the landscape passing by. Ed takes her hand, brings it to his lips and kisses it. She finally looks at him, offers him a sad smile and kisses his hand back.

328B EXT. LITTLE LEAGUE BASEBALL FIELD - DAY

328B

Ziggy waddles up to the plate, he's a little slumped; the bat is on his shoulder.

COACH BOB

What's your name, buddy?

ZIGGY

Ziggy Chapman.

JANE

C'mon, Zig!!

COACH BOB

Okay then, Ziggy, let's stand up a little straighter, okay, let's get that bat off your shoulder!

JANE

Hit a home run, Zig!!!

Ziggy looks back to Jane; "please stop."

COACH BOB

Okay, now spread the feet a bit, shoulder-width apart.

(as Ziggy does so)

Atta boy.

(positioning the bat)

Bring the bat up to about here.

Fantastic. You want to keep your eye right on the ball and swing as level as you can, okay, Zig?

ZIGGY

Okay.

Coach Bob stands back.

everyone, nobody more than Ziggy, whose eyes bulge with shock.

COACH BOB (CONT'D) Run!!

JANE
Oh my god!!

COACH BOB Run!!

And Ziggy takes off. The ball has sailed over the left fielders' heads (all three of them.) THEY GIVE CHASE AS ZIGGY RUNS THE BASES.

JANE
Run, Ziggy!! Run!!

AND BOY, DOES ZIGGY RUN. SPRINTING FOR ALL HE'S WORTH.
ROUNDING FIRST, THEN SECOND; A FIELDER FINALLY RETRIEVES
THE BALL, HEAVES IT TOWARD THE INFIELD; WHERE ANOTHER PLAYER GOES TO PICK IT UP.

BASEMEN PICKS UP THE BALL AND THROWS IT TOWARD HOME
PLATE. BUT IT DOESN'T GO TO HOME PLATE, RATHER IT GOES STRAIGHT UP. ZIGGY CROSSES HOME PLATE STANDING UP.

COACH BOB
Home run!! Home run!!

PERRY

CELESTE

He's not quite sure how to read that. They continue to ride in silence. Until-- We'd built a place that...

GORDON

RENATA

333 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, ABIGAIL'S ROOM - EVENING

333

Madeline is helping Abigail pack; keeps thinking to herself "there are harder things than this;" she will not wallow. Knowing this is difficult for Abigail, she refuses to make it more so. She folds a pair of white skinny jeans and adds them to the open suitcase.

MADELINE

Remember when we bought these?

ABIGAIL

Yeah.

"There are harder things than this." "There are harder things than this." But could there be? Madeline takes short, shallow breaths, as if to soften a blow to the abdomen. But outwardly, she does her best.

MADELINE

How 'bout this tee, do you still wear it?

ABIGAIL

Yeah, you can throw it in.

Madeline then picks up a pale peach-colored top.

MADELINE

Don't you dare ruin this. Remember it's hand wash only. Tell Bonnie.
Or tell your dad,
(with a wink)
maybe he does the laundry now.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Hey, now that you're out of the house, maybe you and me can be girlfriends a bit?

ABIGAIL

That sounds awesome.

Abigail appreciates the enormous effort Madeline is making to keep this upbeat. But she's also loathe to acknowledge it for fear of opening floodgates. Chloe arrives at the door. She and Abigail hold a look.

CHLOE

Are you ever coming back?

Another blow to Madeline's abdomen; she wonders the same thing. When a teenager leaves....

ABIGAIL

Of course I'll be back. I'll be back and forth all the time.

CHLOE

You promise?

Abigail kneels in front of her little sister.

ABIGAIL

I absolutely promise. My family lives here.

(for Madeline's benefit)

This is my family.

That breaks Madeline's heart, but she will not surrender to it. Upbeat. Upbeat. Upbeat.

JANE

No, that isn't due for another week.

ZIGGY

Tomorrow.

JANE

No, sweetie, it's the nineteenth.

335 INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE, KITCHEN - THIRTY MINUTES LATER

Madeline is there; Jane is wrought. The poster-board and a pile of pictures on the table.

ZIGGY

Yeah.

JANE

(re: the pictures)

I'd already organized some of the photos. His grandmother, grandfather, these are cousins over here. That's my brother. These are my cousins, who... would they be considered second cousins?

MADELINE

Okay, first -- we need to draw a big tree on the cardboard, they like you to show an actual tree.

JANE

Zig, wanna help draw the tree?

ZIGGY

Okay.

JANE

(to Madeline)

The assignment said make sure the Jane is suddenly frozen.

JANE Well...

ZIGGY
Ms. Barnes says it doesn't matter if we don't have a photo, we just put in his name.

JANE
(calmly)
You know that you don't have a dad, sweetheart.
(then)
Now, you have grandma and grandpa and great-uncle Jimmy--

ZIGGY
I still have to write my dad's name on the board.

Ugh. A beat.

ZIGGY (CONT'D)
You draw a line from me to my mother and my daddy. That's the way you do it. They told me.

He points to a sample family tree that Ms. Barnes provided, it shows a perfect, unbroken, nuclear family.

MADELINE

It doesn't have to be exactly like that. Everyone's project will be a little bit different.

JANE
No you won't, honey.

ZIGGY
I want you to put it down.

JANE
(tougher slightly) Ziggy.

ZIGGY (harder) What's my dad's name? Just write it down.

Jane is frozen again. Then--

JANE
Sweetie, I've told this story so many times. Your dad would have loved you so much if he'd known you. But--

ZIGGY
What's his name?

JANE (shouting)
Shut up! I don't know his name.
Go to your room.

ZIGGY holds her stare for a beat and disappears into his room, BANGING THE DOOR behind him.

Jane and Madeline share an uncomfortable look.

336 EXT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE, PORCH - LATER

Okay. A beat. Jane's body clenches up a bit.

JANE (CONT'D)

He was not a nice man.

A beat. Madeline can see that Jane wants to talk about it some.

JANE (CONT'D)

He said his name was Saxon Banks.
Mr. Banks, like the dad in "Mary Poppins." But I Googled him after, and...

We met in a bar. He was funny, sexy... we were both... pleasantly drunk.

(then)

He seemed so sweet. Gentle, even.
We got a room at a hotel, it overlooked the ocean. It was... romantic.

WE INTERCUT WITH FLASHBACKS: GLIMPSES, IMAGES OF WHAT JANE DESCRIBES, BUT THE IMAGES ARE INCOMPLETE, FRACTURED, SOMETIMES OUT OF FOCUS, EVEN.

JANE (CONT'D)

He kissed me in a way that... so soft... and then...

She goes still. Madeline has a sense of where this is going.

JANE (CONT'D)

He had his hands on my throat... choking... as if it were fun, erotic. Told me it would be a rush... Like cocaine.

Silence.

JANE (CONT'D)

I had trouble getting air, I pulled away. And told him I didn't like it.

MADELINE

What do you mean, he changed?

JANE

He became very angry. He started kissing me again, but this time it wasn't soft. It wasn't gentle. I tried to resist, but...

(a beat)

Suddenly, he was on top of me... shoving himself inside... like he was operating some piece of machinery. It was so rote. Like mowing the grass.

Silence. Jane is lost in the memory.

JANE (CONT'D)

I didn't resist anymore. I was too afraid he'd kill me, he was that cold. I just stared at the ceiling. When it was over... he pulled his pants up. And said goodbye. I said "bye." And he was gone.

(silence)

But he gave me Ziggy.

MADELINE

Have you ever gotten... help for this? Counseling?

JANE

What could anybody say? Or do?

(then)

You're the first person I've told.

MADELINE

Sweetie.

JANE

I thought I'd moved on. Eventually started to date again, or tried.

But I have moved forward. I've made a life for myself, and I've made a life for Ziggy. Which will continue. Ziggy will have a good, good life.

(then; coldly)

But the name of his father is not going on that fucking poster-board.

OFF Madeline,

337 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

337

Celeste sits... the room is dimly lit. She sits in the shadows, a somewhat blank expression on her face. Perry appears at the doorway, studies her from afar. Then--

PERRY

Hey.

She turns to see him.

PERRY (CONT'D)

What are you thinking about?

A beat.

CELESTE

I was trying to decide whether I'm feeling happy or sad.

PERRY

People typically know.

CELESTE

I just want to hold you. Look into your eyes. And just... be in love with you. And feel you being in love with me. Would you?

A beat.

CELESTE

(why not)

Sure.

He pulls out his iPhone, synchs it with the sound system: Neil Young's "HARVEST MOON" BEGINS TO PLAY.

PERRY

The most beautiful song... for the most beautiful woman.

Perry walks to Celeste, takes her by the hand. And THEY BEGIN TO SLOWLY, TENDERLY, DANCE, their eyes locked on each other. Whatever the flaws of this union... they are still madly in love. AS THE MUSIC CONTINUES, WE:

337A INT. JANE'S HOUSE - NIGHT

Jane is sitting on the sofa, her knees tucked under her arms... she's looking like one of those roly-poly bugs that turn into an impenetrable ball when they sense danger. The memory of the past trauma has moved back in. Her body is rigid. She just sits in a tight ball, staring... remembering... staring... remembering... until she hears a sound and looks up...

HER POV: the SILHOUETTE OF A MAN walking into her house.

Jane quickly unlocks the drawer of her end table.

The SILHOUETTE OF THE MAN beelines for her.

Madeline enters, FLIPS ON THE LIGHT. The room has that "moved out" look. Pictures and personal items have been removed. The bed is made; there's no mess, no signs of teenage life; a sterile feeling. She's gone. But Madeline will not wallow. If she gives into it... she might not recover. So she remains stoic, guarded. After a beat, she leaves.

342 EXT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - BACKYARD / BEACH - NIGHT

342

MADELINE SIPS RED WINE FROM A GLASS, STARING AT NOTHING. JUST THE OCEAN. AND THE MOON. AS NEIL YOUNG CONTINUES TO SING OF LOVE THAT ENDURES, ETERNAL AND UNWAVERING AS THE BOUNTIFUL MOON --

OFF Madeline, numb, expressionless... empty, we:

- 401 EXT. MONTEREY - BIXBY BRIDGE - SUNSET 401
- THAT SPECTACULAR VIEW AGAIN... OF THAT BRIDGE BY THE COAST; MADELINE'S SUV DRIVES TOWARDS US, AS WE HEAR, THROUGH THE WAVES, A BEAUTIFUL MELODY PLAYED BY AN ACOUSTIC GUITAR...
- 401A INT. MADELINE'S SUV - ROAD BY THE OCEAN - SUNSET 401A
- THE MUSIC COMES FROM THE CAR RADIO. Madeline is driving, focused on the road. But we can tell that her mind is somewhere else as we cut to...
- 401B ABIGAIL WAVING GOODBYE FROM THE PASSENGER SEAT OF NATHAN'S JEEP AS IT DRIVES AWAY, FILLED WITH BOXES AND STUFF. 401B
- MADELINE, ED, AND CHLOE WAVE BACK FROM THE FRONT DOOR OF THE HOUSE. A TRULY SAD TABLEAU BUT NOBODY IS CRYING. THEY ALL HAVE THE MOST BEAUTIFUL SMILES ON THEIR FACES.
- CHLOE SYNCHRONIZES AN iPHONE FROM HER LAPTOP AND UNPLUGS IT.
- 401C MADELINE AND ED ARE SIPPING TEA AS THEY WATCH THE OCEAN IN SILENCE, SEATED ON WOODEN CHAIRS IN THEIR BACKYARD, RIGHT ON THE BEACH. CHLOE ARRIVES AND GIVES MADELINE HER iPHONE AS SHE SITS ON HER MOM'S LAP, SINGING ALONG WITH A SOULFUL FEMALE VOICE: "It's gonna be alright..." 401C
- 401D We're BACK ON MADELINE, DRIVING as she glances towards the car radio that shows what's playing: "That feeling", from Alabama Shakes. She seems to appreciate it, starts to move her head to the peaceful rhythm of the music. And it's now Madeline's turn to sing along: "I'm gonna be alright". These words, that view of the coast, the sunset, that song, one's got to be grateful. And it looks like it. 401D
- 402 EXT. SIDE DOOR CAFE - NIGHT 402
- Nathan sits by himself, a beer in hand, half empty. He spots Madeline arriving, looks at his watch, shakes his head and puts on his happy face when Madeline sees him.

NATHAN (O.S.)

All in all, I think it's been great.

MADELINE and NATHAN sit... the tension is palpable. The body language a little stiff.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

A pretty smooth six days. Other than...

MADELINE

What?

NATHAN

Well. The one little dust-up.

A beat, as Madeline reads him.

MADELINE

You mean my dust-up?

NATHAN

I didn't say that.

MADELINE

Because you didn't have to.

Nathan bites the inside of his cheek, determined to keep this "friendly."

MADELINE (CONT'D)

(a contained bristle)

I was wrong to be concerned about your decision to cancel the SAT tutor.

NATHAN

It was not wrong.

MADELINE

I mean, who cares if Abigail gets her scores up, whether or not she gets into a college whose admission standards require anything more than a pulse, what's the big dif?

NATHAN

(bristling now, too)

Okay.

MADELINE

What okay?

Nathan bites his lip. She's determined to make this contentious.

NATHAN

You see what you're doing here?

MADELINE

Why are we meeting, Nathan?

NATHAN

What I would like to propose is that you, me, Bonnie, and Ed have dinner together.

Madeline stares back, "what"?

NATHAN (CONT'D)

We need to discuss the transitional parenting paradigm of Abigail. To make sure there aren't any glaring chasms. Like with the tutor thing.

She stares back.

MADELINE

The transitional parenting paradigm, to safeguard against future chasms. Who the fuck talks like that?

Nathan is chewing his tongue now, trying not to snap back.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Why can't you just say this is Bonnie's idea?

NATHAN

Alright, Maddie. It's Bonnie's idea. Me, I think the four of us trying to get along is ridiculous. But one of the things that defines what it means to be a husband is a willingness to go along with your wife's fucked up notions.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

For example, when I was married to you, I spent nine thousand dollars to ground the house against electromagnetic fields so we wouldn't all get brain tumors. The time we went camping...

NATHAN (CONT'D)

I said okay,

MADELINE

I hate camping, that was your idea.

NATHAN

Better to let the mosquito bite the shit out of us than let our skin come in contact with Deet.

MADELINE

What's your point?

NATHAN

My point is, I jumped through a lot of fucked up hoops for you during our marriage.

MADELINE

Oh, give me a break.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

I now make those same--

NATHAN (CONT'D)

--leaps for Bonnie. Trust me, I'd sooner shove an electric eel up my ass and let him gnaw through my intestines than sit down to dinner with you and psycho Ed. But for the sake of Abigail, I'll do it. That's the kind of caring wonderful fucked up fuckshit person I am. How bout that?

Madeline stares back, now genuinely concerned for him.
OFF her--

MADELINE (V.O.)

The man is losing his mind.

403 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE - KITCHEN - NIGHT

CELESTE

So did you schedule the dinner?

MADELINE (O.S.)

(from the phone)

Yes. Can you imagine? I could never get him to do a couples dinner, never. But for Bonnie, he's "Mr. Fucking Sacrifice."

CELESTE

Listen, maybe you could bottle up some of your anger here and put it to a good use.

MADELINE (O.S.)

(from the phone)

What do you mean?

CELESTE

I'm thinking it might be a good idea for both you and Joseph to attend this meeting with the mayor tomorrow. I can't really speak to the content of the show. Joseph can, and we could also use your passion.

MADELINE (O.S.)

(from the phone)

I cannot possibly thank you enough for doing this, Celeste.

CELESTE

I haven't done anything yet but you know what, it's actually fun.

As PERRY enters the room, Celeste discretely closes the laptop.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Let's meet at Blue Blues after drop-off tomorrow. I'll brief you. Alright? 'Night.

PERRY

What's fun?

CELESTE

Oh, the mayor is trying to shut down the "Avenue Q" production, thinks it's inappropriate for a community theater. I agreed to help Madeline out.

PERRY

Help her out how? Legal help?

CELESTE

Yes.

PERRY

So we're suddenly practicing law again?

CELESTE

I'm not practicing law. I'm going to a meeting.

PERRY

The town of Monterey can't afford to hire an attorney?

CELESTE

The town of Monterey is the one trying to shut down the production, and what's the big deal?

PERRY

This isn't something that might come up in conversation?

CELESTE

It might, if you were ever here long enough for us to actually have one. By the time the talk shifts from the kids, you're already packing up your bag for the next business trip.

He then exits.

404 EXT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - NIGHT

404

MADELINE PULLS INTO THE DRIVEWAY. She debords, heads to the house, notes that the downstairs is dark. Odd.

405 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - MOMENTS LATER

405

Madeline enters. There is a dark silhouette in the living room, standing still like a statue.

MADELINE
Ed?
(a little spooked)
Ed?!!

And suddenly, as SHE CLICKS ON THE LIGHTS, ED is there, a microphone in hand, dressed in a white jumpsuit, as ELVIS PRESLEY'S "ONE NIGHT" explodes.

ED

One night with you/

MADELINE
Oh. My. God.

What?

MADELINE
My meeting with Nathan? They want to have a dinner. You, me, Bonnie, and Nathan, a pleasant little sit-down so we can make nice and group-think our parenting skills.

ED
Well. It could be a good idea.

MADELINE Fucking Bonnie. She probably just wants to show off, she'll be

Ed and Madeline turn towards little Chloe who's watching from the staircase. She comes down.

MADELINE

What are you doing still up, young lady? Go back to bed, right now.

CHLOE

You gotta pick a song that no one else will sing.

Ed wonders. As he looks for the song in the karaoke

ED

It's not even listed.

CHLOE

Exactly.

And Chloe plays Elvis' version of "Pocketful Of Rainbows" from her ipod.

MADELINE

I said go to bed, now!

It's like Madeline doesn't exist. Chloe starts to sing

406 INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE - NIGHT

406

NOR IS JANE as she lays in her hide-a-bed sofa, wide awake, lost in thought.

406A CLOSE ON JANE. RUNNING. IN THE DAYLIGHT. SWEAT ON HER 406A FACE, a look of menace in her eyes. But we don't hear her. There is no sound but an eerie silence.

HER POV: she's running towards the edge of a cliff. And she doesn't slow down. At the last minute, right on the edge, she stops. Out of breath, she looks down at the violent waves crashing on the rocks a hundred feet below. She could have killed herself.

406B We're back on JANE in bed, eyes wide open. She closes 406B her eyes, turns and is suddenly startled by the presence of Ziggy who's standing next to her bed, like a ghost.

JANE
Zig?

No answer. Ziggy just stands there, staring. Jane takes his hand and walks him back into his room, into his bed.

ZIGGY
(suddenly startled)
What are you doing?

JANE
You were sleepwalking, baby.

406B CONTINUED:

406B

She puts him under the sheets, kisses him until...

ZIGGY
You're looking for dad, right?
That's why we moved here.

Whoa. It's Jane's turn to have no answer.

ZIGGY (CONT'D)
What happened between you two?
You can tell me.

She wonders for a second. No. She can't.

ZIGGY (CONT'D)
You guys met one night and... that was it... he left?

Jane is speechless. She can't believe how mature and clever her son is. Finally, she nods and whispers a very soft and subtle...

JANE
Yes.

A long beat.

ZIGGY
You don't have to look for him, if that's what you're doing for me.
I'm okay, mom. The two of us...
we'll be just fine.

She stares at him, shakes her head, laughs, and cries as she hugs him with so much love that she could crush him. That's how strong love is.

A407 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE - CELESTE'S CLOSET - NIGHT

A407

Perry is putting the jacket of a suit on a hanger when he spots something: a garment bag from DOLCE GABBANA with a price tag on it. He looks inside to discover a new female business outfit. He breathes in. Shakes his head.

407 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BEDROOM - NIGHT

Celeste emerges from the bathroom and climbs into the bed where Perry lies on his back. She rolls over, away from him. A beat. Maybe she's dodged a bullet.

He rolls her over to face him. He looks into her.

PERRY

Honey. You couldn't get pregnant before. When you were working, the doctors all agreed...

CELESTE

I'm not trying to get pregnant.

PERRY

I'm just saying. You had a lot of anxiety-induced issues. Which went away after you quit your job.

CELESTE

(cutting him off)

I know my history.

(contained)

I am not trying to get pregnant. I am doing one little thing to help out a friend. Is that really so hard for you to deal with?

A beat. He's snapped over less.

PERRY

I'm just looking out for you. Who looks out for you more than I do? Should you go to pieces again, who's going to put you back together? Madeline? I am the one who is always there for you, Celeste, who will always be there.

CELESTE

It's difficult... when you try to control me.

He nods.

407

PERRY

The idea of you resuming your career...

CELESTE

I am not doing that.

PERRY

Maybe I want to have another baby.

CELESTE

Excuse me?

PERRY

Perhaps a daughter.

CELESTE

Honey. My biological clock, it's too late, come on.

PERRY

No, it's not...

(off her)

Can you imagine? Having a little girl of our own?

There is something contagiously romantic, charismatic, when Perry speaks of having children. The dream, the promise of it all becomes so real.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Remember the little dresses, the outfits we thought of buying before we knew... Wouldn't it be unbelievable to have a little girl?

CELESTE

Yes.

He reaches up, tenderly caresses her face with his hand.

PERRY

Being your husband. Max and Josh's dad...

(off her look)

Sometimes I wish we had ten kids.

CELESTE

Okay, for a while there, it was sounding romantic.

407 CONTINUED: (4)

PERRY

Let's have that little girl.

He kisses her softly. He's like a drug. One minute Celeste is ready to leave him; the next, she cannot bear the idea of living without him.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Can we work on it?

He kisses her with a little more passion. A hand travels to her buttocks.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Tonight?

CELESTE

(resisting, but not really)

We both have busy days tomorrow.

PERRY

Yes we do.

(as his hands start to roam)

Maybe we should just call it a night.

CELESTE

You just think you're so irresistible, don't you?

And now her hands start to travel. And then there's no turning back. They make love like they fight... unbridled passion. As it continues to escalate, Celeste seems more the aggressor.

Madeline smiles and stays silent. Looks like it did.

MADELINE

I'm sorry, I don't mean to be talking about sex, of all things.

(calling to the Barista)

Tom, something extra puffy with chocolate.

TOM

You got it.

JANE

(to Madeline)

Why not... talk about sex, of all things?

MADELINE

Well... no reason.

It's suddenly a bit awkward.

JANE

'Cause I'm a rape victim?

That was pretty direct. Madeline gets uncomfortable.

MADELINE

No... but honey, you are. If the suggestion is I'm judging you in any way--

JANE

I haven't had sex since then. And it's funny how ever since I told you about Ziggy's dad, something has been happening. In my body. It's like wanting to... come back to life again.

Madeline is all ears, wonders what Jane means.

(CONTINUED)

409

JANE (CONT'D)

I've always known that my reaction to that night had been too big. Or perhaps too small. I pretended it meant nothing, and therefore it had come to mean everything. Telling you those stupid little words he had said to me, just repeating them out loud... it's as if... they needed to stay secret to keep their power.

Madeline is deeply moved.

JANE (CONT'D)

So ever since I told you, I keep catching myself looking at men.

Really? They share a smile.

JANE (CONT'D)

But not so much in a sexual way, but in a sensual, appreciative way. Like that guy's tanned forearm with a tattoo behind you.

Madeline turns and spots the guy's forearm, lit by a ray of sun beaming through the window.

JANE (CONT'D)

Or that older man's neck at the counter.

Madeline spots a man massaging his neck with one hand at the counter.

JANE (CONT'D)

MADELINE

Abominable pig.

JANE

If I could kill him, I think I would.

And once again, Madeline is struck by Jane's confidence. No more joking now.

MADELINE

Honey, don't repeat that one out loud.

(then)

Have you thought of counseling?

JANE

No, but I'm thinking of moving back now.

MADELINE

What?

JANE

Ziggy's not happy here.

Upon which, Celeste arrives, power navy-blue Dolce & Gabbana suit.

CELESTE

How we doing?

409

MADELINE

So this is your frumpy "go-to-meeting" outfit.

CELESTE

Don't be silly, I'll take my jacket off for the meeting.

MADELINE

Sleeveless?

CELESTE

(with a wink)

You'll have to wait and see.

MADELINE

Madame here is thinking of moving back!

CELESTE

What? No way!

MADELINE

No freaking way.

CELESTE

Don't let them get to you. Ziggy didn't do it. Don't give in now!

JANE

I'm not giving in, I'm just... I don't know... trying to do the right thing... for my son, you know?

Jane suddenly gets emotional. Celeste and Madeline nod. They know. We stay with them for a moment as we hear a B3 ORGAN playing a sustained single note that seems to underline their feeling of compassion, but it also adds some mystery to the moment.

410 INT. PILOXING STUDIO - MORNING

410

Tattooed arms and legs are jabbing and kicking as we HEAR Charles Bradley's soulful beat punching in over the B3 organ that keeps on playing. The limbs are BONNIE's, as she is leading a SMALL ARMY OF CLIENTS, including HARPER, SAMANTHA and THEA IN A PILOXING SESSION. And this song is called "CHANGES".

BONNIE

(to the group)

Are we gonna go through some changes today, or not?

THE CLIENTS BEGIN TO "WHOO" TO THE JABS AND GRUNT TO THE PUNCHES.

We FIND ED entering the studio. Immediately a bit awestruck, "this is cool." He watches, it even looks like he's joining in a bit.

Bonnie spots him. Wonders.

ED (V.O.)

God, I love sweat on women.

411 INT. BONNIE'S OFFICE - LATER

BONNIE

But...

ED

Well. Nathan and Madeline... that's a pretty volatile cocktail.

BONNIE

And what about you, Ed? You've been acting a little aggressively of late.

ED

Yeah, well... I'm only trying to be supportive of Madeline. You know she was kind of abandoned by her dad, he only made time for her brothers. She felt abandoned when Nathan left... and now with Abigail, it's the triple whammy. She's in a pretty fragile state.

BONNIE

Got it. Fragile times.

ED

What's that s'posed to mean?

BONNIE

Nothing.

ED

It doesn't help, by the way, that you're this seemingly perfect stepmom. Anyway, what I came to say... we're going to do this dinner. But I think it'll be up to you and me to keep things civil.

Bonnie just stares. Doesn't get it. Ed shakes his head: not a good idea.

The child is clearly not forthcoming. A beat. Then, another tack...

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)

How are things between you and Ziggy?

AMABELLA

Fine. He's nice. We're friends.

MS. BARNES

That's great.

Amabella tries not to cry, fights to stay stoic.

414 EXT. CITY HALL - DAY

414

Madeline stands with Celeste beside Madeline's SUV.

CELESTE

You found him?

MADELINE

I may have found him. There is a Saxon Baker, interior designer, who lives in San Luis Obispo.
Matches Jane's description.
Kinda.

CELESTE

Didn't she say Saxon Banks?

MADELINE

The guy could have given only his real first name. He told Jane he was an architect, sometimes interior designers pass themselves off as architects.

CELESTE

I'm not sure it's a good idea to be tracking this guy down.

As Madeline is about to talk, she sees Joseph.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Ssssh.

As JOSEPH BACHMAN arrives--

JOSEPH

I'm having second thoughts about this.

MADELINE

Why?

(CONTINUED)

414 CONTINUED:

414

JOSEPH

Look, even should we win this battle, we make an enemy of the mayor's office. Long term, it's not a good idea.

MADELINE

Our funding is done, we open in just over two weeks--

JOSEPH

But what about the next production?
And the one after that--

MADELINE

Joseph, look at me.

He does. Seems to love doing so.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Do you believe that "Avenue Q" is worth fighting for?

JOSEPH

Yes.

MADELINE

Then what are we talking about here?

JOSEPH

The future of the theater itself.
If we piss off the mayor, and I've been told he pisses off easily...

CELESTE

I can keep today's meeting civil.

Right at this moment, they see RENATA KLEIN in the distance, walking into City Hall.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Or maybe not.

MADELINE

Don't tell me she's going where we're going?

415

INT. CONFERENCE ROOM - DAY

415

Renata Klein is seated next to the Mayor in a large conference room. MAYOR RANDALL BARTLEY, fifties, a bit gruff, a rough-and-tumble politician, is surrounded by A COUPLE OF AIDES. Sitting across from them: Celeste, Madeline, and Joseph.

MAYOR BARTLEY

Look, I'm not looking to like chill artistic expression. I hear it's a great play. That said, the puppets fuck. We can't have puppets fucking in Monterey.

MADELINE

May I be heard?

Celeste puts her hand on top of Madeline's to suggest "not yet."

CELESTE

There is one scene and one scene only where two of the puppets simulate sex. There is no nudity.

MAYOR BARTLEY

Yeah, naked puppets don't concern me. Fucking puppets on the other hand... It's vulgar.

CELESTE

Even if it were, you'd still have to show that it has no literary, social, or artistic value--

MAYOR BARTLEY

I'm not talking about the legals.

MADELINE

Well, if this goes to court...

Celeste puts a hand on Madeline's arm again.

CELESTE

(voice of reason)

To shut down a play simply because it makes you uncomfortable, at this stage, two weeks--

415

CONTINUED:

415

MAYOR BARTLEY

Okay, look. I'm new to this whole controversy, okay? It's just been brought to my attention, mostly by concerned parents.

Madeline shoots a look to Renata; Renata returns the stare.

MAYOR BARTLEY (CONT'D)

So I'm bringing a fresh eye to the whole thing. You can tell me I'm full of shit; you wouldn't be the first -- but from my perspective, the whole point of the theater is to bring the community together, to entertain, to have an affirming effect on our society. This thing here is already divisive.

RENATA

We have zoning laws prohibiting strip clubs, sex shops,--

CELESTE

This is hardly that.

MADELINE

This play examines love, racism, same sex marriage, there are so many redeeming themes--

MAYOR BARTLEY

The puppets fuck.

RENATA

If I may speak, not as a member of the Monterey Planning Board, but as a parent...

Madeline straightens, bristles at the suggestion that she's not a 'parent.'

RENATA (CONT'D)

Nobody's trying to be a prude here. It's a vulgar universe, understood. But we're Monterey. Is this the best we can do? Really?

(a beat)

(MORE)

(CONTINUED)

415 CONTINUED: (2)

415

RENATA (CONT'D)

The question here isn't what is this play? It's who are we?

A beat. Compelling. Winning. Renata knows it; shoots Madeline a self-satisfied look. And then--

CELESTE

(poised)

I take your point, Renata, and it's a good one. We all have small children. This is the village we've chosen to raise them in. As for who we are, I like to think that among other things we're open-minded. In fact, what draws many to Monterey is its progressiveness.

(back to the Mayor)

Legally, you already know you lose. If anything, The California Constitution goes further than the Federal one to protect the First Amendment.

(to Renata)

But to your question: Who are we?
Like you say, we're Monterey. Do we really want to become synonymous with suppression and prior restraint? We'll face accusations of being anti-American, certainly anti-free speech. That's not the kind of politics you've been practicing,
Mr. Bartley. There are bigger black eyes than putting on controversial musicals, especially ones that win Tonys.

A beat. Madeline sits taller, shoots a look to Renata:

MADELINE (V.O.)

Stick that up your tight ass, bitch.

416 OMITTED

416

417 INT. MADELINE'S SUV - DAY

417

Madeline and Celeste slam their doors as they climb into Madeline's SUV--

(CONTINUED)

417 CONTINUED:

417

MADELINE

You were fucking brilliant.

CELESTE

Really?

MADELINE

It pisses me off, truth be told, that you can be so smart on top of everything else, but you were incredible. Elegant, sympathetic, you even had Cruella agreeing with you in the end, come on!

CELESTE

Thank you.

And then, unexpectedly... CELESTE IS STRUGGLING.

MADELINE

Hey, hey... what's wrong?

CELESTE

(trying to laugh it off)
I'm sorry. And embarrassed.

MADELINE

About?

CELESTE

I don't know where this is coming from.

MADELINE

Maybe you do.

A beat.

CELESTE

It's like for five years, I've been wiping runny noses and organizing play-dates, and... being a good mom. All of a sudden... I felt alive again, I guess. Like I've been dead. Is that crazy?

MADELINE

No.

(CONTINUED)

417

CELESTE

I am so ashamed to be feeling this, much less saying it. But being a mother. It's not enough.
It's not even close.

(then)

I feel almost evil for saying it aloud.

Madeline takes her hand.

MADELINE

You're not evil.

CELESTE

Do you ever think it?

MADELINE

(admitting)

Yes.

(then)

It's the greatest racket ever sold, that being a mother by itself...

(off Celeste)

Nobody's more desperate than me to believe it should be enough.
Because that's all I am.

CELESTE

It's not all you are.

MADELINE

Well, I never had a career, or...

(a beat) trust me, when your sole focus becomes the lives of your children... it's like your own has stopped.

A beat.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

That book, "What To Expect When You're Expecting"? It never tells you to expect... emptiness sometimes.

A stunned beat. Then-- they stare at each other. Like they've bonded over the deepest, darkest secret known to mankind.

(CONTINUED)

417

MADELINE (CONT'D)
I'm not going to just say it aloud. I'm going to declare it.
"Being a mother is not enough."
There.
(admitting)
That felt good.

A beat.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
(screaming to the world)
"It's not even fucking close!!!"

Celeste laughs at that.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
(SHE LEANS ON HER CAR HORN)
Motherhood isn't enough!!!

More laughs from Celeste.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
You should go back to practicing law.

CELESTE
Oh. I can't do that.

MADELINE
Why not? God knows you're good at it.

CELESTE
(denial)
I don't want to go back to practicing law.

MADELINE
Celeste. Who are you kidding?
You miss it. You miss it.

And Celeste stares back. Like she's just been broad-sided by the truth. And then--

CELESTE
(screaming to the world)
I fucking miss it!!!

418

EXT. SIDE DOOR CAFE - DAY

418

Ms. Barnes is there with Jane.

MS. BARNES

Thank you for agreeing to meet me.
I would've asked you to come to the school, but... it's kind of a fish bowl there, and people... can gossip.

JANE

(a lump in her throat)
What's going on?

MS. BARNES

Well. First let me say I have no facts, no evidence, no--

JANE

(fearing the worst)
Oh my god.
(then)
Just tell me.

MS. BARNES

I have reason to suspect, and only suspect... that Amabella Klein is still being bullied. And that Ziggy may be the culprit.

Jane can feel her insides seize up. She can't even form a response.

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)

I have not seen anything. But I feel certain that something's going on with Amabella. She's implicated no-one, in fact she claims she and Ziggy are friends.
My personal experience of Ziggy:
he's a sweet little boy.

JANE

Then where is this coming from?

MS. BARNES

I've sensed some tension between them. This morning, Amabella was visibly upset about something. I observed Ziggy looking at her.
(MORE)

418

CONTINUED:

418

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)

And from my vantage point, it appeared he knew what she was upset about.

JANE

Maybe he saw her being bullied.
Maybe he was concerned.

MS. BARNES

That could very well be, though it wasn't my take. As I said, I have no evidence. What I do have is an obligation. If I think a child is being physically or emotionally abused, I have a duty to go forward with that, first and foremost to the parents.

JANE

(snapping)
What fucking evidence do you have?

Ms. Barnes stares back, frozen. Then--

MS. BARNES

I'm actually on your side here.

JANE

I'm sorry, but going to Amabella's parents will make things worse. If you're on my side, you gotta come up with a better solution.

A beat during which Ms. Barnes seems to agree with Jane.

MS. BARNES

Do you have any reason to suspect that Ziggy could be violent?

(CONTINUED)

418

Hesitation. Then--

JANE

No.

(CONTINUED)

418 CONTINUED: (3)

418

MS. BARNES
Maybe something in his past--

JANE
(suddenly yelling)
No!!!

HEADS TURN. Jane is immediately mortified.

JANE (CONT'D)
He's a docile, sweet boy, he's never hurt anybody.

A beat.

JANE (CONT'D)
Wouldn't somebody have seen it, for God's sake? If this was going on at school?

MS. BARNES
You'd be surprised how discrete this kind of thing can be.

A beat. Then--

MS. BARNES (CONT'D)
Okay. Maybe you'll think this is way off-book... how about you take Ziggy to a child psychologist, get an independent evaluation?

The idea grows in Jane's mind.

419 INT. COMMUNITY THEATER - DAY 419

REHEARSAL IN PROGRESS as Madeline walks through, headed for Joseph's office.

JOSEPH (V.O.)
I feel guilty about your friend working for free, I mean, should this go to court...

420 INT. JOSEPH BACHMAN'S OFFICE - DAY 420

MADELINE
It won't. You saw how good she was? And Celeste is financially okay, her husband runs a hedge fund, add to that, she's enjoying herself. So stop beating yourself up.

JOSEPH
Well, I do beat myself up... and with very good reason. A lot of people have gone out on a limb here, made sacrifices. Given their time, their passion...
including you.

MADELINE
I love this play.

A beat during which Madeline waits for Joseph to say more. He doesn't. He just stares at her, and suddenly pulls her in and plunges his tongue into her mouth.

421 EXT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, PATIO - DAY 421

Celeste spits her wine as she takes a sip, looking at Madeline who sits in front of her.

CELESTE
Oh my god.

MADELINE Right? Out of nowhere. I'm still shaking.

(CONTINUED)

421 CONTINUED:

421

Madeline empties her glass of wine and pours herself more. THE TWINS ARE PLAYING IN THE BACKGROUND. Madeline makes sure that they're not listening.

*

MADELINE (CONT'D)

One second we're talking, the next, he's tongue-lashing my esophagus.

CELESTE

The man assaulted you?

MADELINE

I may have... y'know, kissed him back a little.

421A

AND WE'RE BACK IN JOSEPH'S OFFICE AS MADELINE KISSES HIM BACK. NOT JUST A LITTLE. WE DON'T HEAR THEM. WE STILL HEAR THE SOUND OF CELESTE AND MADELINE'S EXCHANGE.

421A

CELESTE (V.O.)

I'm sorry?

MADELINE (V.O.)

It was a reflex.

(off Celeste)

Okay, I may have grabbed his ass, too.

Madeline grabs Joseph's buttocks.

MADELINE (V.O.)

It all happened so fast.

421B

BACK ON CELESTE ON THE PATIO, LISTENING TO MADELINE, eyes wide open.

421B

MADELINE

The next thing I know, he has his hands in my shirt.

421C

AND WE'RE BACK IN JOSEPH'S OFFICE. MADELINE HAS HER hand in his pants as they keep on kissing madly.

421C

MADELINE (V.O.)

Or was it my hands in his? I don't remember.

She breaks it off. Wants to leave but Joseph grabs her and kisses her again.

421C CONTINUED:

421C

CELESTE (V.O.)
So what you're saying... it was mutual.

She again breaks it off.

MADELINE (V.O.)
No. Not at all, the man jumped me and yelled at me...

JOSEPH
I'm in love with you. You hear me? I'm in love with you, Madeline, and have been for a long time.

Madeline's reaction is spontaneous: she slaps Joseph in the face and flees the room.

421D RESUME ON CELESTE who stares at Madeline, mouth wide open, her jaw on the floor. A beat during which she fights a smile.

421D

MADELINE
It's not funny, Celeste.

Celeste can't help herself, bursts into laughter.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
It is not funny. I'm happily married, and he forced himself on me.

CELESTE
(probing)
But... was it thrilling?

MADELINE
Absolutely not.

Celeste stares, clocking Madeline's denial. Upon which,
Perry enters, arriving home from work. He notices
Celeste's laughing.

PERRY
Hey, what am I missing?

MADELINE
Nothing. I make her laugh all the time, for no reason. She's a good audience. I'm a funny girl.

421D CONTINUED:

421D

Perry senses there's something else in play here.

PERRY

Uh huh.

(then)

How funny was it in court today?

CELESTE

It wasn't court...

Madeline jumps on the opportunity to change the subject, interrupts Celeste who tries to collect herself, but can hardly do it.

MADELINE

She was brilliant, oh my god. You should have seen her, Perry, the woman is amazing. Doesn't know when to stop laughing but... amazing.

PERRY

I kind of already knew that.

CELESTE

It was just a meeting. And it went fine.

PERRY

If my baby makes up her mind to do something, get out of her way.

Perry rubs Celeste's back, caressing her head a little. It makes Celeste slightly rigid. Madeline notices as the Twins arrive on the patio with their skateboards.

*

PERRY (CONT'D)

Here are my little men! What's up boys?

Hugs and kisses between father and sons.

JOSH

I made an "Ollie" today!

421D

PERRY

You didn't?

MAX

I made a "nose slide".

PERRY

Oh my god!

(to Celeste)

Mom, did you film this?

JOSH

I almost got a "kickflip".

MAX

I wanna show you, dad, come on.

PERRY

Why don't you show me after dinner, guys? I want to chill with mommy for a second. And funny Maddie.

The boys protest/plead mightily.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Guys, please!

They take him and pull him away. He doesn't resist, waves goodbye to the girls as if it's the last time he'll see them, and off the father goes with his sons.

MADELINE

He is so great. Why can't somebody like that stick his tongue in my mouth?

(quickly)

I'm sorry, that was a completely inappropriate thing to say.

CELESTE

Madeline. Tell me what really happened.

MADELINE

What do you mean?

CELESTE

Come on. It's me here.

(then)

(MORE)

421D

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Has something been going on between you and Joseph?

MADELINE

No.

CELESTE

Honey. You have to at least wonder why you responded the way you did.

MADELINE

I don't. I'm not an introspective person. Wondering about oneself can only lead to no good.

Celeste shakes her head, fights a smile, senses that Madeline doesn't tell her everything.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Will you... stop it. I'm going to show you something that will wipe that smirk off your face.

Madeline grabs her iphone.

CELESTE

Go ahead, change the subject. You tell me when you're ready.

MADELINE

There is nothing to tell, Jesus.
I am ready...

It's Madeline's turn to shake her head. She works her iphone, goes on the web, fighting a smile. Could Celeste be right?

MADELINE (CONT'D)

... to show you this...

MADELINE SHOWS HER PHONE SCREEN TO CELESTE:

A MAN, MID-THIRTIES, GOOD-LOOKING, WITH A NAME UNDERNEATH THE PHOTO: SAXON BAKER.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Check out the eyes, slightly far apart. Can you see the resemblance?

421D

CELESTE
How'd you find this? When?

MADELINE
I just did, today. Wait, the plot thickens. He was investigated for assault in 2012.

CELESTE
Are you kidding me?

MADELINE
It never went to court, no arrest was made. He probably paid the girl off, the fucker.
(off Celeste)
Should I show this to Jane?

421E AS WE CUT TO A CLOSE-UP OF AN OUT OF FOCUS FACE UNDER WATER, A BROADNOSE SEVEN-GILL SHARK SWIMS BY, AND A SOFT, FEMALE VOICE STARTS TO SING: "What else should I be, all apologies..."

421E

That is Jane's reflection as she looks at sharks in a giant fish tank at the Monterey Bay Aquarium, and as we hear Sinead O'Connor's minimalistic, acoustic version of Nirvana's "All Apologies". Jane is kneeled down next to Ziggy, both impressed by what they see on the other side of the fish tank's giant window.

421F MOTHER AND SON ARE NOW EATING ICE CREAM AT A MONTEREY CREAMERY AS THE MUSIC KEEPS PLAYING.

422 EXT. BEACH - SUNSET

Don't worry, that was a tough one.
You're doing great, buddy.

He knows he isn't. He takes his glove off and goes to sit at their spot where there is some pizza left in a box on a blanket. Looks like they had some picnic.

ZIGGY

Last time we had some ice cream and pizza, and went to the zoo, you told me we were going to move to Monterey.

Jane wonders.

ZIGGY (CONT'D)

What now?

Jane looks at him, shakes her head. Such a clever kid.
Finally--

JANE

You're going to see a child therapist.

423 INT. BONNIE'S HOUSE - SUNSET

423

Bonnie is seated at a table making some sort of jewelry.
Nathan is there.

BONNIE

I think he plans to sign up for a class.

NATHAN

Was he flirting with you?

Bonnie frowns. "No, stupid."

NATHAN (CONT'D)

What did he say?

BONNIE

That it should fall to him and me to keep the peace at this dinner.

(CONTINUED)

423 CONTINUED:

BONNIE

Nathan Carlson.

NATHAN

Well, the man's off, Bonnie. Let's just admit it.

BONNIE

The point of the dinner is so we can all get along, not so you can pop him one.

NATHAN

I'm just saying the guy is off. At some point boundaries will have to be set.

As ABIGAIL enters

ABIGAIL

Hey. I'm headed over to Becky's house. I won't be too late.

BONNIE

Okay.

NATHAN

(to Abigail)
Becky. Is she the stupid one?

ABIGAIL

Dad.

NATHAN

I don't want your mother nagging me, "you're letting her hang around stupid people." She's already upset about the tutor thing.

Bonnie shoots Abigail a look: "Go, I'll handle him." The two clearly have a connection.

ABIGAIL

Later.

NATHAN

What?

She puts her arms around him.

BONNIE

(playful)

You need to calm yourself down.
We don't want anybody getting hurt, do we?

She kisses him. He takes a deep breath.

NATHAN

Maybe we should move. There are other towns besides Monterey.

BONNIE

Move? First, Skye loves it here. A lot. Second, we'll never find a town where the public schools are this good. And third, if we move, what about Abigail? She goes back to her mom? Or comes with us? That would be the last straw for Step-thing.

Nathan thinks about it. A huge smiles grows on his face. Bonnie shakes her head and off she goes.

NATHAN

What? Can a guy fantasize?

424 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - SUNSET

Probably. I leave comments.
Though under an alias.

ED
What's the alias?

MADELINE
God.

Ed smiles.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
So you went to see Bonnie? At her studio.

ED
Wow. No secrets in this town.
(off Madeline)
I was thinking of doing a sit-up, wanted to get her advice.

Madeline shoots him a look. Seriously.

ED (CONT'D)
I went to talk about the dinner.
How best to avoid friction.
(off Madeline) Animosity.
(off Madeline)

Tell me.
(a beat)
Tell me and I'll make you feel good, baby.

Will she?

MADELINE
I think I'm losing control.

ED Of?

MADELINE
Of what I am.

ED
How so?

MADELINE
I don't know.

ED
You don't know?

She shakes her head, holds back a tear. That's all she's able to confess now. And he hugs her. A nice, sincere, beautiful hug... that breaks her heart.

427 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, CELESTE'S CLOSET - MORNING

427

Celeste is half-dressed, getting ready for her day.
Trying on another business outfit, a cream-colored pantsuit. Perry enters, almost ready himself, looking for a tie.

PERRY

Wow.

CELESTE

Not too summery? We're into fall.

PERRY

It looks fantastic. Funny how clothes seem to do that with you.

(then)

What's the occasion?

CELESTE

I have a meeting with the attorney representing the town.

PERRY

Another meeting?

CELESTE

Relax. I'm hoping to settle the thing today.

PERRY

And if it doesn't settle?

CELESTE

Well, then, I guess we'd go to court, but it would be a one-off, they really have no grounds.

PERRY

A court appearance now?

427

CELESTE

I'm hoping not, but what's the big deal?

PERRY

The big deal is you lied to me, you said it would be one meeting yesterday, and then it would be over with, now you're talking about going to court.

PERRY (CONT'D)

CELESTE

I never said that, I said I thought the case would go away quickly, and I still believe

CELESTE (CONT'D)

it will,--

PERRY

I do not want you doing this.

CELESTE

Well, it's not your fucking call--

In a flash, he grabs her throat, pushes her up against the wall.

MAX (O.S.)

Mom?

Hearing Max approach, Perry releases, not a second too soon.

MAX (CONT'D)

(entering; to Celeste)

Are you taking us to school?

Max is fully dressed now, jacket on.

CELESTE

Yeah, sweetie. Let's go. We don't want to be late.

Max runs to Perry who kneels down to get a kiss from his son.

PERRY

'Bye champ. Have a good one.

MAX

'Bye dad.

428A INT. DR. MORIARTY'S OFFICE - WAITING ROOM - DAY 428A

Jane shakes this thought out of her mind as she sits in the waiting room of a doctor's office. Alone by herself.

As a door opens, DR. LYNETTE MORIARTY, thirties, appears with a concerned look on her face. She sits next to Jane. Wonders how to break the news. And finally just nods.

Jane rises and screams her heart out...

... as the door opens again. Dr. Moriarty appears and smiles warmly at Jane.

DR. MORIARTY

C'mon in.

Still seated, mortified by what she just fantasized, Jane collects herself, and walks into--

429 INT. DR. MORIARTY'S OFFICE - DAY 429

Ziggy is there.

DR. MORIARTY

Well, Ziggy and I were having a nice conversation, weren't we, Ziggy?

ZIGGY

(no eye-contact)
Yes.

DR. MORIARTY

He's a smart little guy.

DR. MORIARTY (CONT'D)

Honey, why don't you go into the playroom for a bit while your mom and I talk, okay?

ZIGGY

I should get to school.

JANE

It's okay, baby. We won't be long.

And Ziggy enters into a playroom behind a glass wall, lots of stuffed animals, building blocks. A beat.

JANE (CONT'D)

So?

DR. MORIARTY

Have a seat.

Jane sits. Dr. Moriarty sits.

DR. MORIARTY (CONT'D)

I can see you're nervous, so I'll get right to the punch line. I don't think Ziggy's a bully.

Jane nearly wilts with relief.

DR. MORIARTY (CONT'D)

I brought up the incident you mentioned at the orientation, and he was very clear that it wasn't him. I'd be surprised if he were lying. If so, he's the most accomplished liar I've ever seen.
And frankly, he does not show any of the classic signs of a bullying personality. He's not narcissistic, he most certainly demonstrates empathy and sensitivity.

Tears of relief are flowing from Jane now.

DR. MORIARTY (CONT'D)

You okay?

JANE

Yes. You just have no idea...

(CONTINUED)

429

Dr. Moriarty hands Jane some tissues.

JANE (CONT'D)

Are you sure?

DR. MORIARTY

Pretty sure. I'd definitely like to see him for another appointment. I do think he's suffering from a lot of anxiety. I believe there was a lot that he didn't share with me today. I wouldn't be at all surprised to learn that he himself was being bullied at school.

JANE

Ziggy?

DR. MORIARTY

I could be wrong. But I wouldn't be shocked. My guess is that it's verbal. Perhaps a smart kid has found his weak spot. Also, he brought up his father.

JANE

Oh?

DR. MORIARTY

He's extremely anxious about his dad, who, believe it or not, he thinks might be Darth Vader.

JANE

What?

DR. MORIARTY

Children often get caught halfway between reality and fantasy. He's only six. I asked if you two talk much about his father and he said it upsets you and that you're not saying a lot about him. Is that true?

JANE

Well...

(CONTINUED)

429

DR. MORIARTY

He said "Be aware that if you're talking to my Mom about my Dad, she gets a funny look on her face." I take it Ziggy's father was not exactly a good guy.

JANE

Not exactly.

DR. MORIARTY

And I assume Ziggy's never met him.

JANE

And he never will.

Dr. Moriarty lets that go. A beat.

DR. MORIARTY

Anyway, as I said... I think you've got a caring, sweet little boy on your hands. But I would like to see him again.

431 EXT. FISHERMAN'S WHARF - PARKING LOT - MORNING

431

A CAR DOOR GETS SLAMMED SHUT. Madeline's. She gets out of her SUV as suddenly, out of nowhere, Joseph Bachman approaches her.

JOSEPH

Can I talk to you?

Madeline is startled. She looks around, worried. He doesn't give her the time to answer.

JOSEPH (CONT'D)

First of all, what I did was unacceptable. Inexcusable. That said, it didn't happen in a vacuum.

MADELINE

What do you mean?

(CONTINUED)

431 CONTINUED:

431

JOSEPH

What do I mean? Madeline, come on.

Madeline's body goes rigid.

MADELINE

I most certainly don't know what you're talking about.

JOSEPH

You don't know what I'm talking about?

(then)

You don't remember last year--

MADELINE

(shutting that down)

No, I do not. That was an accident. I told you right after... the accident that... it was a mistake never to be repeated.

JOSEPH

It was repeated several times, and--

MADELINE

No. You stop that. That matter was expunged.

JOSEPH

Expunged?

MADELINE

Yes. It didn't happen. I'm a happily married woman.

Joseph shakes his head. Even smiles. Can't believe how much she's in control.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

You are opening up something that we agreed was never to be opened up again.

JOSEPH

You're taking denial deep into uncharted territory here.

(CONTINUED)

431 CONTINUED: (2)

431

MADELINE

Yeah. I'll stick to my territory and you stick to yours.

And off she goes, but he takes her arm, pulls her back and kisses her. She tries to pull away but he's stronger. She stops resisting, and then stops moving, waiting for Joseph to stop. When he does, she stares at him. See? Nothing. And she walks away, leaving Joseph truly stunned.

432 INT. DR. AMANDA REISMAN'S OFFICE - DAY

432

Celeste sits opposite Dr. Reisman.

CELESTE

I'm just concerned as to how he might react.

DR. REISMAN

To the idea that you want to go back to work?

CELESTE

Yes.

(off Dr. Reisman)

You heard him say how he was afraid that... what were his words, that I "would go through" him. I worry that he'll take this as some sort of rejection.

DR. REISMAN

You were working when he first met you, when he fell in love with you, right?

Celeste nods.

CELESTE

Perry likes me home and in the house. He's not even crazy about me having friends.

(a beat)

I thought you might have some ideas as how best to approach my going back to work.

Dr. Reisman just stares.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

No?

(CONTINUED)

432 CONTINUED:

432

DR. REISMAN

Well, I could certainly suggest some communicative tools. But for me, the issue isn't how best to talk to your husband but why you're afraid to.

CELESTE

I'm not afraid. I just want to communicate it in the best way.

DR. REISMAN

(unconvinced) Okay.

Silence.

CELESTE

I'm not afraid.

Madeline and Celeste exchange a look.

JANE (CONT'D)
Where did you say he lives?

Madeline hesitates before telling Jane. Shares a look with Celeste.

MADELINE
San Luis Obispo.
(a beat)
You're not thinking of going there, right?

Jane doesn't say anything but we know the answer.

MADELINE (CONT'D)
That may not be the best idea.

CELESTE
It would be a terrible idea.

"ONCE BITTEN"

OVER BLACK: A SOFT, LOW BUT EERIE SOUND FADES IN. LIKE THE MUFFLED ROAR OF A FARAWAY OCEAN, BROKEN SOMETIMES BY DISTANT SCREAMS. OF WHALES PERHAPS. STRANGE.

500 EXT. MONTEREY - BIXBY BRIDGE - DAY 500

THAT SPECTACULAR VIEW AGAIN OF THE BRIDGE BY THE COAST AS WE HAVE NEVER SEEN IT BEFORE, COVERED BY A MYSTERIOUS CLOUD OF FOG. THE HEADLIGHTS OF A CAR APPEAR ON THE BRIDGE. AS THEY SLOWLY MOVE TOWARDS US, A SILHOUETTE PASSES BY IN THE FOREGROUND IN A BLINK. ODD.

500A INT. MADELINE'S SUV - BIXBY BRIDGE - DAY 500A

That is what Madeline seems to think as she drives, and frowns.

MADELINE'S POV: THROUGH THE FOG, IN THE DISTANCE, A WOMAN DISAPPEARS UNDERNEATH THE BRIDGE.

Madeline wonders. Spots a Jaguar parked on the side of the road at the end of the bridge. Pulls over.

500B EXT. MONTEREY - BIXBY BRIDGE - DAY 500B

Madeline gets out of her SUV, follows the woman's steps, looks around to try to find her when suddenly TWO FAMILIAR PUPPETS appear behind Madeline, held by SOMEONE we can't see that pushes Madeline and the puppets off the cliff, AS WE'RE STARTLED BY THE SOUND OF A LOUD, CRYING HARMONICA.

MADELINE WAKES UP WITH A START IN HER BED.

AND WE'RE BACK IN HER DREAM AS MADELINE FALLS DOWN THE FATAL STEEP CLIFF WITH THE PUPPETS.

THEIR FALLING POV: RENATA KLEIN IS WATCHING THEM FROM THE CLIFF'S EDGE. WITH A SMILE.

FEMALE HANDS ARE PUTTING A BLACK GUN IN A PURSE.

JANE IS DRIVING, LOST IN THOUGHT.

MALE HANDS ARE CLEANING THE BARREL OF A GUN. A SHINY SILVER ONE.

BONNIE IS DRIVING, LOST IN HER THOUGHTS.

THE COVER OF A ZIPPO IS BEING FLICKED OPEN AND CLOSED.

DETECTIVE QUINLAN IS DRIVING, ONE HAND ON THE WHEEL, THE OTHER ON HER LIGHTER.

MORE NAKED BODY PARTS.

500D

EXT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL - DAY

500D

AS THE MUSIC CONTINUES AND GOES TO A SOLO PIANO BRIDGE, WE SEE CELESTE, MADELINE, JANE, BONNIE AND RENATA, ALL KISSING THEIR KIDS GOODBYE. IT'S FUNNY HOW THEY ALL LOOK SO MUCH THE SAME SUDDENLY. DESPITE HOW DIFFERENT THESE WOMEN ARE, THEY ALL SHARE THIS ONE THING IN COMMON: LOVE FOR THEIR CHILDREN.

THE KIDS WALK INTO THE SCHOOL ENTRANCE AS WE SEE THEM FROM A DISTANCE, THROUGH A CAR WINDOW: RENATA'S. SHE WATCHES AMABELLA INTERACT WITH THE OTHER KIDS, LOOKING FOR A CLUE. WHO COULD BE HURTING HER BABY? AND THEN SHE SPOTS...

MADELINE IS ABOUT TO GET INTO HER CAR. SHE STOPS IN HER TRACKS WHEN SHE MEETS RENATA'S GLANCE.

MADELINE'S POV: RENATA'S JAGUAR IS PARKED ON THE STREET FURTHER AWAY. IT STARTS TO MOVE AND DRIVES AWAY, AS THE MYSTERIOUS, SEXY BEAT OF "THE RAINBOW" KICKS IN AGAIN AND AS WE CUT TO...

A CLOSE-UP OF A SILVER GUN SHOOTING: BANG, BANG, BANG, BANG, BANG. THE MUSIC ENDS.

501 INT. GUN-RANGE - DAY

501

NATHAN is on the shooting range with HIS SILVER GUN. As he re-loads, we hear someone else starting to shoot a gun: BANG! Times five again.

Nathan looks at his neighbor's target: a thin paper blow-up of THE SILHOUETTE OF A MAN. The neighbor is a pretty good shot... three bullet holes on the forehead, one on the bridge of the nose, one on the cheek.

Nathan peeks in, surprised to find a female neighbor, and at a second glance... Jane.

CLOSE ON SAMANTHA

SAMANTHA

I think guns are sexy.

I don't say it in public.

(then)

Especially Glocks.

501A EXT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - MORNING

501A

BANG! This time, it's not a gun but a door that is being shut! MADELINE DEBOARDS HER SUV, heads for the staircase that we know. Again, its entrance is blocked. And again, Madeline doesn't care. She rips the "Do Not Cross" construction ribbon and walks up the stairs as we hear the cast of "AVENUE Q" belting out...

CAST (V.O.)

(singing)

Nothing lasts/ Life goes on/ Full of surprises/ You'll be faced with problems of all shapes and sizes.

501B INT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - CONTINUOUS

501B

Wet Tech rehearsal continues. THE ENTIRE ENSEMBLE IS ON STAGE SINGING "FOR NOW."

CAST

THE SONG CONTINUES as Madeline enters, observes, approaches Joseph. The body language is telling.

MADELINE

Does that mean we're on?

JOSEPH

(without looking at her)
Mayor just gave the okay.

MADELINE

Fantastic! Wow!

She squeezes his arm in a friendly fashion, wants to express her excitement in some way, "high five" or something, but Joseph doesn't move a finger.

JOSEPH

(still not looking at her) Yep.

A beat. An early winter frost. Okay. Madeline gets it and leaves.

502 INT. BLUE BLUES - DAY

502

JANE is sipping a coffee as Madeline arrives.

MADELINE (V.O.)

The shooting range?

Both of them are now seated and in the middle of a conversation.

JANE

He came up to say hello. He was very nice.

MADELINE

Why were you there?

JANE

I try to go once a month. Target practice.

Madeline wonders, hides behind her coffee cup.

JANE (CONT'D)

You seem suspicious.

MADELINE

We're planning this little road trip to meet your rapist, and you're taking target practice...

(ironic)

I'm not suspicious at all.

JANE

(fighting a smile)

I don't plan to shoot the man.

MADELINE

I'm not a big believer in guns to begin with. That's something Nathan and I used to get into, his gun thing. All those mass shootings we have... I don't know.

JANE

It's actually helped me. Owning a gun. They say just holding one in your hand has psychological benefits for emotional trauma.

MADELINE

Really?

JANE

It inhibits mentalization. Helps you block yourself off from emotions.

MADELINE

And that's a good thing?

JANE

If the memories are painful enough, yes.

(off Madeline)

I feel stronger when I hold a gun. More invincible.

GABRIELLE

For all we know, Jane was packing every time she came to school.

503 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, HALL - DAY

503

CELESTE is getting ready to head out the door, and when she does, there stands PERRY. SHE SCREAMS. It's quite a scream.

CELESTE

You like to scare me, don't you?

He thinks it's funny.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

What happened to the tennis game?

PERRY

Changed my mind.

(then)

Where are the kids?

CELESTE

Judo. You knew that.

He has that look. This is the irresistible Perry, the Perry she's addicted to. We can see it in her eyes. So can he. He reaches up, plays with her hair. Tightens his grip, pulling it a little. But this isn't violent. It's foreplay, and Celeste knows the difference.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

So you thought you'd skip golf, come home and "take me."

PERRY

Something like that.

CELESTE

And did it occur to you that I might not stand for it? That I'd object?

Perry gets serious for a second. Wonders if she is.

504 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - LATER

504

And she pushes him hard through the kitchen door.

504

504

Now half-dressed, they're having at it right on the kitchen floor. A pretty combustible cocktail of love, sex, anger... it's both erotic and a bit scary, each trying to exert dominion over the other.

RENATA (O.S.)

It's dirty.

505

INT. RENATA'S HOUSE - AMABELLA'S ROOM - DAY

505

RENATA is there with AMABELLA; Renata is brandishing a clean t-shirt.

AMABELLA

No it isn't.

RENATA

You're not going on a play date in dirty clothing. In this town, I'd be reported to Child Services, wear this one.

AMABELLA

I'll just get this dirty.

RENATA

Leaving somebody's house in a mess is fine.

As Amabella changes her t-shirt--

AMABELLA

Man.

Suddenly, Renata freezes--

RENATA

(shock)

What happened?

AMABELLA

What?

RENATA

To your shoulder?

ANGLE THE BACK OF AMABELLA'S EXPOSED RIGHT SHOULDER: TEETH MARKS.

RENATA (O.S.) (CONT'D)

Oh my god.

(CONTINUED)

505 CONTINUED:

505

Over Renata--

PERRY (O.S.)
There's something kind of sick about this.

506 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - DAY

506

Perry and Celeste, lying on the floor, post-coital, both sweating a bit.

CELESTE Agreed.

PERRY
If not sick... not entirely healthy.

He spots their reflection in the glass door of the oven. The tableau looks more like a crime scene than an after sex one. But there is something nice about it...

PERRY (CONT'D)
The way the sun is hitting your face right now... God shining a light on his greatest piece of art.

CELESTE
(amused)
Pfff... Charmer.

But it seems to work. She smiles. She is charmed... and a bit horrified that he can melt her like this. Is there anything more intoxicating than unconditional adoration?

A beat. As Perry starts to caress her, he spots a bruise on Celeste's body. Then another one. He gets closer to her, holds her tight against him, more like a child than a man.

Celeste holds him back, caresses his hair, more like a mother than a wife. Next to her on the floor, among her clothes, her cell phone vibrates.

506A INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - KITCHEN - DAY

506A

Madeline is on her cell, unloading grocery bags, shelving the goods, distractedly watching her laptop opened on the counter, as she waits for Celeste to pick up, but she receives a text message instead: "I'll call you back".

MADELINE

(to herself)

Why?

You're... in the middle... of a

Madeline smiles, thinks she's funny, as she continues to shelve the goods until she gets another message. She drops her smile. Looks at her phone again: "On the kitchen floor".

Madeline wonders. Then--

506A

MADELINE (CONT'D)
(to herself)
Yeah, right.

She puts the phone down when she sees Ed arriving from the staircase, finishing buttoning up his fly. He goes straight to his computer station in the living room, back to work.

Madeline stares at him for a moment. Wonders.

Ed feels her stare.

ED
Don't go to the bathroom downstairs, honey. Jesus, did I just unload myself.

Madeline shakes her head. Closes her eyes.

507 INT. RENATA'S HOUSE - AMABELLA'S ROOM - DAY

507

And so does Renata who's trying to calm herself down as she watches her husband, GORDON, trying to get an explanation from Amabella, who's gone a bit rigid.

GORDON
Sweetheart, you have to tell us.

AMABELLA
We were all just playing.

GORDON
Who all?

AMABELLA
I don't remember. A bunch. At recess.

A beat.

GORDON
Honey. I'm getting upset about two things here. First. Somebody is hurting you.

RENATA
And human bites are very dangerous--

GORDON
(let me finish)
Renata, please.

507

CONTINUED:

507

His tone is one of forced calm, but his alarm is clear, both to Renata and Amabella.

GORDON (CONT'D)

(to Amabella)

And second. You're being dishonest. And you're are not a dishonest person. In fact, you're one of the most truthful people I know.

Amabella is starting to well up some.

GORDON (CONT'D)

If you just share with us--

RENATA

Was it that Ziggy?

AMABELLA

I don't know!

RENATA

Of course you know!!

GORDON

(to Renata)

Alright--

RENATA

Nothing is alright, she's being bullied! Somebody bit her, for god's sake!

(to Amabella)

You see how upset I'm getting?! Your not telling us the truth is making me upset!!

A beat. The child is shut down.

GORDON

(another tack)

Amabella. Whoever's hurting you... he or she may also be harming somebody else. You'd want to stop that, wouldn't you? You wouldn't want innocent people getting hurt. You're too kind for that, right?

(nothing)

Right?

Nothing.

508 EXT. RENATA'S HOUSE, BACKYARD - DAY - LATER 508

Renata and Gordon, both fraught.

GORDON

A lawyer isn't the answer. Maybe we should just take her out, put her in a private school--

RENATA

Why should she be the one to go, it should be that little felon.

GORDON

Renata--

RENATA

If you tell me to calm down, I swear--

GORDON

Can you take a breath?!

RENATA

Why aren't you more upset?

GORDON

I am very upset.

RENATA

Well, I don't see it, Gordon!

GORDON

Do not make this a referendum on my anger, alright? That somebody has been hurting her, for who knows how long, that we haven't known about it, or that we can't stop it, or that she won't even talk to us, do not pull out your fucking scorecard to total up who's got the most anger.

RENATA

The problem is yours is for me, when it should be directed at whoever is mutilating our daughter!

GORDON

(about to explode)
You listen to me--

508

CONTINUED:

508

RENATA

No, I will not, I listened to you the last time! There's something wrong with Amabella! But you didn't want to hear about that. I wanted to take her to a psychiatrist but you thought no, better to whisk me into your office bathroom -- where you could fuck me on top of the sink!

GORDON

Stop screaming at me!! Goddamn you!

It's gone too far for both of them now. A beat. They're both quaking with rage, fear... and both are struggling; Renata sees as much and gathers herself.

RENATA

(quietly)

Whether it's talking to a lawyer, a child psychiatrist, the teacher, all of the above... we've got to do something. My god, that's the essence of parenting, keeping your child safe. We're not doing that, Gordon.

CLOSE ON HARPER

HARPER

Renata blamed herself. The hours she worked... my question was: where was the nanny?

She waits for an answer that doesn't come.

HARPER (CONT'D)

Where was she?

ED (V.O.)

Yeah!

508A

INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - KITCHEN - DAY

508A

Madeline and Ed are about to do it right there in the kitchen, among the grocery bags, as they're getting undressed. They don't have Celeste and Perry's swagg, but they are going for it.

508A CONTINUED:

You sure you don't want to go on the couch, or in the bed?

MADELINE

You complained we hardly had sex.
Just shut up and fuck me, Ed.

As he's about to try to, we hear the front door opening.

CHLOE (O.S.)

It's me.

Fuck. Madeline and Ed dress up in a flash and start unloading what's left of grocery bags to unload, as Chloe arrives in the kitchen, aims for the fridge.

MADELINE

What's up, baby?

CHLOE

(her head in the fridge)
I'm hungry.

ED

Don't they have food at your friend's place?

Chloe shoots her dad a look. Madeline fights a laugh.

CHLOE

Today's grocery day. So before the human crusher eats everything, I wanted to--

Chloe stops herself in her tracks. Looks at her mother.
Madeline's mood just changed. Chloe seemed to have forgotten that the human crusher doesn't live with them anymore.

CHLOE (CONT'D)

Sorry, mom.

MADELINE

It's alright. I didn't forget.
See?

(showing the grocery bags)
I bought less of her crap. More of yours.

(to Chloe)

I'll make you my special BLT, give me fifteen. Now get out of here.

CHLOE

Deal, my man.

(as she exits)

Now you can go back to do whatever you were doing and pretending not to.

Chloe disappears into her room. The parents share a look and a smile. This little one. Ed goes to Madeline, embraces her from behind.

ED

We got ten. Takes me five to make a BLT. Downstairs bathroom?

Ed takes Madeline's hand and slides it down to his crotch as he kisses her neck. He turns her, waits for an eye contact, or for some response but the sound of a "Facebook alert" attracts Madeline's attention. She turns to look at the computer on the counter.

509 INT. BONNIE'S HOUSE - LIVING ROOM - DAY

509

Nathan is ON THE PHONE AS HE'S WATCHING FOOTBALL ON TELEVISION ALONG WITH BONNIE.

NATHAN

I don't know what you're talking about.

MADELINE (O.S.)

(from the phone)

Some secret project. One of her friends makes reference to it on her Facebook page. Listen to this: is this the shot you're going to use, on your secret project? Is it sexy/slutty enough?" What kind of project is this?

NATHAN

Well, if it's a secret, that's probably why I don't know about it.

(he shoots an eye-roll to Bonnie)

Also why are you on Abby's Facebook page, and how, did she friend you?

assume the obligation to parent, which I thought you were already pretending to do.

NATHAN SIMPLY HANGS UP. Bonnie bursts out laughing.

509A INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - KITCHEN - DAY

509A

Madeline is on her cell, laptop in front of her, as Ed is prepping his special BLT.

MADELINE
Hello? Nathan? He hung up on me.
That fuck.

CHLOE (O.S.)
(from her room)
Watch your mouth, woman!

MADELINE
(yelling back)
Why don't you have your loud music on when it's time, young lady?!

ED
Should you really be snooping around on her Facebook page?

MADELINE
I am her mother!
(lowering her voice)
It's my fucking duty to spy on her.

He stares at her.

ED
Is everything okay?

No answer. She starts unloading the grocery bags again.

ED (CONT'D)
For the last few days, I don't know where your head has been.
Something happened, right? What are you not telling me?

They stare at each other. A busted look in her eyes.

MADELINE

I may have... put something... stupid into motion.

Ed sits.

ED

Okay.

She stares. Dare she tell?

MADELINE

I told you about Jane's past, how she was sexually assaulted. I think I tracked down the assaulter.
He's an interior decorator in San Luis Obispo.

ED

And?

MADELINE

Jane is determined to confront him.
So Celeste made an appointment with the guy for Wednesday, ostensibly to hire him -- that may have been my idea -- and we're headed down there to see.

What?

ED

No, you're not. Just call the police--

MADELINE

We don't know for sure that it's him.

ED

But suppose it is? The man is dangerous--

MADELINE

There will be three of us, in a crowded office place.

ED

Are you out of your mind?

509A

MADELINE

We're not going to take any chances, I promise. It'll be a public area, three of us--

ED

Absolutely not.

(then)

You're telling me Perry Wright is letting Celeste go on this mission--

MADELINE

Perry doesn't know, Jane's sworn us to secrecy. She wanted to go by herself, but...

ED

It's a bad idea.

MADELINE

She needs closure, Ed. I don't think I can stop her at this point and I'm certainly not about to let her go alone.

ED SHAKES HIS HEAD INDEFINITELY AS A SNARE AND A BASE DRUM START TO PLAY A ROCK BEAT IN PERFECT SYNC WITH ED'S HEAD SHAKE, AND AS WE...

WE'RE AT THE TOP OF A HIGH STEEP CLIFF LOOKING DOWN AT A BEACH AND THE OCEAN. AS THE MUSIC CONTINUES, WE HEAR A VOICE...

MS. BARNES (O.S.)

Hi, Emily Barnes, here. Sorry to disturb you.

That is Jane's POV as she stands at the edge of the cliff, breathless, in her running outfit, her cell phone in her hand, earbuds on. We know her routine.

JANE

What's going on?

MS. BARNES

We have a problem.

Intensity on her face, which is becoming familiar now, taking long bursts of breath as she listens, and then hangs up.

A beat during which she stares at the ocean and suddenly bursts into a rage, throwing her cell phone in the air with all her strength, yelling her heart out.

JANE

FUCKKKKKK!!

And the music explodes: "Hands Around My Throat" by Death In Vegas.

510 EXT. BEACH - DAY

510

As the music keeps on playing, Jane picks up her phone in the sand, blows on it a few times, and starts running on the beach, steely-eyed.

Soon, she's met by Madeline, also in her running outfit. And then by Celeste, same. Not a word is exchanged. Not a look. As if they have done this before. The three women run side by side, in sync, faster and faster. The rhythm of the music, its rock n roll vibe, it seems like we're in a music video with three "badass" chicks.

CELESTE (V.O.)

So... does Emily Barnes now suspect that Ziggy is the one who bit Amabella?

JANE (V.O.)

I don't think so. But now that the Kleins have come forward, she felt obliged to share her prior suspicions with the principal. I'm meeting with him tomorrow.

510A EXT. FISHERMAN'S WHARF - BOARDWALK - DAY

510A

The badass girls arrive on the boardwalk, totally out of breath, sweating like crazy. They stop to catch their breath as they lean on a ramp, and look at the marina in front of them.

MADELINE (V.O.)

Celeste, you may have to be a lawyer again.

Jane slams the ramp as we hear her burst into a rage again.

JANE (V.O.)
FUCKKKKKK!!

511 INT. BLUE BLUES - DAY

511

The patrons all turn towards Jane, seated at a table, drinking coffee with Madeline and Celeste, still in their running outfits.

Behind the bar, Tom looks at Jane, wonders.

JANE
(to Tom and the patrons)
Sorry.
(to Celeste and Madeline)
It's never fucking over in this fucking town which I wish to god I never came to now.

CELESTE
Maybe,... this isn't the best week to go to San Luis Obispo.

JANE (steely resolve)
We're going. I'm fine.

A beat.

MADELINE
Ed insists on joining.

JANE
What?

MADELINE
I'm sorry I told him, but... he knew I was keeping something from him.

Her eyes dart to Celeste's, then back to Jane, who feels betrayed.

REVEAL JOSEPH BACHMAN

JOSEPH (CONT'D)
(to Madeline)
May I talk to you, please?

MADELINE (discomfort)
It's not a good time, Joseph, I'm sorry, I'm in the middle of something.

But Joseph does not budge. He looks at Celeste, Jane, and back to Madeline.

JOSEPH
You're in the middle of something?

Uh oh. Madeline suddenly gets the feeling he might spill his guts right in the cafe. She rises.

MADELINE
(to Jane and Celeste)
Excuse me.

512

EXT. BLUE BLUES - DAY - SECONDS LATER

512

Joseph and Madeline emerge.

JOSEPH
We need to talk.

MADELINE

He looks at her: "Really?"

MADELINE (CONT'D)

MADELINE

Madeline considers.

513 INT. JOSEPH'S CAR - DAY - MOMENTS LATER

513

Joseph and Madeline sit parked on a quiet street, not far from Blue Blues judging by the surroundings. We can still see the marina in the background.

JOSEPH
It's not about us having a future together. You made yourself clear.

MADELINE (abrupt)
What is it about then?

JOSEPH
(doesn't like her tone)
I'm sorry to be such an annoyance.

MADELINE (snappish)
Well, this is annoying, Joseph, so just say what you have to say,
please.

JOSEPH
It's about me getting clarity. Me understanding what was real. Or not.

Madeline looks out the window.

why not cling to that as what's real, can you drive me back now?

JOSEPH

(with some disbelief)

That you're this uncomfortable with the conversation says something--

MADELINE

Of course I'm uncomfortable, I cheated on my husband.

JOSEPH

Why did you come back?

(off her look)

Why get involved with the theater again, doing 'Avenue Q'--

MADELINE

Because you and I were over. Dead and buried, I thought.

JOSEPH

I don't believe you. You returned because you sensed it wasn't over.
Because you wanted more.

(a beat)

You're not done loving me. And you're not done desiring me.

She looks out the window.

JOSEPH (CONT'D)

You can't look at me because you know it's true.

MADELINE

Can you drive me back, please?

at the theater, the other day--

Then, suddenly... WHAM. JOSEPH'S BLINDSIDED BY A PICKUP

MADELINE, FIGHTING SHOCK, SURVEYS ALL OF THE CHAOS. SHE'S TRYING TO PROCESS SO MUCH... SHE PROCESSES NOTHING. THE PARAMEDICS, THE FIREMEN, THE OFFICERS, ALL TALKING TO HER, BUT WE CAN'T HEAR THEM. TO MADELINE, IT'S ALL WHITE NOISE. AND IT'S ALL BECOMING BLURRY, AS CELESTE AND JANE RUN TO HER. SHE CLOSES HER EYES.

CELESTE

Teenage boy, they think he was texting. Listen, I'm sitting down with Perry and the boys for dinner. Madeline's at home, give her a call, I'm sure she'd love to hear from you.

JANE

Okay. Thanks, bye-bye.

As Jane clicks off, her SAFARI SEARCH IMAGES POP BACK UP ON HER COMPUTER.

ZIGGY

Was she wearing her seatbelt?

JANE

I'm sure she was. It would be extra dangerous if not.

ZIGGY

Who's that?

JANE

Who's what?

Jane sees that Ziggy is pointing at her computer on which we can see MANY PICTURES OF SAXON BAKER.

PERRY (CONT'D)

CELESTE
Perry! They're not done eating!
Please!

Oops. Perry stops immediately, sits.

PERRY
Sorry, baby.

Get back, boys.

When they do, they have their NERF MISSILE GUNS aimed at their father. Perry calmly looks at them, and with one hand underneath the table, points a finger towards Celeste, and winks at his sons, without his wife's knowledge. The twins smile and go for it. Dozens of missiles hit poor Celeste who jumps out of her chair.

CELESTE
No!!!!

This is the zillionth time he's checked.

MADELINE

I love you for worrying. But you really don't need to... every five minutes.

A look between them. She then gives him a little kiss.

ED

Why were you in his car, anyway?

MADELINE

(simply)

I was at Blue Blues with Jane and Celeste, he came in all rattled about a bunch of stuff going south with the play. Ticket sales, prop deliveries, one of the actors came down with strep throat, we're just over a week away from opening night. Anyway, we decided to ride together to the theater so we could knock a lot of stuff off on the drive. Then, wham.

Whether Ed believes it or not... hard to tell.

ED

Well. Could have been worse. Everybody lived to tell about it.

He kisses her forehead, then exits. Madeline wonders "will she ever tell about it?" She's relieved that he seemingly doesn't suspect anything... but she's also a bit horrified that she just lied to him with such facility. THAT BEGETS ANOTHER GLANCE AT HER REFLECTION IN THE MIRROR... PERRY

You should have made them pick them up.

CELESTE SITS ON THE COUCH, DISTRACTEDLY FOLDING LAUNDRY, AS SHE READS SOME LEGAL DOCUMENTS ON HER LAPTOP OPEN IN FRONT OF HER ON THE COFFEE TABLE.

CELESTE

It's just easier to do it myself after they're asleep rather than do battle with them. I just didn't have the patience to go through it last night.

PERRY

You're turning them into spoiled brats.

CELESTE

No, I'm not. They're six, remember?

PERRY

I don't want to live in a pigsty.

Perry kicks at some LEGOS on the floor to hide them under the couch.

CELESTE

So pick them up yourself.

Perry freezes and looks at her. Uh oh.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

I'll do it later, no big deal.

Perry gets down on his knees and carefully picks up every piece of Lego and missiles from the floor and puts them in a big toy box, as Celeste keeps folding, watching him, wondering if she should worry or smile.

NIPPAL
Unfortunately Amabella won't say who's involved. However, her mother is convinced that Ziggy is responsible.

Jane gulps.

NIPPAL (CONT'D)
But I'm not. Nor is Mrs. Barnes. Look, if it weren't for the incident on orientation day, I wouldn't have called you in until we had anything more definitive.

Jane nods. Waits.

NIPPAL (CONT'D)
Is there anything out of the ordinary in Ziggy's past, his home life, his background, that you think we should know, that might be relevant? I understand that Ziggy's father is not involved with his upbringing, is that right?

A long beat. Jane just stares. Then--

JANE
Well, is this relevant? All I know about Ziggy's father is that he was keen on erotic asphyxiation and raping women.

Jane sighs, shakes her head. She seems to have a hard time with the word... and the memory of it.

JANE (CONT'D)

Every time I'm asked about Ziggy's father, I'm always scared I'll be exposed. I thought the Kleins were about to spot me right there.

All right, well perhaps then, we could have a constructive chat. Can I offer anyone tea, coffee, water?

RENATA

I don't want refreshments. I'll tell you what I want. I want her child to stay the hell away from my daughter.

Jane stares Renata down. And then it happens. It looks like the tough woman is about to break down. Renata is fighting tears so hard, Jane is startled to suddenly be feeling compassion for her. Offers a tissue.

524B INT. BLUE BLUES CAFE - DAY

MADELINE

God. How ridiculous.

JANE

Maybe not.
(then, almost guilty)
What if... Renata's right?

Madeline shoots Jane a look: are you kidding me?

MADELINE

That bitch cannot be right, I'm sorry.

JANE

If I'd done everything properly, Ziggy wouldn't be marked with this genetic stain. He wouldn't be behaving this way.

MADELINE

He's not. What are you talking about?

JANE

I remember the first time I saw him, he didn't just cry like babies are supposed to do. His whole body was screaming, it was like he was upset to be born. I just looked at him and said, "I'm so sorry, little baby, I'm sorry for putting you through this."

Madeline is about to get emotional again.

JANE (CONT'D)

I was hoping the love for this cute, funny-looking, red-faced creature... would wash away the dirty memory...

Jane shakes her head, breathes in. A long deep breath. It doesn't look like it did.

524C INT. CELESTE'S CAR - MONTEREY STREET - DAY 524C

Celeste parks her car, turns off the engine, looks at herself in the mirror, takes her purse, and applies some make-up on her face, her neck, her hand, until WE HEAR her cell phone ring.

ANGLE ON THE PHONE: MADELINE is calling.

Celeste doesn't pick up and gets out of her car.

525 EXT. CYPRESS HOSPITAL - PARKING LOT - DAY 525

Madeline is on her cell as she deboards her car, heads for the hospital.

MADELINE
Hey, call me back when you can. We have to stop Jane from going on this trip, steal her car or something...

526 INT. CYPRESS HOSPITAL - CORRIDOR - DAY 526

Madeline heads down the hospital corridor...

MADELINE (V.O.)
I thought she needed closure, now
I'm thinking she wants revenge.

... unaware of Tori's presence, Joseph's wife, at the nurse station near by. She spots Madeline who enters into--

527 INT. CYPRESS HOSPITAL - JOSEPH'S ROOM - CONTINUOUS 527

Joseph lies there, bandaged head. Awake.

MADELINE
Hey.

A beat. What to possibly say? Finally--

JOSEPH
I'm okay. They plan to release me on Wednesday.

MADELINE
That's good. Thank god.

JOSEPH

Are you okay?

MADELINE

Not even a scratch. Lucky.

Awkward silence.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

I'm sorry. I feel that... maybe you were driving a little fast, a little less aware, because of--

JOSEPH

I'm here because some kid ran a stop sign.

More silence.

MADELINE

If I can help you get some clarity... did I have feelings?

It seems hard to admit. But she does. With a nod.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Do I still? Maybe. Like you said, I kissed you back. But what I'm feeling most right now is fear. Paralyzing fear that what happened between us last year might get out. And ruin my family. That it might destroy a love that goes to my core. My love for Ed.

Joseph stares back.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Was it just sex between you and me, no. And when you kissed me the other day, you brought back... I don't deny it. But whatever I felt, it doesn't come close to being a fraction of what I feel, what I will always feel for my husband.

Joseph just got more clarity than he was perhaps looking for. A beat during which he nods.

JOSEPH

I think I'm going to ask you to beg out of the play.

MADELINE

You should.

Silence. Awkward. Tori then enters.

TORI

TORI

Oh, yes. I think we're all doing better. How are you feeling?

MADELINE

(a little too cheery)

Honestly, I usually have some lower back pain, which I don't have at all, I think the accident actually spared me a trip to the chiropractor.

A joke, kind of. A nervous joke. A beat.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

(to Joseph)

Well, anyway, I just came by to say hi and make sure you're doing okay. I'm going to head out now.

JOSEPH

Okay. Thanks.

MADELINE

Good to see you, Tori.

TORI

You too.

Madeline then looks to Joseph.

MADELINE

(weakly)

Bye.

JOSEPH

Bye.

They both know that's "the goodbye." A beat. And without more, Madeline exits. We hold on Joseph for a moment. Then, OFF Tori, sensing...

528

INT. CYPRESS HOSPITAL - CORRIDOR - CONTINUOUS

528

Madeline walks toward the exit... faster... and faster... until she gets through the door where she starts running... leaving Joseph Bachman behind.

529 INT. DR. AMANDA REISMAN'S OFFICE - DAY

529

Dr. Reisman is seated in her chair, waiting for Celeste to speak, a smile on her face, almost like inviting her to speak.

CELESTE

He's in Chicago. Coming back tonight. So I decided to come by myself.

DR. REISMAN

Okay.

CELESTE

It was Perry's idea to come in, actually. Which I take as a very healthy sign.

We can read the doctor's suspicion, as can Celeste.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

(trying a little too hard)
Don't you think that's positive, that he would want to come in?

DR. REISMAN

(neutral)
Why did Perry want to come in?

CELESTE

Well, same, you know, he's troubled... we both are, that our lovemaking often seems to be bound up in some anger.

Silence.

DR. REISMAN

Why did you want to come in today?

Celeste takes a deep breath.

A FLASH OF PERRY UP-ENDING THE ENTIRE BOX OF LEGOS OVER CELESTE'S HEAD. THE SHOCK AND HUMILIATION MAKES HER GASP.

CELESTE

I don't know.

DR. REISMAN

Something happened?

A beat. Celeste shakes her head. No.

529

CONTINUED:

529

A FLASH OF CELESTE GRABBING A HANDFUL OF LEGOS FROM HER LAP AND THROWING THEM AT PERRY'S FACE.

CELESTE
The usual, you know. Before he left this morning...

A FLASH OF PERRY SLAPPING CELESTE IN THE FACE.

CELESTE (CONT'D)
... we made love.

A beat during which Celeste smiles uncomfortably.

A FLASH OF PERRY TAKING CELESTE FROM BEHIND, HOLDING HER HANDS BEHIND HER BACK, AS HE'S PENETRATING HER VIOLENTLY.

CELESTE (CONT'D)
It's as if the passion is fueled, or at least enhanced, by rage. And that might be a problem.
(then)
Is it?

DR. REISMAN
Well, I'm encouraged that you at least think of it as lovemaking.
Because sex isn't always that.

Silence. Celeste's discomfort is evident.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)
Does the sex you have with Perry ever strike you as violent?

A FLASH OF PERRY AND CELESTE TENDERLY KISSING EACH OTHER AFTER SEX.

CELESTE
No.

Silence. She's withholding. The Doctor knows it. And Celeste knows that the Doctor knows it.

DR. REISMAN
Are you ever left with bruises?

529

CONTINUED: (2)

529

A beat.

A FLASH OF CELESTE IN HER BATHROOM, APPLYING MAKEUP ON THE OBVIOUS BRUISES SHE HAS ON HER FACE, HER NECK, HER HAND...

CELESTE

Maybe... one or two... I can't remember.

She's a good liar. The doctor measures that. Then--

DR. REISMAN

Have you ever sustained bruises from something other than sex?

This doctor knows. She knows.

CELESTE

(deflecting)

I don't follow.

The doctor lets Celeste squirm for a beat with the hollowness of her response. Then--

DR. REISMAN

Your husband said he grabbed you too hard sometimes. Has he ever left a mark on you by grabbing you?

CELESTE

We have a very volatile relationship.

Silence.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

I've left the occasional mark on him, too.

DR. REISMAN

By hitting him?

CELESTE

Yes.

DR. REISMAN

Hitting him first, or hitting him back?

This doctor surely knows. And she's got Celeste right in the cross-hairs now. There's nowhere to run.

(CONTINUED)

CELESTE

This feels uncomfortable. And a little unethical, truth be told.

DR. REISMAN

How so?

CELESTE

Well, you're treating us as a couple.

DR. REISMAN

And only you showed up, so I'm treating half the couple.

CELESTE

From what I know about your duty of care, you have an ethical--

DR. REISMAN

I throw off the ethical chains when I sense a patient in danger.

CELESTE

What?

Silence. The doctor uses silence as a weapon, and it's effective. She fixes a long stare at Celeste, knowing full well (even if Celeste doesn't) that Celeste is here to talk. Part of Celeste wants to flee the room, but something tells her not to. Finally--

DR. REISMAN

He hurts you.

CELESTE

I didn't say that.

DR. REISMAN

I pick up on things, not just from you, but from Perry.

CELESTE

We both become violent sometimes. I take my share of the blame.

DR. REISMAN

He hurts you.

I throw things at him.

Silence.

DR. REISMAN

What are you looking for from me,
Celeste?

CELESTE

(an admission)

Help.

(then; back to denial)

The relationship gets toxic, we both acknowledge that. That's why we made the appointment to come back in. To learn techniques, to get strategies to make...

DR. REISMAN him stop.

CELESTE

Us stop.

Silence.

DR. REISMAN

Are you physically afraid of him?

CELESTE

This feels very wrong; you're our doctor, you're treating us, and you seem to be demonizing him.

Silence.

DR. REISMAN

Does he know you're here alone?

OFF Celeste,

530 INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE, KITCHEN - DAY

INTERCUT WITH JANE, DRIVING

JANE

How you doing? Still no headaches or anything?

MADELINE

I'm fine. You are so sweet to worry.

JANE

Well, I do worry. In fact... I'm sitting here thinking how good to me you've been since I moved here, I honestly don't know what I'd do without you. I mean it.

MADELINE

(touched) Thank you.

JANE

I read a quote once by Ralph Waldo Emerson. Something like "friendship is the masterpiece of nature." You're my masterpiece. One of the best persons I have ever met.

Madeline nearly dissolves on the spot. There are times when there is nothing more needed than a kind word. This would be one of those times.

MADELINE

(fights a spec of emotions)
If you only knew how much...

She cannot even finish the sentence. Fuck, so much emotion under the surface...

MADELINE (CONT'D)

And I'm not even having my period.

JANE

Also, could I ask a favor? Could you grab Ziggy at pick-up? I've got so much work, I need a few hours of quality time to catch up. I would pick him up around seven.

MADELINE
Of course. No problem.

JANE
I'm calling the school, so they're

MADELINE
Ziggy's mine, babe. But take a compass, would you?

JANE
Ha. No worries. I'm good.

MADELINE
Have fun.

JANE
I will.

And as JANE CLICKS OFF; WE STAY WITH HER. She puts some music on: "Rippin Kittin" from Miss Kittin and Golden Boy.
She lights up a joint. Takes a long hit. Cranks the volume up...

HER POV

SHE'S DRIVING ON THE 101 FREEWAY... THE ROAD SIGN AHEAD READS "SAN LUIS OBISPO: 26 MILES."

RESUME

Jane, steely-eyed. She's doing this alone. OFF her:

She stops herself.

DR. REISMAN

The reason what?

Nothing.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)

The reason you don't leave him?

CELESTE

There are other reasons.

DR. REISMAN

Such as...

CELESTE

I'm madly in love with him. He adores me, he treats me like a goddess.

DR. REISMAN

When he's not hurting you.

A beat.

CELESTE

He's a great father. We still make each other laugh. The violence is certainly an issue, but marriage is complicated.

DR. REISMAN

Meaning you think violence is normal in a relationship.

CELESTE

No!

DR. REISMAN

My apologies. I misread.

But this doctor doesn't misread. Celeste knows it, and the doctor knows that Celeste knows.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)

When this violence occurs, have you ever been afraid you might die?

CELESTE

What? Absolutely not.

DR. REISMAN

Never?

Celeste shakes her head. Never. But her mind goes to one event:

A FLASH OF CELESTE'S FACE BEING PUSHED INTO A SOFA. SHE CAN'T GET AIR. SHE'S PANICKING.

And the doctor sees it on Celeste's face. And Celeste sees on the doctor's face... she spotted the tell. Then--

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)

That must have been terrifying.

Admission by silence.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)

Did you think of leaving him then?

CELESTE

I've thought of leaving him many times, but then... When I think about all we have...

DR. REISMAN

Are there any weapons in your house?

CELESTE

What? God no, unless you count the boys' light sabers.

That gets a slight smile from the doctor.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Couples comes to you with problems.
After awhile, that may be all you see. Do you ever pause to consider what's good in a marriage, what's so profoundly right?

DR. REISMAN

I do. Tell me, what's most profoundly right about yours?

CELESTE

Well, first, we love each other. Second... we have been through so much. Four miscarriages. A high-risk pregnancy, the twins were born at 32 weeks, two months in the hospital, and Perry never wavered. He was right there with me, every step.

DR. REISMAN

I see.

CELESTE

I don't think you do. We're bound together by these experiences. And our love for each other, our sons. Breaking away from him would be like tearing flesh.

DR. REISMAN

"Breaking away from him" is an interesting way to put it.

Silence.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)

How do you think the abuse impacts on your sons?

CELESTE

It doesn't impact on them in any way. They have no idea. They live in a happy household, I see to that. We never fight in front of them, never.

Celeste is starting to feel claustrophobic. Like the walls are closing in. The doctor nods. Waits. Then--

DR. REISMAN

(matter-of-fact)

He will hit you again.

Not a judgment. Just a fact.

CELESTE

Yes. He will. And I'll hit him.

DR. REISMAN

And eventually, the children will know. If they already don't.

Madeline is there with JANE. And the ocean.

MADELINE

I never should have Googled the guy, or stirred you up. This is my problem in life, I can never let dead dogs lie.

JANE

The problem is he's not dead. He's still out there. For all we know, still assaulting women.

Madeline is getting concerned now.

Hesitation.

JANE

(coldly)

I would have given him a piece of my mind.

Madeline measures Jane. This is a little disconcerting.

JANE (CONT'D)

Did you find any others?

MADELINE

I beg your pardon?

JANE

When you did your internet search. Did you find any other Saxons that fit the profile?

MADELINE

Honey, I'm getting a little worried.

JANE

Were there any others?

MADELINE

Listen. You moved to Monterey to start over. To build a future. I really suggest you focus on that. And not the past.

Jane stares at Madeline, doesn't seem to agree.

CELESTE STANDS THERE, staring at the ocean, a glass of wine in hand. She turns to look at Perry who joins her.

CELESTE

What?

PERRY

I need to leave again tomorrow, in the morning. This time Phoenix. I'm back Thursday.

CELESTE

You'll miss the play. Opening night.

PERRY

I can see it when I get back.

CELESTE

But it's opening night, there's a whole big thing. Madeline's going to be so disappointed.

PERRY

I don't want you going to the premiere either.

CELESTE

Excuse me?

A beat. He approaches.

PERRY

Come to Phoenix with me.

CELESTE

He stares.

PERRY

My intent was to be romantic.

JOSH (O.S.)

BONNIE is TENDING TO HER HERB GARDEN. NATHAN is there, bridling. Bonnie is steadfastly unflappable.

NATHAN

I don't want to.

BONNIE

(even keel)

Madeline would take it as a slight if we just cancel.

NATHAN

Why is everything about Madeline? I am sick of Madeline. One of the perks of leaving her was not having to sit down with her ever again at a fucking dinner table.

BONNIE

NATHAN

You know what, Bonnie? When you see me chewing on the insides of my cheeks like this, not a good time to go Dr. Phil on me. It isn't normal for divorced people to be friendly. To have dinner. To be civil. It's okay for things to be ugly sometimes, y'know, it's called life.

BONNIE

Got it, life can be ugly, I'll make a note of it.

ABIGAIL (O.S.)

Hey.

REVEAL ABIGAIL, approaching.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

What'cha doing?

BONNIE

Oh, just puttering in the garden, honey. Trying to make things grow and evolve.

That was meant for Nathan, which he well knows.

NATHAN

(to Abigail)

What have you been doing locked behind closed doors all day? This secret project of yours?

ABIGAIL

It won't be secret for long, my official unveiling is Wednesday.

BONNIE

You've been working pretty hard on it.

ABIGAIL

Well, college admissions look for passion projects now, it's not just about GPA's and being captain of volleyball.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

And off Abigail goes. Nathan stands there, poleaxed. He knows that it's more than "kind of cool" for his daughter. The wound never heals for the kids of divorce.

Celeste turns and freezes when she sees Perry who's now in the bathroom. Did he hear?

MADELINE

I've offended you. I can hear it in your voice. You can tell me to go fuck myself.

CELESTE

I'm not going to tell you that.

Perry walks to Celeste and begins to fiddle with her; nibbles her ear.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

I don't think she's a dangerous person.

Perry drops out of view, as he goes to his knees.

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Can I call you back?

MADELINE

Oh my god, is Perry there? Are you two in the middle of--

CELESTE

I'll call you back.

She hangs up. A beat during which she looks at Perry, lets him fiddle with her. As he kisses her belly, and goes lower...

Celeste wonders which Perry is she dealing with, here? He looks at her, smiles... and goes down on her.

Nippal's office. Jane's head fills with rage, she beelines right for them, gets right in Renata's face.

JANE

Are you behind this petition?

RENATA

Please excuse me.

As Renata moves to step by her, Jane blocks her path,

JANE

I asked you a fucking question.

GORDON

Hey, come on.

RENATA

bulldozed out of Monterey.

As TOM delivers coffee--

TOM

For what it's worth, neither will

JANE

(appreciative)

Thank you.

Jane lowers her head; Tom looks to Madeline: "is she okay?" Madeline signals back: "I got it." And Tom heads off.

MADELINE

A lot of parents are probably applauding you. You're not the only person who's wanted to deck Renata Klein, just the first who had the actual guts to do so. This is a good thing. It's high time people get the idea that Jane Chapman is not a woman to be fucked

JANE

I did have my gun.

Madeline wonders.

JANE (CONT'D)

Part of me has always hoped it was higher I go, and the longer I get to stay there. He's been so sweet the last few days, so loving.

DR. REISMAN

DR. REISMAN
But at some point... he gets the power back.

CELESTE
Yes. As time goes by, the bruises fade, his guilt subsides... his insecurity grows... then I'm walking on eggshells... until it happens again.

DR. REISMAN
Where is he now?

CELESTE
Phoenix. He left this morning.

Celeste then takes a breath, which Dr. Reisman sees.

DR. REISMAN
When are you going to leave him?

The question startles Celeste.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)
When he hurts you badly enough?
When he hurts the children?

CELESTE
He would never--

DR. REISMAN
(taking control)
You need to rent an apartment.
Locally, if you don't want to disrupt the boys' school.

CELESTE
Whoa, whoa, whoa. We're getting way ahead of ourselves here.

608

DR. REISMAN

I don't think so. Stock the refrigerator, make sure the utilities are paid for, have the beds made up for the kids, get it all set up so we can at least remove "where on God's earth would I go?" from the equation. You have a place, a mind-set, and another life standing by should you need it, which we both know you will.

CELESTE

This is not the way a therapist is supposed to talk--

DR. REISMAN

(clipped)

I'll get the number of Better Business Bureau, you can report me. In the meantime, start documenting the abuse. Write everything down, photograph your injuries, keep doctor reports. That could be important in a custody hearing and men like your husband typically do go for custody. He has the resources, the money, the contacts, more importantly, the ego to see it through.

CELESTE

Why are you being such an alarmist?

DR. REISMAN

Because I'm alarmed. Have you told anybody else about the abuse?

CELESTE

No.

DR. REISMAN

Why not?

CELESTE

I don't know.

DR. REISMAN

If you were to guess...

CELESTE

Perhaps... some of my self-worth comes from how I'm seen by others.

(CONTINUED)

608

That gets a slight smile from the doctor.

DR. REISMAN

I'm always amazed by patients who can harbor such profound self-awareness underneath the hard shell of denial.

(then)

Find a friend to confide in. Do it today.

CELESTE

Because..?

DR. REISMAN

Because if there is a custody battle, you know what Perry's lawyer will be asking: "Did you ever tell anybody, Mrs. Wright?" "Really, you told nobody at all, is that because it never really happened, and you're just making all this up to win custody?"

Celeste's mind is working as we hear the therapist's voice...

DR. REISMAN (O.S.) (CONT'D)

"In fact, you've repeatedly maintained what a wonderful husband and father Perry is, haven't you, Mrs. Wright?" "Nobody has ever witnessed this 'alleged' abuse, ever. Isn't that true, Mrs. Wright?" "We only have your word." "You said he was wonderful, now you say he's a monster, were you lying then, or are you lying now?"

OFF Celeste, a little shell-shocked.

JANE

Still nothing? Not even a text?

Madeline shakes no.

MADELINE
She probably lost her sitter.

Nathan and Bonnie are in the same row further away,

It's so good.

MADELINE Amazing.

Ed takes Madeline's hand, agreeing without a word.
Madeline looks back to the stage. Then, as she looks back to Joseph--

HER POV

Joseph's wife, Tori, is staring back at her.

Madeline re-directs her stare, looks back to the stage.

ED
Like it?

JANE
They loved it.

As Nathan and Bonnie appear.

BONNIE
Congratulations, Madeline.

MADELINE
Thank you.

NATHAN
I thought it was great. I mean,
I'm not a big fan of muppets,
but...

JANE

I'm gonna try Celeste.

MADELINE
Where's Abby?

NATHAN
She had to rush out, but she told

MADELINE
Why'd she have to rush out?

You should be so proud of Joseph.

TORI

I am, I am.

MADELINE

So proud.

A long beat. It's really awkward now. Tori pulls Madeline aside.

TORI

Was it you?

MADELINE

I'm sorry?

TORI

I know he had an affair a year ago. It was you, wasn't it?

MADELINE

Of course not. I'm a happily married person, Joseph and I are friends. I would never... he would never... My word. I would never.

MADELINE

Oh... just reflecting on it all.

ED

Big night. I would think you'd be bubbling over a bit with pride.
You should be.

MADELINE

Thanks.

Thinking about this dinner coming

Dreading it.

ED

It'll be fine.

She's not sure about that. And Madeline's phone vibrates. She looks at it, sees Celeste's ID.

MADELINE

Finally. She better have a damn good reason.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

Time to go to bed, young lady.

CHLOE

Gimme ten.

MADELINE

CHLOE

I'll give you seven, final offer.

MADELINE

Now.

Chloe turns the TV off, runs into the kitchen, kisses her parents good night and runs into her room.

ED

So it happened... during...

MADELINE

Talk about wild sex.

ED

Yeah. Talk about it.

She reads his face, measures his tone.

MADELINE

What's that s'posed to mean?

ED

I just can't imagine the passion it must take to shatter a urethra in two places.

MADELINE

You sound envious. Would you like

Ed shoots her a look. Funny.

Not smash it, but... we never have wild sex.

(off Madeline)

We have nice sex, I like it. But let's admit it. The whole thing times out between four and six minutes, and neither of us are remotely in danger of physical injury.

MADELINE

That's a really mean thing to say, Ed.

ED

Sorry. Maybe I am envious.

(off Madeline)

Perry walks in the door, and whoosh? I wish we had that kind of desire.

MADELINE

By we, you mean me.

ED

Okay. You're a fiery person, which makes your "tepid-ness" for me more conspicuous.

A beat. She looks away.

ED (CONT'D)

I don't mean to punish you.

MADELINE

Well, you're certainly doing a good job of it.

ED

I tell myself all the time, "hey, married couples after awhile, they reach a sexual plateau, it's the norm." And when I hear of other couples breaking urethras...

MADELINE

It's not like you're a raging bull, most nights you only touch me reaching for the Visine 'cause you've got dry eye.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

ED
No. What I said is that in every

He now looks at her.

ED
I don't "pretend" to love you. I

She sits next to him. Takes his hand. A long beat during which he looks at her, waits for her to say something. Will she dare to tell him about Joseph? He takes her hand and kisses it. Madeline is fighting tears now.

MADELINE

I haven't been the best wife, I know... and I'm so sorry, Ed... but...

The idea behind all this is extremely noble. Not many sixteen-year-old girls have much of a social conscience and... I am proud of you. Very proud. I just think there's another way to accomplish your goal.

ABIGAIL

this one.

Abigail just looks away.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

A year ago... I cheated on Ed.

Abigail looks back. Shock.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

I had an affair. I cut it off damn quick, but...

ABIGAIL

You had an affair?

Madeline nods. Then--

MADELINE

The two things I care about most in life are my family and my marriage. And I risked destroying them both. I know about fuck-ups, trust me. At least the cause you'd be having sex for is a good one. Mine was just selfish.

ABIGAIL

Do you not love Ed?

Madeline is suddenly fighting some emotion. She nods. Of course she loves him. And shrugs...

AS WE HEAR THE INTRODUCTION OF "PAPA WAS A ROLLING STONE" AGAIN...

632 INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE, LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

THE MUSIC CONTINUES UNDER--

Ziggy performing another dancing act for his mother who is seated on the couch in front of him, enjoying the show. The kid is good, he's got some moves. And as he keeps on dancing, we hear the TEMPTATIONS singing: "It was the third of September/ That day I'll always remember/ 'Cause that was the day/ That my daddy died..."

Jane starts to lose her smile, wonders, as the TEMPTATIONS keep on singing: "I never got a chance to see him/ Never heard nothin' but bad things about him/ Momma I'm depending on you, to tell me the truth..."

Jane nearly dissolves on the spot, as we CUT TO:

633 DARKNESS. THE MUSIC KEEPS ON PLAYING. WE SEE A DOOR OPENING AND A STREAM OF LIGHT... A FIGURE APPEARS... A LIGHT SWITCH IS FLIPPED ON: WE SEE CELESTE IN THE APARTMENT. She's returned to get the "feel" of the place. She looks around the stark, unfurnished place, tries to imagine herself now living here. She walks about, HER HEELS CLACKING AGAINST THE HARDWOOD FLOORS. SHE PEERS INTO THE MASTER BEDROOM. SHE WALKS OVER TO THE BOYS' ROOM, LOOKS IN THERE. THE PLACE IS SO EMPTY. SO LIFELESS. SHE WALKS ABOUT... THEN SHE SITS ON THE FLOOR. AGAINST THE WALL. TUCKS IN HER KNEES; SHE LOOKS ALMOST FETAL. SHE PONDERES TOMORROW. YESTERDAY.

CLOSE ON CELESTE

EYES OPEN... WINCING, BREATHING DEEPLY... SUCKING AIR.
PULL BACK TO REVEAL...

701

INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BATHROOM - MORNING

701

Celeste lays on the floor, doubled over; the wind knocked out of her. Wearing a bra, panties, and a red welt on her side. SHE CONTINUES TO SUCK AIR.

PERRY (O.S.)

Get up.

And PERRY, dressed for work, stands over her.

PERRY (CONT'D)

(almost tenderly)

You're fine, Celeste. Get up.

She lays here, still gulping oxygen.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Honey.

(extends his hand)

You just got the wind knocked out of you a little. You're fine.

She flinches when she feels his hand on her... but... it's a gentle touch.

PERRY (CONT'D)

C'mon, sweetie. Let's get up.

Whatever happened, it's over. His Tourettesian burst of anger has passed, he's now tender, remorseful Perry.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Baby, I'm sorry.

(CONTINUED)

701 CONTINUED:

701

MAX (O.S.)
Mom! We gotta go.

Perry quickly moves to

702 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS

702

MAX is heading toward the master bedroom. Perry intercepts.

PERRY
Hey, buddy, Mom isn't feeling well.
I'll take you guys to school, okay?

MAX
What's wrong with her?

PERRY
Her tummy's just a little upset, that's all. She'll be okay. I'll be right down, okay?

JOSH
Did she have too much vodka?

PERRY
No, she's probably just got a little virus, that's all. But out of respect...
(monster voice)
... no happiness allowed today.

As Perry goes to tickle him, MAX flees. Perry goes back into:

703 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BATHROOM - CONTINUOUS

703

Celeste is on her knees now, breathing normally. As Perry helps her to her feet--

PERRY
I'm really sorry.

CELESTE
Yes, you are. You're the most fucking sorry person I know.

He immediately ices over. A flicker of rage crosses his face. But she'd rather be hit again than forgive.

703

CONTINUED:

703

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Go ahead, you piece of shit.

This is extremely tense. He raises a hand; she refuses to cower. He then strokes her hair, ever so tenderly.

PERRY

Such a tone. Seems our little therapist hasn't been too effective after all.

Shock. Does he know? "That she's been sneaking off to Dr. Reisman?"

PERRY (CONT'D)

Maybe instead of going together, I should go alone.

She measures him. He doesn't know. Some relief.

PERRY (CONT'D)

I think I'd stand a better chance of getting to the root of my problem... if I went alone.

CELESTE

What exactly would you say to her?

PERRY

That I hit my wife. That I hurt her.
(a profound admission)
That I can't make myself stop.
(then)
That I'm desperate to stop.

And just like that, she feels a twinge of hope for them again. And some disgust for herself for doing so. He approaches, reaches out to touch her. Ever so gently, he delicately traces the side of her face with his finger. And there is wonder in his eyes. He can never get used to how beautiful she is, how blessed he is to be with her. And her private disgust also gives way to wonder. One man, two extremes, both authentic.

704

INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - MORNING

704

MADELINE, in a slightly agitated state, is getting ready to rush out the door with Chloe; ED is on a laptop.

704

CONTINUED:

704

MADELINE
(calling upstairs)
Chloe!! Zero tolerance on tardiness, young lady, let's go, right now.

CHLOE (O.S.)
Woman!

MADELINE
Get your little butt down here.

ED
Well, she has still yet to launch it, that's a good sign.

MADELINE
What?

ED
Abigail? There's no sign of a launch yet on her Facebook page...

MADELINE
So you're hacking into her site now, after getting so high up on your Clydesdale.

As WE HEAR CHLOE COMING DOWN THE STAIRS--

ED
What exactly did you say to her, anyway?

MADELINE
Common sense, live right or go straight to hell.

CHLOE
Are you having your period?

MADELINE
Out to the car, now.

Chloe is out the door. As Madeline begins to go, Ed takes her hand.

ED
Are you having your period?

MADELINE
You trying to be funny?

(CONTINUED)

704 CONTINUED: (2)

704

ED
I'm trying to be serious.
(off her)
What's going on with you?

A beat. For a second, she might spill. But then--

MADELINE
I gotta get Chloe to school.

705 EXT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - CONTINUOUS

705

As she steps outside, Madeline looks up... she sees it. Sitting in a parked car across the street. Staring. TORI BACHMAN. SHE PUTS THE CAR INTO GEAR; DRIVES OFF. OFF MADELINE, SERIOUSLY SPOOKED, UNAWARE THAT IN THE WINDOW BEHIND HER, ED IS WATCHING.

JOSEPH (O.S.)
Are you sure it was Tori?

706 INT. JOSEPH BACHMAN'S OFFICE - LATER

706

Madeline and JOSEPH.

MADELINE
Does she drive a grey Saturn?

Clearly she does.

JOSEPH
And she was just parked there, right outside your house?

MADELINE
I have half a mind to go to the police.

JOSEPH
And say what? "The wife of the man I was having an affair with is looking at me funny"?

706

CONTINUED:

706

MADELINE

Clearly, she knows about us, Joseph, first she flat-out accuses me, now she's going all 'Glenn Close.'

JOSEPH

She suspects. She doesn't know, in fact I did a good job of denying it.
Not that my capacity for denial would be a fraction of yours.

Madeline stares, tries to read him.

MADELINE

Look. I admitted I had feelings for you. I don't know what else you could possibly expect me to say.

JOSEPH

Maybe that it goes beyond "feelings."

A beat.

MADELINE

What, you think I'm still in love with you?

JOSEPH

(pointing a finger)
The thing about you, Madeline--

MADELINE

Do not point your--

JOSEPH

(yelling)
Let me finish!

That shocks her a bit.

706

CONTINUED: (2)

706

JOSEPH (CONT'D)

Central to your core is your grossly, if not artificially inflated sense of moral integrity. For you to be fucking me for three months like a mad hyena in heat--

MADELINE

How dare you--

MADELINE (CONT'D)

--talk to me like that, you

JOSEPH

--could only mean that, yes,--

JOSEPH (CONT'D)

(screaming)

--you were not only in love with me--

MADELINE

(screaming back)

No, I was not!!!

JOSEPH

... but had the best sex of your life!!!

Madeline is on the verge of hyperventilating.

MADELINE

You are so wrong. You have gone so far in the direction of wrong--

JOSEPH

If I am, how come I feel so aroused, right now? And I'm sure you feel the same.

Joseph takes her hand and puts it on his crotch. She takes it away immediately.

JOSEPH (CONT'D)

You're telling me that this is wrong, Maddie, to love and desire someone like we do?

MADELINE

I do not desire you--

706

CONTINUED: (3)

706

JOSEPH

You're lying!

Joseph grabs her hand again; she pulls it away.

MADELINE

Touch me one more time, you'll regret it for the rest of your life! So help me god.

He stares at her for a long time, breathing heavily.
Then--

JOSEPH

Well, my mistake, then. See you at the party tonight.

MADELINE

(in his face)

Yeah, you'll see me at the party alright. I'll be standing front and fucking center!

And he leaves. Madeline stands there, also breathing hard.

707

INT. DR. AMANDA REISMAN'S OFFICE - DAY

707

Celeste is with DR. REISMAN.

DR. REISMAN

Clearly, you need to get out.

Silence.

(CONTINUED)

707

CONTINUED:

707

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)
He just beat you up.

CELESTE
I've got the apartment.

DR. REISMAN
But you're not in it.
(then)
Is the refrigerator stocked? Beds made up?

No. Silence.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)
Are you going to leave him, Celeste?

CELESTE
Yes.

A beat. The doctor lets the dead air speak. And then--

CELESTE (CONT'D)
He goes away tomorrow on another business trip, so... We have a big school gala tonight, so...

DR. REISMAN
It's one thing should he kill you, but god forbid you miss a party.

Silence.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)
Your husband is ill, Celeste, but so are you. You've packaged such a perfect image of your life that you even fool yourself.
(then) You're ill.

Celeste just stares at her feet.

DR. REISMAN (CONT'D)
There are children in the house.

Enough. Celeste jumps out of her seat and leaves.

708

INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE, FAMILY ROOM - DAY

708

Jane is on the phone, paperwork spread out in front of her, including a Quickbooks spreadsheet. ZIGGY, still in his jammies, IS WATCHING CARTOONS, a thermometer in his mouth.

JANE

(into phone)

Yes, the invoice was sent out twelve days ago.

(then)

I would really appreciate it. Thank you so much. Bye bye.

And she hangs up. As THE THERMOMETER BEEPS, Jane pulls it out, checks.

JANE (CONT'D)

Ninety-eight point six. That's as normal as it gets, bud.

She feels his brow. She then picks up the remote, TURNS OFF THE TELEVISION.

JANE (CONT'D)

Tell me the truth, baby. Are you really feeling sick, or is it that you don't want to go to school?

ZIGGY

I feel sick.

Ziggy's not a good liar. He doesn't know how.

JANE

You don't seem congested.

ZIGGY

I have aches.

(puts his hand to his temple)

One here.

(points to the crown of his head)

One way up here.

(points to his heart)

And here.

708

CONTINUED:

708

JANE

Oooh. Possible that your heart hurts because the other kids have been told not to play with you? I would certainly understand.

Silence from Ziggy.

JANE (CONT'D)

Is that what's going on here, buddy?

ZIGGY

Friends play with me. Chloe, and Josh. And Harriet. And Amabella.

708

CONTINUED: (2)

708

JANE

Amabella Klein plays with you?

ZIGGY

Yes. We're friends. She likes 'Star Wars,' too.

(then; almost dismissive)

It's not me who hurts her.

Jane stares, something in his tone. Something knowing.

JANE

Ziggy. Do you know who's been hurting her?

His face closes down slightly, but enough for a mother to recognize.

JANE (CONT'D)

Oh my god. Who is it?

ZIGGY

I don't want to talk about it.

JANE

You do know.

(then)

For god's sake, Ziggy, why wouldn't you tell me?

He stares back, a bit like a deer caught in the headlights.

ZIGGY

I promised.

JANE

You promised who?

His lip quivers a bit now.

JANE (CONT'D)

All this time you've known? While taking the blame?

ZIGGY

I only just found out.

JANE

Who is it?

708

CONTINUED: (3)

708

ZIGGY
I promised I wouldn't tell.

JANE
I don't care. Promised who?

Silence.

JANE (CONT'D)
(softly imploring)
Promised who, Ziggy?

ZIGGY Amabella. She said if I told, she might get killed dead.

His eyes are filling with tears.

JANE
Ziggy. Sweetie. Normally, it's important to keep promises, but sometimes--

ZIGGY
No. I promised.

Jane's wheels are spinning. She can sense that part of him wants to tell.

JANE
How 'bout this?

She grabs her computer, flips it on.

JANE (CONT'D)
You can't tell me who it is, but you can point! That wouldn't be breaking a promise. Right?

He blinks twice.

JANE (CONT'D)
You wouldn't be breaking your promise to Amabella, and I can promise you that she won't be killed dead.

ANGLE THE COMPUTER

A CLASS PHOTO. ROSTER, ALL THE FIRST GRADE FACES.

JANE (CONT'D)
Point to me which one.

(CONTINUED)

708

Ziggy is not sure about this.

JANE (CONT'D)
It's not breaking a promise, and it will help protect her. She's been a friend to you, this is a chance for you to be a good friend to her.

Ziggy looks frozen.

JANE (CONT'D)
For god's sake, Ziggy, just point.

Slowly a hand goes up... and he points.

JANE (CONT'D)
(stunned; a whisper)
What?

Ziggy nods.

ANGLE THE COMPUTER

It's one of the twins.

MADELINE (V.O.)
Oh my god.

709 EXT. BLUE BLUES CAFE - DAY

709

Jane with Madeline, sitting at an outside table.
Madeline's just gotten the news.

MADELINE
Why did she point at Ziggy on Orientation Day?

JANE
Max told her he would do it again if she told. I don't know what to do.

MADELINE
You go right to Celeste, that's what you do. She'd want to hear it directly from you, just as I would if it were Chloe. Honesty is the best policy, that's what I always...

She catches herself; hears her own words aloud. Then--

709

CONTINUED:

709

MADELINE (CONT'D)

(deflecting)

My god, I knew those twins were ruffians. But bullies?

JANE

It's just Max. Ziggy was quite clear on that.

THE BELL ON THE DOOR CHIMES.

ANGLE GORDON KLEIN has just entered; he sees them. An awkward nod 'hello' as he walks towards them.

GORDON

I'm sorry to interrupt. Hi, Madeline.

(to Jane)

Jane, Gordon Klein, Renata's husband, we met, remember?

JANE

Yes, of course.

GORDON

I was wondering whether I might speak to you privately for a second.

JANE

Okay.

MADELINE

Gee, I'm feeling a little excluded.

Tom regards the dynamic.

Gordon shoots Madeline a look. As he sits...

GORDON

Actually, Madeline, this would be good for you to hear as well since you two make quite the little team.

(then; to Jane)

Whether or not Ziggy is the one who hurts Amabella--

JANE

Well I'm so happy and relieved to tell you that he isn't--

You're the one who attacked my wife.
Please know that I will be taking out a restraining order if you ever go near Renata again.

Tom approaches.

TOM

I'm sorry, Gordon. I'm going to have to ask you to leave now.

GORDON

Everything's okay, Tom.

TOM

It's actually not. I can't have you harassing my customers. Could you leave, please?

Gordon stares: "For real?"

GORDON

I don't think you have the legal right to remove--

TOM

I am asking you to leave.

He goes to the door.

TOM (CONT'D)

I'm sure I'll see you another time.
Just not today.

GORDON

Please remember what I said, Jane.

Gordon takes his leave. Exits.

TOM

(to Jane)

You okay?

JANE

Thank you. That was impressive.

Madeline agrees.

MADELINE

You're a real prince, Tom. You should have told him to go fuck himself.

(she stands)

Okay, I need to go become My Fair Lady.

(to Jane)

Tell Celeste about the other.

Madeline exits.

TOM

I've been wanting to impress you. I was just waiting for the chance.

A beat. She gets his meaning.

JANE

Aren't you gay?

TOM

What?

Obviously, he's not.

EXT. OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL - DAY

710

CARS BACKING UP IN THE DROP-OFF ZONE AS THE FIRST GRADERS EMERGE. THE ELECTRONIC BOARD REMINDS PARENTS, "SUPPORT OTTER BAY ELEMENTARY -- ATTEND TONIGHT'S BIG GALA!" WE FIND MADELINE near the front, as she debarks her SUV to meet with Chloe.

WE CAN HEAR THE TRAFFIC MONITOR BLOWING ON HIS WHISTLE.

MADELINE

How was your day, baby-cakes?

CHLOE

Well, T.G.I.F.

MADELINE

Tell me about it. I'm either picking fights today, or joining in.

NATHAN (O.S.)

Maddie?

REVEAL NATHAN APPROACHING as Chloe climbs into the SUV.

MADELINE

(to herself)

Sure. Why not?

NATHAN

Ready for Trivia Night? You're coming, I presume.

MADELINE

I'll be the one dressed like Audrey Hepburn.

NATHAN

Funny. Listen. Bonnie and I went to see a counselor this morning, one who specializes in teenagers. I wanted to share...

MADELINE

Wait just a second. You went to a counselor? You?

He doesn't bite. Except for his lip.

He thinks that this could be a kind of scream for attention. Divorce can mess kids up pretty good.

MADELINE

Really? Parents splitting up can actually affect the kids? If only I'd known, I might not have walked out. Oh, wait, did I...

NATHAN

Do you just have to turn everything into a fucking battle?

Nathan shoots a look to Chloe, hoping she didn't hear that.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

(back to Madeline)

Sorry.

MADELINE

(genuine)

I'm glad you're taking the parenting thing seriously. I am.

Nathan knows his ex well enough to see something's up.

NATHAN

Are you okay, Maddie?

MADELINE

I'm fine.

He can see that she's not.

NATHAN

Y'know. Apart from all our shit...

He shoots a look in Chloe's direction again.

NATHAN (CONT'D)

(back to Madeline)

I do root for you. I'm not crazy about spending time together. But I do root for you.

MADELINE

I know. Thank you.

NATHAN

Also, a heads up... of sorts. Bonnie plans to sing tonight at the party, as part of the talent thing. Maddie. She's good. Really good.

Great.

CLOSE ON THEA

THEA

Knowing what I know now... I'm surprised there wasn't more carnage on Trivia Night.

CLOSE ON GABRIELLE

GABRIELLE

One dead, we definitely got off light.

CLOSE ON CELESTE

Staring with vacant eyes.

710A INT. CELESTE'S NEW APARTMENT - DAY

710A

WE REVEAL HER IN THE NEW APARTMENT. SHE'S MAKING UP THE TWIN BEDS IN THE BOYS' ROOM. Her body language is a bit rigid, frozen, like she's on auto pilot. The room is quiet, peaceful. All we hear is the distant, pleasant sound of outdoor birds singing.

FLASHBACK

A QUICK GLIMPSE OF CELESTE'S HEAD BEING SLAMMED AGAINST A WALL. NO SOUND BUT THE ONE OF THE BIRDS FROM...

PRESENT

Celeste carefully places some of the boys' toys about, staging the room. Warmth and happiness. Until she feels pain on her neck.

FLASHBACK

A QUICK GLIMPSE OF CELESTE'S THROAT BEING GRABBED BY PERRY'S HANDS, as she tries to fight back. NO SOUND BUT THE ONE OF THE BIRDS FROM...

CELESTE IS HANGING SOME OF THE BOYS' CLOTHES IN THEIR SOON-TO-BE NEW CLOSET.

FLASHBACK

A QUICK GLIMPSE OF CELESTE'S BODY, dressed in bra and panties only, AS SHE RECEIVES A PUNCH INTO HER SIDE, KNOCKS THE WIND OUT OF HER. AGAIN, NO SOUND BUT THE ONE OF THE BIRDS FROM...

PRESENT

Celeste is taking inventory of the items in the refrigerator. Suddenly, her CELL PHONE RINGS. She jumps, nearly yelps. Sees the caller I.D.

711 INT. BLUE BLUES CAFE - LATER

711

Jane sits there, a bit anxious, bracing for a difficult conversation. Celeste comes through the door, she's also nervous, as a result of Jane's tone on the phone.

JANE

Thank you. I just didn't want to say on the phone.

Celeste sits.

CELESTE

(choking back some alarm)
Say what?

Jane takes a breath. Then--

JANE

Ziggy informed me this morning that it was Max who choked Amabella at Orientation.

It hits Celeste like a sledgehammer.

JANE (CONT'D)

That it's been Max bullying her all along.

Celeste just stares. Finally--

CELESTE

(softly)
What?

JANE

Amabella told Ziggy. But made him promise not to tell, Max threatened to hurt Amabella more if it got out.
So Ziggy's been keeping the secret.

A beat. Celeste looks near catatonic.

CELESTE

Are you sure about this?

JANE

I considered that Ziggy might be lying to protect himself. I also have to face the fact that violence could be in his DNA. Given who his father is.

That hits home with Celeste.

JANE (CONT'D)

But I really think he's telling the truth here. He also said Max pushed Skye down the stairs, and that he's been a little aggressive with her, too. I did let Bonnie know.

Celeste looks unsteady, she's swirling, the world is suddenly upside down. But there's also a sudden clarity pulsing within her. WE SEE FEAR. SOME HORROR. But also... unmistakable resolve.

JANE (CONT'D)

Celeste, I'm so sorry to be breaking this to you.

Silence. Jane takes her hand.

JANE (CONT'D)

Look, kids sometimes bully, it's human nature. They grow out of it.

CELESTE

(steely-eyed)
Sometimes they don't.

There's certainty in her voice. She knows for sure now:
She will leave Perry.

INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - MASTER BEDROOM - DAY

712

Madeline is getting ready, last touch-ups before the big night. ABIGAIL sits not too far away, watching.

MADELINE

He said, "see you at the party" like it was a threat.

ABIGAIL

I seriously doubt he's going to just blow up his life.

Madeline is not so sure about that. A beat during which Abigail watches the reflection of her mom putting on some lipstick. Madeline catches her look. They share a smile.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

Why did you want to blow up yours?

Oh. Madeline is surprised by the question. She turns to look at Abigail.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

Why'd you cheat on Ed?

MADELINE

If only I knew the answer to that.

Abigail stares; waiting for more.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

I can't make sense of it.

(then)

The one thing I cling to more than anything is being a good wife, a good mom.

(a beat)

I can't explain it, or excuse it.
Other than to say it was maybe a stupid thrill-ride where I never thought I'd get caught... I've been wanting to tell Ed for so long... I just haven't found the courage yet.

Abigail considers. Then--

ABIGAIL

What good can come of it?

712

MADELINE

I'd maybe feel less burdened.

ABIGAIL

What good can come of it for Ed? Or Chloe?

Madeline considers, nods. A look between them. Then--

MADELINE

How'd you get so smart?

ABIGAIL

I take after my dad.

Madeline shoots her a look.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

Kidding.

(a beat)

Listen. I've decided not to go through with it. My secret project.

What? Madeline seems so relieved.

ABIGAIL (CONT'D)

It was pointed out to me -- not by Bonnie -- that whatever attention I drew to the cause would get buried under the controversy over my methodology. So I'm going to find another way.

(a beat)

Maybe I never wanted to do it. It was more of a publicity stunt. To raise awareness--

MADELINE

And piss me off?

They share another smile. Madeline holds a long look at her daughter. It's not lost on her that they have an incredibly candid and healthy relationship. Nor does it escape Madeline... this is a pretty cool kid.

MADELINE (CONT'D)

You are such a great kid.

713

INT. RENATA'S HOUSE, MASTER BATHROOM - SUNSET

713

RENATA and Gordon Klein. He's already got his Elvis outfit on; Renata is still working on her hair. The bathroom is massive.

RENATA

I really wish you hadn't confronted them like that.

GORDON

I'm not going to just stand by and do nothing.

RENATA

The problem is, I'm the one who gets vilified.

GORDON

Why would you be--

RENATA

Because I'm a working mom, I have a career which, by default, makes me the bitch, you have no idea. I could be shot dead in the head, half the mothers would go, "what, she couldn't be bothered to duck?" "The nanny didn't stop the bullet?" That's how these people think, they're vicious.

GORDON

Maybe we should just blow off this party.

RENATA

In which case, we're demonized for skipping the fundraiser. "The rich people just send money, they can't be expected to actually invest their time."

(then)

God, I hate everybody right now.

(then)

Except Jane, believe it or not. How fucked up is that?

INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE, MASTER BATHROOM - SUNSET

715

CELESTE IS TAKING A SHOWER, PRE-PARTY. Making a mental checklist of all the things to do; the vacant expression we saw before now replaced by intense clarity. As she turns, SHE, AND WE, SEE THROUGH THE STEAM, A FIGURE AT THE SHOWER DOOR. A MUTED YELP FROM HER. SHE WIPES AWAY THE STEAM. He's standing there, smiling. He opens the door.

PERRY

This feels very dangerous.

She stares back: which Perry do we have here? He's wearing black slacks, a white shirt, his hair slickly combed back, like Elvis.

PERRY (CONT'D)

We're running a bit late for the party as is.

(playful)

And you have the temerity to be in the shower like this? Tempting me.

It's contagious, amorous Perry. A breath of relief.

PERRY (CONT'D)

You are simply the most beautiful woman on earth. Every time I look at you, it's like the first time.

Celeste shakes her head, the charmer is back.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Do we really need to be on time to this party?

CELESTE

I'm sorry to say we do.

He just stands there. His expression shifts, almost imperceptibly, but enough for Celeste to detect. Uh oh.

PERRY

I'm not budging. Not until you give me a kiss. Whet my appetite for later.

She goes to him. Gives him a soft, tender kiss. She then gently pushes him out.

He retreats. As she turns back to the shower, WE SEE THE REVULSION ON HER FACE.

CLOSE ON ZIGGY

ZIGGY
You look really pretty.

716 INT. JANE'S TOWNHOUSE - SUNSET

716

Jane, now dressed as Audrey Hepburn, with Ziggy.

JANE
Why, thank you, buddy.

The babysitter, LYDIA, is there.

LYDIA
You really do. You actually look exactly like Audrey Hepburn.

THE DOORBELL RINGS.

JANE
That's probably my date. Mommy has a date. With a very nice man.

Ziggy blinks twice.

JANE (CONT'D)
(to Lydia)
We shouldn't be too late.
(to Ziggy)
Bye, buddy. You mind Lydia, okay?

ZIGGY
I will.

Jane gives Ziggy a kiss, heads for the door, opens it to reveal: Tom. Jeans. Jacket. Nothing remotely Elvis about him. But pretty cool-looking.

TOM
Sorry. I don't do costumes. You look fantastic, by the way.

She bites her lip; looks a bit thrown.

TOM (CONT'D)
I say something wrong?

She takes her tiara off her head, her necklace off her neck, her gloves off her hands, and throws them on the table next to her.

JANE (CONT'D)

I don't do costumes, either.

And still, she looks fantastic.

717 EXT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - ENTRANCE - NIGHT

717

The red carpet is out; it's very Hollywood. PAPARAZZI-ESQUE PHOTOGRAPHERS SNAP PICTURES AS THE ELVIS'S AND AUDREY'S WALK TO THE RED CARPET. Limousines transport the couples to the entrance.

WE FIND MADELINE AND ED, posing for the photographers. Madeline's got on a mini; she's boasting a bit of cleavage. She looks a little like a Playboy Bunny. A hot one.

MADELINE

We can order these pics online for forty-nine dollars a pop, isn't that thoughtful of them?

As Thea approaches.

THEA

Upon which, WE HEAR THE RAZZLE-DAZZLE OF A NEW ARRIVAL. Madeline and Ed turn to see BONNIE and NATHAN emerging from their JEEP. Bonnie looks beyond fantastic, of course; an earthy, bohemian, sexy look.

ED

Be nice.

She frowns. Will she?

718 INT. CELESTE'S HOUSE - LIVING ROOM - NIGHT

718

Celeste is walking down the stairs, dressed and made up as Audrey Hepburn. The twins are on the couch when they see her--

JOSH

Wow! You look so beautiful.

Max nods. Agrees. But there is something unusual about him. He's not as talkative, as expressive as usual. Celeste is doing a cat walk for her sons. They love it. She looks fantastic. We hear a PHONE RINGING from another room. None of them pay attention to it, as they all enjoy the moment. Then--

MAX

I got a tooth loose.

Celeste stops her act and looks at Max. She walks to the couch and sits between the twins. Max opens his mouth, puts a finger on the loose tooth. Celeste tries to move it. It hardly does. Max seems to avoid eye contact with his mother.

CELESTE

Look at me.

718

He doesn't. She takes his face and forces him to look at her.

CELESTE (CONT'D)
You're a good boy. The tooth fairy won't forget you, if that's what you worry about.

Max nods. This is just what he needed to hear. Mother and son become spontaneously emotional. They hug as Perry walks down the stairs, wearing a black leather Elvis' look-a-like outfit; the epitome of cool/sleek/hip/sexy. It's his turn to show off, as he's holding Celeste's mobile phone in his hand, like a microphone.

PERRY
(to Max)
Did I hear you got a loose tooth?

Perry gets down on his knees in front of Max, puts the phone down next to Celeste, and pushes his Elvis' glasses down over his nose.

PERRY (CONT'D)
(looking into Max's mouth)
Let me see, buddy.
(glancing at Celeste)
I have a message for you.
(to Max)
Wow! It's really loose this time.
(to Celeste)
From Tracy.

Celeste wonders.

CELESTE
I don't know anyone called Tracy.

PERRY
Your property manager.

Celeste's stomach plunges.

PERRY (CONT'D)
(to Max)
Maybe a little loose.

Perry ruffles Max's hair and straightened his glasses.

their faces joyous. Perry tilts his head at Celeste. A white-toothed Elvis smile.

PERRY (CONT'D)

Does that suit you, honey?

Right at this moment, Kelly knocks at the door and enters.

Perry puts the boys down and does his Elvis' act for Kelly who falls for it. He walks his way to the door and invites Celeste to join him.

PERRY (CONT'D)

We don't want to be late, do we?

KELLY

Go, please. You guys have fun.

ED

Okay.

MADELINE

PERRY

I told you I would get help.

CELESTE

Yes, did you make that appointment,
Perry?

PERRY

I promise you. I will get better. I will.

CELESTE

It's too late for that.

HE PULLS INTO THE COMMUNITY THEATER ENTRANCE, PAST THE RED CARPET--

CELESTE (CONT'D)

Where are you going?

HE DOESN'T ANSWER AND DRIVES THROUGH THE PARKING LOT WHERE HE PULLS INTO A PARKING SPOT; TURNS OFF THE IGNITION.

PERRY

Why is it too late? We have a family, Celeste, consider the boys.

CELESTE

(abruptly)
Max has been bullying Amabella Klein.
It wasn't Ziggy Chapman, it's been Max all along.

I swear, Perry, open the fucking door.

PERRY
We will talk to the teachers. Mother and father. Husband and wife. And I'll talk to Max tomorrow. Before I leave for the airport.

CELESTE
Really, and what will you say? That it's not the way to treat a woman? That men should never hit women?

Silence.

CELESTE (CONT'D)
You think it's any wonder that--

PERRY
The boys have never--

CELESTE
Yes, they have. If they haven't seen it, they've heard it. They know what their father does to their mother.

722 EXT. COMMUNITY THEATER - COURTYARD/BALLROOM - CONTINUOUS

722

BONNIE is on stage, singing a version of Elvis Presley's
"DON'T." Soulful, sensuous, sultry, she's beyond good.
If Elvis had ever heard Bonnie's version, he never would have bothered. A LOT OF COUPLES ARE DANCING. AND A LOT OF MEN ARE GAWKING A BIT, INCLUDING ED.

ED

She's really good.

MADELINE

Yes, I bet the room is just full of erections.

ED

(threatened)

A little too good.

BONNIE CONTINUES TO SING AS MADELINE SPOTS JANE AND TOM approaching. The cloud of doom has completely lifted off Jane; she radiates with... well, joy even. The sad

I'm sick. In sickness and in health,

To have and hold dear, to cherish, to

PERRY
You've been violent too!

CELESTE
In reaction to. I've never initiated tears. Different kind of tears though. His are of desperation, frustration and rage. If looks could kill, Celeste would be dead. Suddenly, A RAP ON THE DRIVER'S

Madeline doesn't let it get to her and brings her attention back on stage when Ed starts SINGING HIS crowd cheers and applauds.

Only one doesn't: Nathan, as he's watching from far back when suddenly he gets a slap from Bonnie: come on.
Nathan claps his hands. Twice.

CELESTE arrives like royalty. Imperial postures. Dressed like many others, except rather than looking like she's in costume, it's as if the real Audrey has finally arrived. But something is missing to make a perfect royal portrait: the smile. Celeste looks around and spots all the faces that we now know, staring at her, nodding and waving: WHIP PAN from Gabrielle to Samantha, to Thea, to Harper, to Stu, to Joseph, and we're back on Celeste who's being caught by Renata and Gordon.

RENATA
(sensing)
Are you alright, sweetie?

Celeste ushers her for some privacy. Gordon gives them some space, wonders what's going on.

CELESTE
This should probably wait but... my son Max is the one who's been hurting Amabella.

RENATA
What?

RENATA

I feel so terribly guilty.

CELESTE

You are not to blame for any of this.

Renata spots Perry who just joined Gordon. He ad libs some hello's, trying to wear his best smile, graciously receiving warm party platitudes from guests, female guests, from Harper to Gabrielle to Thea. But his mind is on Celeste as he glances at her, non stop.

ANGLE ED

now off-stage, approaching Nathan.

ED

Hey. You seen Madeline?

NATHAN

According to Bonnie, she had to step away. You might want to tend to her.

ED

What do you mean?

NATHAN

She might have misdrank a little. Again.

NATHAN

The usual. Ed's being a dick.

ED

Let's do it.

As Nathan takes a step--

BONNIE

Nathan notices too, looks at his girl, and without a word, tells her how much he loves her. He walks away all boosted up and before he gets onto the stage, throws Ed a dirty look.

MS. BARNES

(to Ed)
I'm sorry.

Nathan walks up to the microphone as the music starts to play.

AND WE NOW SEE HIM FROM A DISTANT POINT OF VIEW: Celeste's. She's with Perry in the back, behind everyone, both pretending to watch the show.

PERRY

Would you please? Let's go back in the car. We need to talk about this.

Nathan's got everyone's attention now. He's so good, even Ed is impressed.

725D EXT. CREST COMMUNITY THEATER - BACKYARD - NIGHT

725D

WE STILL CAN HEAR NATHAN'S SINGING IN THE DISTANCE AS RENATA JOINS JANE AND MADELINE.

RENATA

Jane, I owe you and your son a big apology. Celeste just told me. I cannot begin to express how sorry I am.

JANE

Apology accepted, thank you.

RENATA

And I also apologize for the behavior of my husband this morning, he was completely out of line.

JANE

Well, I did stick my thumb in your eye.

Madeline suddenly hugs Renata.

MADELINE

It takes a big person to apologize like that. You're a big person, Renata. I'm small. Tiny. A bug.

Renata wonders what's going on, and so does Celeste when she arrives. Jane mimics that Madeline had too much to drink. Madeline sees Celeste and invites her to join their embrace.

PERRY

Can we, please?

He extends an arm to invite her to leave, to take his hand.

And we now see them from a walking distant POV: Bonnie's as she approaches, carefully.

RESUME

Celeste wonders if she should go to Perry or not. She glances from him to Renata, to Jane, to Madeline to whom she smiles and nods, it's okay, before she starts walking towards Perry.

Just then Madeline does a double take towards Jane who is staring at Perry. A stunned expression.

JANE'S POV: Perry glances from Celeste to Jane, stares blankly at her when suddenly he gets hit by a gun shot in the forehead.

Note: We're going to see Jane throughout the series, at the appropriate moments, having some fantasies of killing Saxon Banks with a gun shot in the head. Of course, we'll never see his face, just his silhouette. Add two more moments in earlier episodes.

We're back on Jane staring at Perry, no gun in hand.

Back on Perry looking at his wife. That was just a fantasy from Jane, but we get it now, so does Madeline when she sees the look on Jane's face. Madeline glances back and forth from Perry to Jane, and when she mouths "Saxon Banks" to her and sees her nodding, IMAGE AND SOUND SLOW DOWN.

THE COCKTAIL CHATTER SLOWS TO A WARBLE. All we hear now is the distant muffled voice of...

NATHAN

(singing)

How's the world treating you...

Madeline immediately sobers up, as she shakes her head, panicked. She'd like to say something to Celeste but nothing comes out of her mouth. She watches Celeste walk towards Perry, helplessly.

And now we see the scene from Bonnie's perspective, as she gets closer...

And from Renata's...

And from Madeline's, as she watches Celeste grab Perry's hand, we BLURRY FLURRIES OF FLASHING LIGHTS AGAIN. AS WE HEAR SOME HEAVY BREATHING, WE WHIP PAN ON OUR DIFFERENT ELVIS PRESLEYS AND AUDREY HEPBURNS ALL DAZZLED BY THE LIGHTS.

DET. GIBSON (O.S.)
Victim's on the back terrace.

AND WE WHIP PAN ON DETECTIVE ADRIENNE QUINLAN AND DETECTIVE WALT GIBSON AS THEY WALK THROUGH THE CRIME SCENE. They stop on top of a staircase going down and stare at what we can only surmise is a dead body.

DET. GIBSON (CONT'D)
Already dead when we arrived.

And we finally see who is watching them: Celeste. She's not panicked. There is something different about her. Something we've never seen before. A spark in the eye. A confidence.

Quinlan stares at the ground, shakes her head.

DET. QUINLAN
My god.

HER POV: Perry's dead body lies in the staircase.

727 INT. INTERROGATION ROOM - DAY

CLOSE ON RENATA

Talking. But we can't hear her.

CLOSE ON JANE

Also talking. We can't hear a word of what she says.

MADELINE

AND CELESTE

All of them are being interrogated. One by one. And since there is no sound, we have plenty of time to look at them. To examine their face. They're no longer dressed as Audrey Hepburn. They're all fixed up like they normally do... well, except for Celeste: she has a black eye and a swallowed lip. Not pretty. He didn't miss her. We hear a door opening, footsteps, and a CLICK that turns a speaker on--

CELESTE

(from the speaker)

... he took a step back, lost his balance and fell.

Quinlan is watching Celeste from behind the double sided mirror in the adjacent room as Gibson turns the volume up.

DET. QUINLAN

Turn it off.

Gibson wonders why, and clicks the speaker off.

DET. QUINLAN (CONT'D)

They're lying.

Quinlan turns to Celeste again, studies her face, as we see her talk to another DETECTIVE seated in front of her on the other side of the table. She's still shook up by the events and looks sad but still in some sort of control.

DET. QUINLAN (CONT'D)

I don't think it was an accident.

DET. GIBSON

Because..?

Quinlan glances at her partner: idiot.

DET. QUINLAN

Their language. Too much the same. One of them briefed the others.

Both look at Celeste in the other room as she keeps talking. We still can't hear her.

DET. QUINLAN (CONT'D)
When the husband got violent with his wife, I don't think he tripped and fell by himself.

Gibson frowns. A beat.

DET. QUINLAN (CONT'D)
He was pushed.

They think about that possibility for a while as they watch Celeste moving her lips, totally unaware that she's being watched from the other room. Or is she?

DET. GIBSON
Alright. So self defense case then. She fought back. He tripped. Involuntary manslaughter. Twelve months of community service, good behavior, she's out in six, maybe three. Why bother to lie?

A long beat during which Quinlan looks at Celeste's wounded hands, then at her eyes, her lips, searching for a clue.

DET. QUINLAN
That's what's bugging me. Why lie?

DET. GIBSON
They're not.

Quinlan looks frustrated. Shakes her head. Can't figure it out. Nor do we.

DET. GIBSON (CONT'D)
Let it go.

And he exits. Quinlan stays there and stares at Celeste in silence.

OVER CELESTE, WE HEAR THE TINKLING OF SOME PIANO MUSIC.

727A INT. MADELINE'S HOUSE - FAMILY ROOM - DAY

727A

CHILDREN'S HANDS ARE PLAYING PIANO: CHLOE'S. She's looking at something as she plays a simple melody: Agnes Obel's September Song.

HER POV: Madeline is sipping tea at the kitchen window, staring out at the ocean.

She turns to look at Chloe when she recognizes the song. She walks to her and joins in. They play the song as a duet, clearly a mother-daughter ritual they've done before.

727B EXT. CEMETERY - DAY

727B

AS THE MUSIC KEEPS PLAYING, WE FIND THE TWINS walking hand in hand with their mom, all dressed up. In black. They are followed by the whole Monterey community that came along to pay their respect. The burial ceremony is over. They all walk to their cars, all of our leads and their spouses immediately behind Celeste, a beautiful gesture of support. All of our women seem to share Celeste's grief.

We now see them from a different point of view: someone's watching from a distance, behind a tree.

728 EXT. OCEAN - DAY

728

AS THE PIANO CONTINUES, WE SEE A WALKING POINT OF VIEW that follows footsteps in the sand of a beach, apparently from of a child. Then, more footsteps. Then little feet running, a lot of them, that belong to...

ZIGGY, CHLOE, MAX, JOSH, SKYE AND AMABELLA, ALL RUNNING IN THE WATER, PLAYING A GAME OF TAG. LAUGHING. DELIGHTED. INNOCENCE, JOY. Fun and merriment.

WE FIND MADELINE, JANE, RENATA, BONNIE AND CELESTE picnicking on the beach, watching the above. There is no more sign of injury on Celeste's face. Time has passed. They suddenly get splashed by one of the twins who runs away. Bonnie goes after him. Catches him and plays a game of wrestling with him. Looks like that's what he was asking for.

Celeste is moved by the tableau. Madeline notices. Squeezes her hand. Their friendship has only deepened, we can sense it.

Coming to the rescue, Ziggy splashes Bonnie. Jane joins in, splashes Ziggy. Then Renata joins in. Soon it becomes a splashing game between the moms and the kids. Pure frolic. Reckless abandonment. The kind of joy that life has a way of squashing. The kind of moment that you don't want to end.

Then, suddenly, Bonnie embraces Madeline, holds her tight. Long enough to have the kids stop playing and wonder, amused. The other mothers share a look.

Bonnie looks at Madeline and offers her the most beautiful smile... along with a tear.

CLOSE ON THE ONLOOKING FACES OF THE MOTHERS. In their eyes, underneath a shared melancholia... peace, hopes and dreams for their children. Perhaps a few for themselves as well.

Celeste extends an arm, inviting Bonnie and Madeline to get out of the water.

Jane looks down at

CELESTE'S HAND

As the piano continues, we realize that we're back on TRIVIA NIGHT, when Celeste reached Perry's hand. We now see the scene from Jane's perspective. She's paralysed.

HER POV: Celeste and Perry head off. As they do, Celeste turns to look at Madeline who mouths something to her. Celeste wonders, glances towards Jane, sees the fear in her eyes, and stops walking. She can't believe it. Shakes her head in disgust, and lets go of Perry's hand as she walks away from him. Perry wonders what's going on until he does a double take on Jane. She holds his stare, feeling the blood through her veins. He looks down and spots the floor getting wet at her feet. That's how scared she is. He looks at her again, seems to remember now, looks at Celeste, and...

The carnage begins. But it doesn't look like it. The absence of sound combined with the soft piano and the slow motion effect give us the impression of watching a ballet. A burlesque one... where beauty meets chaos. Note: the following will be intercut with flashes of waves... powerful, strong, beautiful waves.

Perry grabs Celeste's arm and forces her to walk with him. She fights back and receives a violent slap in the face.

FLASH OF WAVES.

Madeline tries to interfere. Perry puts his free hand on her face and pushes her away.

FLASH OF WAVES.

Renata screams her heart out as she grabs Celeste's free arm to pull her back...

FLASH OF WAVES.

Perry's free hand is holding Jane's neck tightly, choking her. And he pushes her away.

FLASH OF WAVES.

Celeste manages to free herself but immediately gets a knee kick in the stomach.

FLASH OF WAVES.

Perry is looking at Celeste on the ground, shaking his head...

FLASH OF WAVES.

Madeline screams her heart out as suddenly, out of nowhere, Bonnie runs in and gives Perry a very hard, two-handed shove. He staggers back. And she lunges, pushes again. AND DOWN THE STAIRCASE HE GOES.

A WAVE CRASHES. But this time, we stay on it. This is Jane's POV as she stares at the ocean, seated on the beach. Madeline, Bonnie, Renata and Celeste join her as the kids continue to play. Then, as we watch the women dry themselves, we hear--

CELESTE (V.O.)

I pushed him! This is all my fault.
I'm taking the blame. Legitimate defense, I'll be okay.

And we're back at TRIVIA NIGHT AGAIN. They're all in a state of panic. Horror, shock, relief, hard to tell.

CELESTE

We have to stick to the same story.

MADELINE

You didn't push him.

What? Bonnie wonders. Everyone does. Renata gets it.

RENATA

Nobody did.

They share a look, confused, shaking their heads, nodding, crying, wondering what to do...

THEN WE SEE BLURRY FLURRIES OF FLASHING LIGHTS ON NATHAN AND ED'S FACES as they look at their wives holding a long embrace, and as COPS evacuate the crime scene. By the look on their faces, the two husbands obviously don't have a clue of what just happened.

Bonnie parts from Madeline and walks to Nathan, holds him tightly. Ed walks to Madeline, does the same. Nathan and Madeline share a look. Nathan gives her a nod. A thankful one. Looks like these two are ready for peace.

And we're BACK ON THE BEACH, but we now see the women and their children from a distant point of view, from a parked car, through a windshield. In its rearview mirror, we can see the eyes of the driver. It doesn't look like Quinlan is letting go.

OFF this, as the piano ends, we
